OUTREACH MINISTRY

Our wonderful community at St. John's came through as a bright star in a rather bleak year. Our Giving Tree has given many community members a merrier Christmas. A small sampling of those who were assisted:

~ A single mother was given grocery cards and local business cards to make a better season for her new twins.

~ Many Seniors on fixed incomes were given a boost with gift cards to help them through this unusual Christmas season

~ Grandparents who are helping raise their grandchildren were given cards for gas and gifts.

~ A recent widow and her children were assisted with basic living expenses.

Many more people were so appreciative of receiving a little more light in their lives.

Thank you from the bottom of our hearts!

Prayer to St. Joseph During Pandemic

Protect, O Holy Guardian, this our nation. Enlighten those responsible for the common good, so that they might know—like you do—how to care for those entrusted to their responsibility. Grant intelligence of knowledge to those seeking adequate means for the health and physical well-being of their brothers and sisters.

Sustain those who are spending themselves for those in need, even at the cost of their own safety: volunteers, nurses, doctors who are on the front lines in curing the sick.

Bless, O St. Joseph, the Church: beginning with her ministers, make her the sign and instrument of your light and your goodness.

Accompany, O St. Joseph, our families: with your prayerful silence, create harmony between parents and their children, in a special way with the youngest.

Preserve the elderly from loneliness: grant that no one might be left in desperation from abandonment and discouragement. Comfort those who are the most frail, encourage those who falter, intercede for the poor. With the Virgin Mother, beg the Lord to liberate the world from every form of pandemic. Amen

Weekly Reflection

January 17, 2021

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Magnetism. On one level, it's that physical phenomenon in which a bar of iron or steel can attract other iron. It can grab on to almost any metallic object from a coin to a car and everything in between. It's the "glue" that holds the photographic memories of a family on the refrigerator door.

On another level, the word refers to those features of a person that makes him or her attractive. In the case of Our Lord Jesus, we have not only attraction but also the fact that He is both human and divine. The gospels give us glimpses of both. Jesus at one time raises a dead man to life but at another time He is caught napping in the stern of St. Peter's boat.

In the gospel passage we read today, John our author gives us all the subjects and verbs of the incident, but none of the adjectives or adverbs. We hear that two former disciples of the Baptist sent them after the Lord. They experienced in turn His magnetism. But how did their faces look? And how did Jesus' own face look? Or with what tone of voice did Jesus have when He asked them "What are you looking for?" John doesn't say. I surmise a smile and a welcoming arm gesture when Jesus invited them to come and see where He was staying. However John steps out of character to note the time of day when this happened. Maybe because this incident marked the hour of the first calling of people that Jesus gave. We find out the name of one of the men was Andrew. He in turn introduces his brother Simon to the Lord. Simon gets a new name, along with a new calling. The magnetic attraction of Jesus usually involves a change in the other's life.

I believe it follows that we have an opportunity this January day to reflect on our own calling from the Lord. While each of us is unique, we also have a common call as Catholic Christians to "introduce" others, so to speak, to Jesus. A sad fact is that the largest group of people in our country in terms of religious affiliation are the "nones." People with no connection to any religion. I believe we have a call to introduce them to Jesus. And we can do that more by our actions than by words. The action of our Christian lifestyle, which has a built in magnetism of its own. The story is told of the captain of a Mississippi riverboat who, as his ship passed another vessel, grabbed the first passenger he saw and said, "Look, look over there on the other boat, Look at its captain." The man was somewhat bewildered and asked, "Why do you want me to look at that captain? What makes him so special?" Then the captain told him the story of how he had collided one night with another boat. His own vessel was foundering and in the process he was thrown overboard. The captain of the other vessel saw his desperate plight and maneuvered close enough that he was able to dive into the water and save his life.

After telling the story, the once-saved captain then turned to the bystander and said, "Ever since that day, I want to point out my rescuer to others." Likewise, as a people who have been magnetically attracted by Jesus, and been saved, secured and loved by Him, we should want to point out to others the God-Man who has rescued us from the consequences of our sins.

Saint of the Week

Timothy, Bishop and Martyr

Timothy was living in Lystra when St. Paul visited there around the year 47. He joined that saint for the second and third of his missionary journeys and is frequently mentioned in the Bible in both the Acts of the Apostles and in Paul's letters. Timothy was with Paul at the founding of the church in Corinth. He was probably with Paul when the apostle was imprisoned in Caesarea and, later, in Rome. Timothy was himself imprisoned, but was later set free.

In the second letter to Timothy, the most personal of all his writings, Paul is nearing the end of his life ("I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." 2 Tm 4:7). He gives Timothy further advice on how to conduct his ministry, and tells him to "be strong in the grace which is ours in Christ Jesus."

Timothy's message today: Tradition tells us that Timothy followed Paul's advice and used his gifts well. He was indeed "strong in the grace which is ours in Christ Jesus." Jesus asks us to do the same, that is, to use our gifts well and be strong in the grace that God gives us.

How are you using the gifts that God gave to you? Do you sometimes forget that Jesus is with you, giving you the grace that will help you to be strong?

January 17, 2021 -2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, 'What are you looking for?'" - John 1:38

What are you looking for? Are you wasting your time looking for the material comforts of the world? Or, is your heart longing for something deeper that can only be found by spending time with God? Take time, each day, in silence and ask the Lord what it is that He wants you to do.

January 17, 2021 Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Theme: God calls us to follow Christ.

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Step One: Listen to the Word

As you hear this familiar story of Jesus calling his first disciples, what words or phrases strike you? What in this reading touches your heart?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: What can you do this week to show that you are a follower of Jesus?

Question for Youth: Andrew seemed to know immediately that he should follow Jesus. Do you have that same sense of confidence in your faith in Jesus? What helps? What makes it hard?

Question for Adults: In what ways do you experience being called by Jesus? What does he want you to do?

MERCY CORNER

Jesus invites each of us to "come and see" for ourselves that his word is true and everlasting. "Come and see" is God's invitation for fellowship and communion with the One who made us in love for love. Augustine of Hippo tells us something very important about God and how he relates to us: "If you hadn't been called by God, what could you have done to turn back? Didn't the very One who called you when you were opposed to Him make it possible for you to turn back?" It is God who initiates and who draws us to himself. Without his grace, mercy, and help we could not find him.

The Lamb of God... Jesus Christ as Lamb of God, is to the heart of a Christian, like an ever-flowing stream of mercy – There is mercy in the blood of the lamb – Like a never-ending river of mercy. He is your source of sin-atonement mercy for bruised and guilty lambs.
