El Señor a través de Amós nos recuerda que él llama a aquellos que él quiere para que sean profetas. El Salmo nos anima a pedirle al Señor que nos conceda su salvación. El Espíritu Santo a través de Efesios nos recuerda que tenemos redención y perdón de nuestros pecados a través de la sangre de Cristo. Jesús nos está enseñando que les da autoridad a aquellos que él elige para predicar el arrepentimiento. Padre, ten piedad de nosotros porque hemos pecado contra ti. Muéstranos, Señor, tu misericordia y concédenos tu salvación, para que prediquemos el arrepentimiento a todos. Te lo pedimos en el nombre de Jesús. Amén. Santísima Virgen María ruega por nosotros. San José, ruega por nosotros. San Benito ruega por nosotros. San Antonio ruega por nosotros.

Mass—15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Antiphon: As for me, in justice I shall behold your face; / I shall be filled with the vision of your glory.

1st Reading, from the Prophet Amos

Amaziah, priest of Bethel, said to Amos, "Off with you, visionary, flee to the land of Judah! There earn your bread by prophesying, but never again prophesy in Bethel; for it is the king's sanctuary and a royal temple." Amos answered Amaziah, "I was no prophet, nor have I belonged to a company of prophets; I was a shepherd and a dresser of sycamores. The Lord took me from following the flock, and said to me, Go, prophesy to my people Israel." The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: r. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

To you I lift up my eyes who are enthroned I will hear what God proclaims; the Lord—for he proclaims peace. Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him, glory dwelling in our land. r.

Kindness and truth shall meet; justice and peace shall kiss. Truth shall spring out of the earth, and justice shall look down from heaven. r.

The Lord himself will give his benefits; our land shall yield its increase. Justice shall walk before him, and prepare the way of his steps. r.

2nd Reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him. In love he destined us for adoption to himself through Jesus Christ, in accord with the favor of his will, for the praise of the glory of his grace that he granted us in the beloved.

In him we have redemption by his blood, the forgiveness of transgressions, in accord with the riches of his grace that he lavished upon us. In all wisdom and insight, he has made known to us the mystery of his will in accord with his favor that he set forth in him as a plan for the fullness of times, to sum up all things in Christ, in heaven and on earth.]

In him we were also chosen, destined in accord with the purpose of the One who accomplishes all things according to the intention of his will, so that we might exist for the praise of his glory, we who first hoped in Christ. In him you also, who have heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and have believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, which is the first installment of our inheritance toward redemption as God's possession, to the praise of his glory.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel, a reading from according to Mark

Jesus departed from there and came to his native place, accompanied by his disciples. When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him? What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands! Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him. Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house." So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

The Gospel of the Lord.
