A MESSAGE FROM FR. MARC

Dear Faith Family,

Last week we announced that Fr. Michael Sheehan will be coming to St. Agnes and St. Camillus Parish as our new Parochial Vicar. Fr. Sheehan will begin his assignment on October 22nd, 2019, the Feast of St. John Paul II. Please pray for Fr. Sheehan as he makes ready for this transition.

Fr. Michael Zimmerman will be concluding his time with us on Monday, October 21st, 2019. Fr. Zimmerman will be taking on the duties as the Assistant Vocation Director of the Archdiocese of Boston. That we may send Fr. Zimmerman off with the appreciation he is due, we will have two receptions on Sunday, October 20th. The first will follow the 9:00 AM Mass at St. Camillus, in the St. Camillus Parish Hall. The second will follow the 12:00 PM Mass at St. Agnes, in Arlington Catholic High School. Please, come and share this time with Fr. Zimmerman.

The Convocation is fast approaching. The planning team has put in many hours of work to prepare for this day. Please, if you have not already registered, consider joining us, teens and young-adults are most welcome to take part. Children of all ages are welcome to attend with their parents. You can register online at cparl.org under the Collaborative button-click on collaborative and scroll to the bottom of the page.

The mission of Catholic Education is at the heart of the Catholic Church in Arlington. From the beginning of the Church’s presence in Arlington, handing on the Catholic Faith via Catholics Schools has been a priority of the worshipping community. We are blessed to have St. Agnes School and Arlington Catholic High School in our community. We educate children from K0 (three year olds) to seniors in High School. Our school community is a daily blessing. On Sunday, November 3rd there will be an Open House at our school (both campuses), from 1:00 PM to 3:00 PM. It is a great opportunity for families to see what our parish school has to offer. Come and discover how Catholic Education can serve your child.

Peace,
Fr. Marc

A MESSAGE FROM FR. MICHAEL SHEEHAN

October is the perfect month by which I can introduce myself to the Catholic parishes of Arlington. This month, my parents celebrate their 42nd wedding anniversary. They raised me in Norwood, where I played football at this time of year. In 2000, my mother, brother, and I went to Rome for the World Youth Day pilgrimage with St. John Paul II, whose feast day is the 22nd. Down the other end of Route 2, Williams College, my alma mater, welcomes fall foliage tourists. It was there that I discovered my vocation. And since October is both Respect Life Month and the month of the Rosary, I should tell you that I was active in my college pro-life and rosary groups. For the last 16 years, I have been a son of St Francis, who we celebrated back on the 4th. Now, in this month of apple picking, pink clothing, and pumpkin-spice-everything, I arrive in Arlington.

SAINT AGNES MUSIC NOTES

Why do we sing the communion antiphon? According to the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM), there are four options for what is to be sung during the reception of Communion: (1) the antiphon from the [Roman] Missal or the antiphon with its Psalm from the Graduale Romanum, as set to music there or in another musical setting; (2) the antiphon with Psalm from the Gradual Simplex; (3) a chant from another collection of Psalms and antiphons, approved by the Conference of Bishops; (4) some other suitable liturgical chant/sacred song approved by the Conference of Bishops or the Diocesan Bishop. If there is no singing, the antiphon given in the Missal may be recited either by the faithful or by a reader, otherwise, it is recited by the Priest himself after he has received Communion and before he distributes Communion to the faithful.

We are using the first of these choices followed by a choral sacred selection if it is a choir mass or a sacred song sung by the cantor at other masses as is prescribed in the fourth choice. Often, there is meditative organ or piano music concluding until the Priest has finished with communion. We begin the Antiphon/Communion Chant, while the Priest is receiving the Sacrament, its purpose being to express the spiritual union of the communicants by means of the unity of their voices, to show gladness of heart, and to bring out more clearly the “communitarian” character of the procession to receive the Eucharist. He who sings prays twice! - St Augustine

LIFE AFTER LOSS
BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP

Bereavement Support Groups provide a very good way for people to work through the grieving process. They provide people the opportunity, in a safe and supportive environment, to share their feelings and stories with others that are going, or have gone, through the loss of a loved one. The Life AFTER LOSS group is intended for those who would like to learn new and supportive ways to reclaim moments of contentment and happiness while honoring those who have died. This group is sponsored by the Keefe Funeral Homes. New sessions will run from 6:00 PM-7:00 PM in the Saint Agnes Parish Center, beginning on October 21st and running until November 25th. Please sign up at christykeefe2002@yahoo.com.

BOYB – BREAK OPEN YOUR BIBLE
with Fr. Michael
(Biweekly Commentary on the Sunday Readings)
Sacred Space – 2 Kings 5:14-17 (10/13)

In this week’s first reading, after being healed from his leprosy, the foreigner Namaan makes an interesting request of the prophet Elisha: “please let me, your servant, have two mule-loads of earth, for I will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any other god except to the LORD”. Previously, Namaan had resisted the prophet’s directions to bathe in the Jordan river in order to be healed asking, “Are not the rivers of Damascus better than all the waters of Israel? Couldn’t I wash in them and be cleansed?”. Indeed, what’s so special about the waters and dirt of the Holy Land?

I consider one of the greatest blessings in my life to have been the opportunity to study Scripture and Archaeology in the Holy Land for 3 ½ months. There is much natural beauty, but that is not what makes the Holy Land a special place. In one sense, Scripture is an ancient, dead book written thousands of years ago. But more truly it is the living word of God, and this is brought to perfection at Holy Mass where God speaks to us as Scripture is proclaimed today. When I studied in the Holy Land, I visited the physical ruins of biblical scenes, which were lifeless memorials. But as I was able to celebrate mass in these places they came alive anew – Jesus spoke the Beatitudes to me and my family as we sat upon the Mount of the Sermon next to the Sea of Galilee.

A particularity of celebrating mass in the Holy Land at various sites is that you don’t celebrate the mass of the day, but rather the mass of the place. So if you’re on Mount Tabor on October 4th, you celebrate the Feast of the Transfiguration instead of St. Francis. In Bethlehem, it is Christmas every day. In the Empty Tomb, “Alleluia!” rings out 365 days a year, even during Lent. This may seem strange, but we recognize that Jesus’ saving acts not only sanctify time (we celebrate Sunday mass because it is the day of the Lord’s Resurrection; we celebrate Christmas every year on December 25th because it is the day of Jesus’ birth), but they also sanctify space. Jesus was incarnate and came into the world not only on certain time, but also in a precise location.

Jerusalem is a deeply conflicted city, but I couldn’t help but walk around with a sense of wonder and mystery and proclaim with the psalmist, “Mount Zion, true pole of the earth, the Great King’s city!” (Ps 48:3).

Praying at the cross on Calvary hill, I truly felt like I was at the center of the universe. A pilgrimage to the Holy Land is a great blessing for those able to partake. May God bless Fr. Marc’s trip and those joining him next year [spots may still be available]. And...
