Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time - October 25, 2020

Reflection on Lectionary Readings

October 25, 2020 — Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
EX 22:20-26; PS 18:2-4, 47, 51; 1 THES 1:5C-10; MT 22:34-40

Today's readings are all about love — the radical love of God for His people and the radical love we are called to live out in response. The stewardship way of life is nothing more and nothing less than the practical application of loving God and neighbor in our daily lives.

From the very beginning, God reveals Himself as a loving and compassionate Father Who has a particular concern for the most vulnerable of His people. He requires this same compassion from His people in our treatment of one another.

Our First Reading, from Exodus, is an example. In this ancient text God says, "You shall not molest or oppress an alien... You shall not wrong any widow or orphan... If you take your neighbor's cloak as a pledge, you shall return it to him before sunset... If he cries out to me, I will hear him; for I am compassionate." This love of neighbor was a radical departure for the people of this era. But this is the radical God that we serve.

Jesus sums up the message of all the prophets as well as the purpose of all God's laws in today's Gospel passage, from Matthew. It is a message we have likely grown up hearing — but it is so beautiful and so challenging, it bears repeating again and again. It is Christ's response to a question about which commandment is greatest. His answer reveals both the greatest and the second greatest commandments.

He says, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind... The second is like it: you shall love your neighbor as yourself."

How is the second like the first? What do the two commands have in common? Love.

Love God first and love neighbor as self. This is the heart of the stewardship way of life — simple enough for a child to understand, challenging enough to be the life's work of every "grown-up." The "how" of loving God first and neighbor as self is unique to each individual.

Perhaps God is calling you to love Him with your whole heart, soul and mind by committing to a daily time of praying with the Scriptures. Maybe He is calling you to spend time with Him in adoration or a weekday Mass. It might be that He is asking you to put Him first as a family with a time for evening or morning prayer together. Maybe He wants you to spend a bit less time watching the news or surfing the internet, and a little more time pondering the blessings He has given you throughout the day.

And how is God calling you to love your neighbor as yourself? Maybe it is by checking on a relative or neighbor who is isolated. Or by patiently listening to a colleague at work who is overwhelmed. Or by getting involved in a ministry that serves children or the poor.

The stewardship way of life is the unique way that each of us applies the two greatest commandments to our daily lives. To sum it up, it's all about love.

PRAY FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT

St. Ann parish and St. Joseph parish plans to hold a special Blue Mass for our Raritan law enforcement personnel this Sunday, October 25. We will gather at St. Joseph Church at 9:00 a.m. We invite you to join us in praying for all law enforcement personnel, and specifically for those who serve our local community.

Keeping in mind the various risks and sacrifices associated with their service on behalf of our safety and protection, consider praying for them the Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel:

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness
and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

"The Gospel of Life is at the heart of Jesus' saving message to the world. Through the Incarnation and birth of Christ, God reveals to us the dignity of all human life. Human life, as a gift of God, is sacred and inviolable. ...Not only must human life not be taken, but it must be protected with loving concern."

After celebrating All Saints Day on Sunday, we will pray with them for those on the journey from here to there.

The parish website, WWW.STANNPARISH.COM, has a new feature to encourage sustaining our community relationship through prayer. It has a new button link,

PRAYER PETITIONS.

You are invited to share your intensions and request support by hitting the button and submitting your petitions. Especially if you are maintaining distance, know that this is a way to stay connected. I will share your concerns and join you in praying for your needs.

Whether you are maintaining cautious isolation or able to connect in a limited way, keep your parish family in your prayers. With trust in the Lord, let us maintain hope for a vibrant future and begin to reflect on how to reengage in the life and ministry of St. Ann's. I recently sent parishioners a letter and I welcome your response. You are in my prayers.

THE CONSTANT FOUNDATION

Prayer is not an optional add-on or a kind of fix-it utility when everything else fails.

Rather, prayer must be the foundation, the staple, the one constant of our day.

Of course it's not easy, and finding the time to be with God every day will take work. But having this relationship with God is why we were created altogether, and the one thing God wants more than ever.

There is nothing more God desires from you than you.

Jon Leonette, <https://www.jonleoneetti.com/>

"I would now like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion. The Church is aware of the many factors which may have influenced your decision, and she does not doubt that in many cases it was a painful and even shattering decision. The wound in your heart may not yet have healed. ...But do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope. ...The Father of mercies is ready to give you his forgiveness and his peace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation."

Open Your Heart and Home to a Foster Child

Catholic Charities, Diocese of Metuchen is seeking loving families to foster children of all ages, who have been abused, neglected or have had multiple out of home placements, through its Treatment Family Homes Program, contracted by New Jersey's Department of Children and Families.

The goal for the children in this program is to leave foster care and achieve permanency through reunification with their families, adoption, or independent living. Catholic Charities provides these resilient children with individual and family therapy, assistance with educational and medical needs, and independent living skills to help them reach their full potential.

Applicants must have adequate space for a child and complete a home study which includes background checks, references, interviews, and a home inspection. All Catholic Charities licensed families receive initial and ongoing specialized training, 24 hour emergency access to staff, respite services, monthly reimbursement for the child's expenses and support from experienced families.
