Words of Wisdom from Bishop Frederic Baraga

Although far from the battlefield, Baraga's diocese was affected by the Civil War. The rising prices of commodities, decreased purchasing power of the dollar and many of the able-bodied men had left to join the colors; some of them returned home maimed. Donations were fewer and smaller than before and his needs were greater.

From the desk of Fr. Ben...

05 July 2020

Having said goodbye to Fr. Dustin last week, we say hello to Fr. Tom this week! Here's a classic shot of him at the Eben Ice Caves when he was a freshman at NMU and I was a baby priest! It's going to be a lot of fun to work with him now that he's a baby priest! Please keep Fr. Dustin and Fr. Tom in your prayers as they both settle into new assignments.

It's been a little quieter this week with the Totus Tuus Missionaries on break, and the guys moving in and out. I even got out of the office on Friday for a little canoe trip with my dad!

We had a beautiful First Communion Mass last Saturday, and Ray Bosley took some really beautiful pictures! I'm really grateful to Sr. Jacqueline and Zoe and all the other catechists and families who worked together to prepare our First Communicants in the midst of the turmoil of this spring!

I am very grateful to everyone's cooperation and patience with our "pandemic adaptations!" As I've expressed to you before, I think we're in this for the long haul... let's stick together and keep encouraging one another!

I am also grateful for your tremendous generosity to St. Anne's and St. Al's! St. Anne's ended the year with a strong surplus on the collection side. St. Al's ended below the overall collections budget, due to the loss of a lot of loose (visitor) giving. However, our envelope holders at St. Al's actually exceeded last years envelope giving, even with all the challenges this spring. Thank you everyone for sticking with your parish!

This past weekend we crept up close to filling our social-distancing capacity at the 9 am St. Anne's and 11 am St. Al's Masses for the first time. If you are able to come to the 5:30 pm Saturday Mass at St. Anne's, there are a lot of seats available then! We had about 40 people at the 7 pm Sunday Parking Lot Mass at St. Al's, and we can put a LOT more cars in that big parking lot! Moving forward, I think it is likely we will add an earlier Mass at St. Anne's, possibly a 7:45 am at St. Anne's, to add more seats. Let me know what you think! (I'll also find out who's actually reading the bulletin!).

I'll be leading the Totus Tuus Missionaries on retreat this coming week, so Fr. Tom is at the helm! God Bless, Fr. Ben
