

Blessed Fra Angelico detail of the Last Judgement

Chapter 1 of Alive in Christ – People of Faith

Blessed Fra Angelico loved to paint angels. Have the children examine the picture to see how happy the angels are. They are sent to greet the souls who have died and are on their way to heaven. They dance and sing for joy with them. The gate with light represents the passage to heaven. See if the children can tell the angels apart from the people.
