Bicycling Journey – Clarence Bechter

Many Thanks for all the prayers and thoughts during my 52 days of a bicycle journey that took 7 weeks and pedaled 3000 miles from San Diego, California to St. Augustine, Florida. Coast to Coast. Sincerely, Clarence & Mary

PASTOR'S NOTE

We have been very blessed to see the activity of the Risen Lord in the St. Bernard and St. Mary communities since last Easter!!! We were encouraged when Gianna Giorgio, Isaiah Ballard, Grace Monsour, Dennis Antalek and John Paul Antalek were all confirmed by Bishop Amos on March 22nd at our cluster partner parish, St. Sebastian. Additionally, this past year Trina Maggio, Ryan Hartzell and Kelly Busch were received with joy into full communion with the Catholic Church. Most recently, Vinnie Garbonik, Kari Beaver, and Andrew Johnson received the Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil at St. Bernard!

At St. Mary's, five students accepted the invitation to participate in a lunch and learn about Catholicism every Monday. This group learned about and discussed the Sacraments, rituals and life of the Church. We especially learned about the Mass as the source and summit of our faith and how our going to Mass strengthens the community and ourselves! Cateleya Fisher is ready for Baptism and Malaki and Jevon Hildreth are prepared for 1st Communion and Confirmation! They will receive these Blessings at some point in June when their family comes to town! The other two children may receive sacraments next year. Please pray for them and their families.

At St. Mary and St. Bernard, a total of 40 children will receive their First Holy Communion this month and a total of 26 couples will be married before Dec. 31st is over!

God is so good! As throughout the world we devastatingly hear of people harmed and murdered for practicing their faith, we are grateful to see the practice of this very same faith blossom in our midst. The fullness of God's Kingdom is enhanced when we are able to journey together. Please continue to get to know these people, encourage them and invite others to a similar journey with Jesus! The office is always ready to welcome people seeking sacraments. Peace this Easter Season!

Deacon Mike Capitena (St. Mary School), Deacon Ray DiMascio (St. Bernard), and the Pastoral Staffs of St. Bernard and St. Mary Parishes.
