2019 First Step Program: Continuing education regarding marriage and divorce in the Catholic Church

Attempting to pick up the pieces of one's life after the tragedy of divorce is an area that can impact a person's relationship with God and the Church. One of the significant issues that a person faces is their place in the Church. Does the Church still care about me even though I am divorced? Am I allowed to go to Mass? Can I receive communion? How can the Church help me heal? If I decide to marry again, what do I have to do?

The Tribunal of the Diocese of Cleveland offers its First Step Program to help individuals deal with these questions in order to renew and/or strengthen their relationship with God and the Church. This program is offered to help everyone, especially those who have experienced divorce, learn more about Catholic teaching regarding marriage, divorce, and remarriage. Representatives from the Ministry to the Divorced Office of the Department for Marriage and Family Ministry will also be present to explain the resources they offer to the divorced. Everyone is welcome to:

- Deepen knowledge of the Church's teaching on marriage...
- Learn about the Church's ministry to the divorced/separated in the Diocese...
- Hear about the annulment process and how to submit a case...
- Discover a path to healing after divorce in order to strengthen and/or renew a relationship with God and the Church

In any endeavor, taking the "first step" is always the most difficult. The First Step Program helps individuals to navigate the path of healing and closure.

The First Step Program will be held on:

- Tuesday, 17 September 2019, at St. Ambrose Parish, Brunswick, at 7:00 pm

Note that the Diocese of Cleveland no longer requires any fees for this process.

PASTOR'S NOTE

The Adoration Chapel, (The "Life star" for the Star Wars-inclined) is fully operational once again. Call the parish office or talk to one of the clergy to get the entry code and procedure. It is good to keep track of who has the access code. Pray for the two from St. Bernard who recently responded to a call to priesthood and religious life. John Meyerhoffer had faithfully served at masses and as a leader in the Newman Center the last two years and has gone on to discern priesthood for his home diocese, Arlington, at St Charles Borromeo Seminary in Philadelphia. Catherine Coffman spent so many hours in prayer and adoration this past year and discerned that God was calling her to follow him in the way of life of the Little Sisters of The Poor. She has gone to Chicago for the postulancy year where she tries it out. Akron Catholic Worker House needs our help! There is a pressing need for more people to contribute their time and keep it going! Could it be you? Absolutely, Yes! It could be! The movement is a wonderful story of the Holy Spirit unfolding right in our midst and you can learn about it by watching the movie "Entertaining Angels" or by researching it. Sr. Catherine Walsh leads our local community, and there is also a great movie about her life out called "Sister." To find out more, contact Sister Catherine: akroncatholicworker@gmail.com or 330-384-1112.

We received diocesan permission this week to engage with engineering firm THP to design the needed work to St. Bernard and get contractor bids. A diocesan employee was at St. Mary's two weeks ago, to take pictures for inside/water damage-related repairs which will be paid on through an insurance claim. Stay Cool Over Summer! –Father Chris
