January 12: The Baptism of the Lord

Read: Sacraments in Scripture

Listen: Changed Forever and Our Beautiful End

Watch: Ready Reasons: Is Baptism Necessary for Salvation?

“After Jesus was baptized, he came up from the water and behold, the heavens were opened for him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming upon him. And a voice came from the heavens, saying, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.””

Inasmuch as we are baptized into Christ, we become members of His Body, the Church. When the Father looks upon us, He does see our failures and our sins... but He sees first and most the indelible spiritual mark of baptism, marking us for all eternity as His precious and beloved children!

Imagine the Father saying to you, “You are my beloved son, my beloved daughter, in whom I am well pleased.” What moves in your heart? Bring that to prayer this week!

This Feast of the Baptism of the Lord marks the end of the Christmas Season and our entry back into Ordinary Time. An older tradition reckoned the Christmas season as lasting into early February... so we'll be leaving our beautiful Christmas decorations up a little longer! Make sure to take some time to pray by the manger!

Please pick up a 2020 parish calendar, as well as your 2020 Offering Envelopes. It is a big help to our counters if you use those envelopes!

We also have a wide variety of great prayer and study resources at our entrances... please put them to good use! Please share them with family and friends!

This past Friday seven new permanent deacons were ordained for our diocese! Please pray for them as they begin their diaconal ministry! May God fill them with grace and strength, and work through them in beautiful and powerful ways.

God Bless, Fr. Ben

Thank you very much to everyone who helped prepare our beautiful Christmas celebrations: those who decorated, our choirs, everyone involved in the Christmas Pageant, and all our liturgical ministers! It is truly a joy to celebrate with you in such beauty and truth!

Words of Wisdom from Bishop Frederic Baraga

This morning with prayer and an address, I inaugurated the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, which Rev. Mr. Jahan had initiated, and which hopefully will do much good. May God grant it!”
-Frederic Baraga, January 13, 1855

MISSION COMBINED COLLECTION
JAN. 11-12, 2020

Black & Indian Missions: The Black & Indian Mission Collection exists to help local African American & Native American diocesan communities throughout the U.S. spread the Good News of Jesus Christ & respond to real and pressing needs.

Catholic Home Missions: “Home Missions” is the name for dioceses and parishes in the United States, including its territories and former territories, which cannot provide basic pastoral services to Catholics without outside help. Basic pastoral services include Mass and sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters and lay people.

Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa: While the Church in Africa is growing, many still lack access to basic resources & pastoral care. Many suffer high rates of poverty & unemployment, illiteracy, and poor education. This fund supports pastoral projects that foster lasting peace and reconciliation in a continent often marked by division and tension.

Propagation of the Faith: The Society for the Propagation of the Faith is vital to missionaries serving in 1,111 dioceses throughout Asia, Africa, parts of Latin America & Europe, & on the Islands of the Pacific. Your generosity helps local priests, religious, & catechists to reach out to communities, families & children in desperate need, bringing the light of Christ to the darkest of circumstances covering more than half the globe.

Do you or does someone you love struggle with addiction?

Along with prayer, Confession, Eucharist, and spiritual counsel, our faith encourages us to seek tested healing resources, among them many good 12-step programs. Several such groups meet regularly at St. Al's; to be referred to one that might be a good fit for you or your loved one, call 906-482-7778, or talk to Fr. Ben.
