Weekly Reflection

February 7, 2021

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Poor little February! Even in its better leap years, it still has fewer days than its calendar mates. Besides that, at least in the Northern hemisphere, it comes at that time of year when the weather offers a tiresome repeat of its neighbor January. Gone is the charm of that first snowfall when others arrive.

But wait! Isn't a convinced Christian an automatic optimist, no matter the season? Theologically, yes. Psychologically, I am not so sure. Whatever problem Life doles out, it just seems that we're less likely to handle it well in February. This Sunday's First Reading from the Book of Job makes explicit what we might be thinking about in February. We get little comfort. Along comes the timeless "Good News" in today's Gospel passage. It can lift us up from any "downer" we may experience this month. The Holy Word offers not just a palliative but a pain killer. That's because it highlights how a certain Jesus, the same we met as a mere babe two short months ago comes to us with the very reason for our optimism. We re-learn that He is the cure for all our ills. The demons at this point have a temporary advantage over the good people around Jesus who are seeking cures from various maladies. But Jesus orders their silence. He prefers a gradual realization among His newfound followers.

As a result, "little February" is not as forlorn as it may have seemed at first. For here, only seven days in, she presents a Gospel passage that gives us the whole reason for our main Christian claim. Bishop Robert Barron explains it this way: Christianity is, first and foremost, a religion of the concrete and not the abstract. It takes its power not from a general religious consciousness, not from an ethical conviction, not from a comfortable abstraction, but from the person Jesus Christ. It is Christ...that moves the believer to change of life and gift of self."

Of course, pessimists are always to be found. Usually they have a hard time believing in anything, much less Jesus. When someone is convinced that things can't be done, he will cling to that conviction in the face of the most obvious contradiction. The story is told of the time when Robert Fulton gave the first public demonstration of his steamboat. One of those "can't be done" fellows stood in the crowd along the shore repeating, "He can't start it." Suddenly, there was a belch of steam and the big boat began to move. Startled, the man stared for a moment and then began to chant, "He can't stop it!"

Saint of the Week

Josephine Bakhita

Captured near her village in the Darfur region of the Sudan and enslaved in 1875 as a young girl of about six, this saint was so traumatized that she could not remember her given name. The Arab slavers then gave her the name Bakhita, Arabic for "the fortunate one." This proved to be prophetic. Even as a slave undergoing unspeakable torture and living in the harshest of conditions, Bakhita noted the beauty of the world and wondered who it was that created all of this beauty. She eventually became a Catholic and was known for her great charity and piety. Greeting and blessing the children coming into school and taking care of the poor endeared her to the people.

Josephine Bakhita's message today: Few have suffered as Josephine Bakhita did in her lifetime. Yet her strong faith in God sustained her and gave her the strength to pass her love on to others.

Are you able to accept the trials that fall upon you in your life and still love God and your neighbor?

Please welcome the newly baptized into our parish family:

Hazel Jane Svizeny
Parents: Julia & Daniel

February 7, 2021— 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed...He told them, 'Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come.'"

- Mark 1:35, 38

In today's Gospel reading we see a perfect example of stewardship. Jesus gives His time to do all that God wishes - healing the sick and preaching. But before He begins, Jesus makes time to be alone with God in prayer. It is through prayer, spending time with God, that we find the strength to do what He wishes us to do. Be sure to find time every day to be with God.

February 7, 2021 Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Theme: Let us preach the good news to all!

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Step One: Listen to the Word

As you listen to the stories of Jesus healing the people, what strikes you about it? What do you detect in Jesus that strengthens his ministry?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: What can you do to help your friends and classmates know more about Jesus?

Question for Youth: Jesus knew that his mission was for everyone, not just one village or group of people. How can you reach out to others (outside of friends and family) and offer them hope and Good News?

Question for Adults: If you were going to pray for healing for any reason, what would it be? What needs to be healed in our world and society?

MERCY CORNER

Healing is a merciful act of God towards the sick. In Jesus we see that He chose to have compassion and mercy upon all who asked for it. ALL who came to Him were healed and that the sight of the sick moved Him with compassion so that He healed them.

Jesus is still performing miracles of mercy to all who will call out to Him in mercy. If you have not received mercy from the Lord, do not give up hope for his compassion and continue to call on Him for mercy.
