From the desk of Fr. Ben... 16 June 2019

We have been having a BARREL of fun up in Lake Linden this week with Totus Tuus! Over 80 youngsters have been coming during the day program, and 12 or 15 in the evenings! Fun... but a lot of prayer and faith in there, too! It is a particular joy for me to see the little ones learning how to pray at Mass, and the big kids asking the questions they need to about the faith! THANK YOU to so many people who made it all happen, not least Sr. Jacqueline and Fr. Dustin!

After Pentecost, two big feasts follow: Trinity Sunday this weekend, and then next weekend Corpus Christi. Then, the Friday after that (June 28th, this year) is the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart. We meditate together on these deep mysteries of the Faith!

At our Corpus Christi Procession next Sunday (2 pm, June 23rd), we'll be welcoming Fr. Joseph's bishop from Ghana!!! Please come show your devotion and love for the Eucharist, and come to welcome this bishop who has so generously sent priests to help in our diocese! Bishop Joseph Osei-Bonsu was a member of the International Theological Commission, and also president of the Ghana Bishops' Conference!

Fr. Dustin and I will be away Monday - Thursday, first at a St. Al's fundraising event, then at Good Leaders/Good Shepherds leadership training. Mass will be cancelled Tuesday - Thursday as a result.

God Bless, Fr. Ben

Words of Wisdom from Bishop Frederic Baraga

"At La Pointe, Fr. John Chebul is now extremely active. If God will only give him the grace that he does not wear himself out too soon. He has a very extensive and difficult mission. Last winter he was called to a sick man who lives 90 English miles away from La Pointe... He needed six days to get there, and every night had to sleep outside in the forest."
