Divine Mercy Sunday

"The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own..." - ACTS 4:32

All that we are and all that we have is a gift from God! Think of your family, your friends, your life, your talents and your money – these are all gifts from God! We aren't really owners of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has blessed us with. We are called to be grateful and generous with all of our gifts for the benefit of others.

Weekly Reflection

April 11, 2021

Divine Mercy Sunday

Tres veces en el Salmo de hoy gritamos victoriosos, “La misericordia de Dios es eterna.” En verdad hemos conocido el amor eterno de Dios, quien ha venido a nosotros como Salvador. Por la sangre y agua que fluyeron de su costado traspasado (véase Juan 19,34), hemos sido hechos hijos e hijas de Dios, como lo dice la epístola de hoy.

Pero nunca conocimos a Jesús en persona, ni lo escuchamos predicar, ni lo vimos resucitar de entre los muertos. Su palabra de salvación vino a nosotros en la Iglesia- por medio del ministerio de los apóstoles, quienes en el evangelio de hoy son enviados así como Él fue enviado.

Él fue un Espíritu que da vida (véase 1 Corintios 15,45) y llena a sus apóstoles de ese Espíritu. Como escuchamos en la primera lectura de hoy, ellos dieron testimonio de su resurrección con gran poder. Por medio de su testimonio, transmitido a la Iglesia a través de los siglos, sus enseñanzas y tradiciones llegan a nosotros (véase Hechos 2,42).

Encontramos al Señor así como los apóstoles lo encontraron- al partir el pan en el día del Señor (véase Hechos 20,7; 1 Corintios 16,2; Apocalipsis 1,10).

Hay algo litúrgico de la manera en que los acontecimientos del evangelio de hoy se desenvuelven. Es como si Juan nos estuviese demostrando como es que el Señor resucitado viene a nosotros en la liturgia y los sacramentos. Ambas escenas ocurren en un domingo al atardecer. Las puertas están cerradas con seguro pero aun así, Jesús entra misteriosamente. Los saluda, “La paz esté con ustedes,” siendo el saludo de todo mensajero divino (véase Daniel 10,19; Jueces 6,23). Les demuestra pruebas de su presencia física. Y en ambas noches los discípulos responden con alegría al recibir a Jesús como su “Señor”.

Acaso ¿no es esto lo que sucede en cada Misa—donde Nuestro Señor nos habla con su Palabra y nos da a sí mismo en el sacramento de su cuerpo y sangre?

Acerquémonos pues al altar con alegría, sabiendo que cada Eucaristía es el día que Dios ha hecho—cuando la victoria de la Pascua es una maravilla para nuestros ojos.

Saint of the Week

Peter Chanel, Priest and Martyr

Peter was the fifth child of Francis and Mary Ann Chanel, peasants living in Cluet, France. Mary Ann recognized that her son could perform great service to God and she dedicated him to Mary. His education was turned over to the priest in their parish who saw him through his elementary schooling. Peter then chose to enter the seminary where he was esteemed by both students and faculty. He later became a Marist missionary and was sent to Oceania where he was killed for his faith in 1841. Within months of his death, the entire island was converted to Christianity.

Peter's message today: Given the success that he was having and the initial welcome from the king, Peter probably did not expect to suffer martyrdom. That is true of most people today in a civilized world. And yet martyrdom still occurs in our times, even in some so-called civilized countries.

While it is not likely that you and I will suffer martyrdom, there are missionaries who face this danger every day. Do you remember these people and the important work that they accomplish in your prayers each day?

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

April 11, 2021

Confessions: 2:00—3:00PM

Adoration & Chaplet: 3:00PM

Sunday April 11th marks Divine Mercy Sunday throughout the entire Roman Catholic Church. A Priest will be available to hear Confessions from 2:00 – 3:00pm. Our 3:00pm service will include recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet, Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Eucharistic Adoration.

Officially instituted by Saint John Paul II in the Jubilee Year of 2000, Divine Mercy Sunday was requested by Jesus in the early 20th century when He revealed Himself to the Polish nun Saint Faustina Kowalska to remind mankind of His unyielding burning love and mercy for all. Read the words below that Jesus spoke to St. Faustina and join us for this extraordinary Feast Day:

On that day (Divine Mercy Sunday) the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the font of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates through which grace flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. (Diary of Sr. Faustina, 699)

Theme: Do not persist in your unbelief, but believe!

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Step One: Listen to the Word

As you hear this familiar reading, what words or phrases strike you? What in this reading touches your heart?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: How can you believe in Jesus whom you have never seen?

Question for Youth: Jesus' words of greeting were "Peace be with you," followed by the invitation to forgive sins. How does forgiveness bring peace to you? How does it change the world?

Question for Adults: What strengthens your faith? Why do you believe in Jesus?

MERCY CORNER

As the Holy Father said, "The Church sings, as if receiving from Christ's lips these words of the Psalm." "Give thanks to the Lord for He is good; His steadfast love (mercy) endures forever" (Ps 118:1). And then, the Holy Father developed the connection further: "This comes from the lips of the risen Christ, who bears the great message of Divine Mercy and entrusts its ministry to the Apostles in the Upper Room: 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent Me, even so I send you ... Receive the Holy Spirit.' If you forgive the sins of any, the are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained" (Jn 20:21-23).

During his homily, the Holy Father also made clear that the image of the Divine Mercy St. Faustina saw, which is to be venerated on Mercy Sunday, represents the Risen Christ bringing mercy to the world. The Holy Father said: "Jesus shows His hands and His side to the Apostles. He points, that is, to the wounds of the Passion, especially the wound in His Heart, the source from which flows the great wave of mercy poured out on humanity.
