Thank You from St. Mary School, Akron

With gratitude the students, families and staff of St. Mary School, Akron acknowledge and thank the following parishioners of St. Bernard Parish for participating in the after school tutoring program this 2018-2019 school year: Nathaniel Clark, Catherine Coffman, Marianne Curry, Dr. Maria Ellul, Beth Hofacker, Brandon Hofacker, Michele Hofacker, David Klein, Abigail Kraft, Susan Kramer, Jeffrey Sain, Marcia Schulz, Helen Trares, and Brittany Varsho.

By their presence and in giving of their talent and time, they made the St. Mary Enrichment Program possible. We hold each person in prayer for helping to make a difference in the life of a child. Together we affirm that education can be a pathway out of poverty.

PASTOR'S NOTE

Now that school is out and Summer is here at last, many dreams and activities are on the horizon.

For those who enjoy reading, try Bill Donohue's new book, Common Sense of Catholicism. The author tries to analyze three key elements found in our society- Freedom, Equality, and Fraternity- with the Church's rich insights for common sense solutions.

For those who enjoy the outdoors-gardening. Swimming, hiking the Metro trails, and family cookouts are always refreshing.

For me, I will be living two weeks in a "City of Tents" with 45,000 young teenagers from 167 countries. The beautiful West Virginia mountains will provide the background for this 24th World Scout Jamboree. On Sunday Morning, July 28, Archbishop Christophe Pierre, Papal Nuncio for the USA, will offer greetings from Pope Francis and celebrate the outdoor mass with 15 priest chaplains.

What a grace-filled Summer this could be for all of us
-Father Frank
