Exodus 24:3-8/Psalm 116/Hebrews 9:11-15/Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

The Lord through Exodus is proclaiming "this is the blood of the covenant that the Lord has made with you in accordance with all these words of his." The Psalmist is encouraging us to take up the cup of salvation in return for what the Lord has done for us. The Holy Spirit through Hebrews is proclaiming Christ's blood is eternal redemption for us. Jesus in Mark's Gospel is instituting the new and everlasting covenant in the Eucharist his body and blood. Father thank you for the gift of Jesus body and blood and Word given to us in the Mass to nourish us. I thank you in Jesus. Most Holy Virgin Mary pray for us. St. Joseph pray for us. St. Anthony pray for us.

Éxodo 24: 3-8 / Salmo 116 / Hebreos 9: 11-15 / Marcos 14: 12-16, 22-26

El Señor a través del Éxodo proclama "esta es la sangre del pacto que el Señor ha hecho contigo de acuerdo con todas las palabras tuyas". El salmista nos anima a tomar la copa de la salvación a cambio de lo que el Señor ha hecho por nosotros. El Espíritu Santo a través de la carta a los Hebreos está proclamando que la sangre de Cristo es la redención eterna para nosotros. Jesús en el Evangelio de Marcos está instituyendo la alianza nueva y eterna en la Eucaristía de su cuerpo y su sangre. Padre, gracias por el don de tu cuerpo y tu sangre y la Palabra que nos das en la sagrada Eucaristía para nutrirnos. Te doy gracias en el nombre de Jesús... Santísima Virgen María ruega por nosotros. San José, ruega por nosotros. San Antonio ruega por nosotros.

Mass The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, Solemnity

Entrance Antiphon: He fed them with the finest wheat / and satisfied them with honey from the rock.

1st Reading, from the Book of Exodus 24:3-8

When Moses came to the people and related all the words and ordinances of the Lord, they all answered with one voice, "We will do everything that the Lord has told us." Moses then wrote down all the words of the Lord and, rising early the next day, he erected at the foot of the mountain an altar and twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. Then, having sent certain young men of the Israelites to offer holocausts and sacrifice young bulls as peace offerings to the Lord, Moses took half of the blood and put it in large bowls; the other half he splashed on the altar. Taking the book of the covenant, he read it aloud to the people, who answered, "All that the Lord has said, we will heed and do." Then he took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, saying, "This is the blood of the covenant that the Lord has made with you in accordance with all these words of his."

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: r. I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord. or: r. Alleluia.

How shall I make a return to the Lord for all the good he has done for me? The cup of salvation I will take up, and I will call upon the name of the Lord. r.

Precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of his faithful ones. I am your servant, the son of your handmaid; you have loosed my bonds. r.

To you will I offer sacrifice of thanksgiving, and I will call upon the name of the Lord. My vows to the Lord I will pay in the presence of all his people. r.

2nd Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

Brothers and sisters: When Christ came as high priest of the good things that have come to be, passing through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by hands, that is, not belonging to this creation, he entered once for all into the sanctuary, not with the blood of goats and calves but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and bulls and the sprinkling of a heifer's ashes can sanctify those who are defiled so that their flesh is cleansed, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from dead works to worship the living God.

For this reason he is mediator of a new covenant: since a death has taken place for deliverance from transgressions under the first covenant, those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, Jesus' disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?" He sent two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the city and a man will meet you, carrying a jar of water. Follow him. Wherever he enters, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"' Then he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make the preparations for us there." The disciples then went off, entered the city, and found it just as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover.

While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body." Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God." Then, after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Thank You

This Sunday of Corpus Christi we, are blessed to have the music of Rick Gaunt and Ted Anderson. St. Joseph Parish would like to thank Rick and Ted for bringing their unique sound to our Corpus Christi Mass.
