World Mission Sunday

Today is World Mission Sunday. We celebrate this day by remembering our baptismal call—to bring the Gospel to all! The collection today for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith ensures the work and service of the Mission Church, as it supports priests, religious and lay leaders who offer the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions.

Thank you for your generosity.

Weekly Reflection

October 18, 2020

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Anyone who enjoys books, plays, films or TV shows about crime and punishment soon becomes an expert on certain legalities without ever attending law school. Case in point: entrapment. It becomes a well-known fact that such a thing is underhanded at best and illegal at worst. The tempting use of it comes to law enforcement when it desperately wants to catch a suspect in a situation which will force them to decide on a criminal course of action. Entrapment was quite illegal in Our Lord's time. St. Matthew gives us this famous scene in which the smug team of Pharisees and Herodians try to use entrapment tactic to attack Jesus.

Of course, the hapless group has no idea of their victim's capabilities, much less of His true nature. To their chagrin they soon learn about His quick mind. Our Lord's answer rolls down the centuries from them to us, who still use His words in a variety of circumstances: "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's." Applying Our Lord's words to the various situations that crop up in modern life involving Church and state conflict is not always simple. We Christians have an almost reflex response of respect for lawful authority in both spheres. That originates with our good parents. They instilled in us principles of right and wrong that endure into adulthood. Up until recently, those concepts were reinforced by the authority figures in our lives from kindergarten to graduate school and all the steps in between. What sadly happened, especially on the Church side, was a betrayal of that respect by some of our priests and the hierarchy. That forfeiture has yet to be mended. On the civil side, we know that the negative cliches applied to politicians have long had a basis in fact.

So when secularism made its presence felt in our American culture, it met a pliant populace. Consider the lack of outcry when our government decided that murdering babies in the womb was perfectly legal. At that moment Caesar lost his moral compass and sense of decency. He still forces our compliance through penalties. But every Christian knows he's on the wrong side of truth. The Constitution of our country allows the free expression of disagreement, even peaceful public protest against a given governmental edict or policy. But that is no license for a Christian to join with a band of people who use violence, thuggery, property destruction and wholesale looting of a business to make their point. Caesar makes his mistakes, and he should be told about it. But God's opinion about the best human behavior is explicit in what we call "the Sermon on the Mount." Like Himself, His opinions are timeless. Their expression is easily accessible in a book we call "the Bible."

We are asked to attend this Mission Sunday to the fact that we are a mission Church. To support actual missionaries through prayer and monetary offerings is an obligation right from the days of the Acts of the Apostles. But all of us have a mission through Baptism to live and spread Christ's gospel. Not always easy, especially with a recalcitrant Caesar in place. Ever so true is it that "it is one thing to show a man that he is in error, and quite another thing to put him in possession of the truth." God love you and give you His peace.

Saint of the Week

Luke, Evangelist

Luke is the author of the third Gospel and of the Acts of the Apostles. He was the only Gentile Christian among the four Evangelists and his Gospel, written in Greek, was unquestionably written for Gentile Christians. Tradition has him as a Greek-born, from Antioch. Saint Paul called Luke "our beloved physician" (Col 4:14) and Luke was known to have traveled with Paul on his second and third missionary expeditions in Greece and Rome. He also accompanied Paul on the dangerous journey to Rome, where Paul wrote, "only Luke is with me" (2 Tim 4:11).

Luke's message today: Like the other Evangelists, Luke's message is with us today as it has been throughout the history of the Church. They have given us the Gospels, which enable us to learn about Jesus' life and ministry. Further, the Acts of the Apostles give us grounding in the work of the Holy Spirit in the early Church.

Are you familiar with Luke's Infancy Narrative (1:5-2:38)? Read this beautiful story again and reflect on its relation to your life today.

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Theme: We thank God for faithfulness.

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's 2nd Reading from St. Paul

Step One: Listen to the Word

Hearing this lovely opening to Paul's letter to the Church in Thessalonica, what part of it touches your heart? What single word catches your ear?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: In your young life, who has helped you know Jesus as a friend?

Question for Youth: We are supposed to give to God the things that are God's. What in your life is dedicated to God? How do you keep those things sacred?

Question for Adults: If you were to write a thank you note to someone or to a group who has helped you grow in faith, to whom would you write and what would you say?
