

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time September 05, 2021

XXIII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario 5 de Septiembre, 2021

Isaiah 35: 5-6

Then will the eyes of the blind be opened and the lame leap like a stag.

Isaías 35, 5-6

Se abrirán los ojos de los ciegos, Y los oídos de los sordos se destaparán. El cojo entonces saltará como un ciervo.

Isaiah 35:4-7a/Psalm 146/James 2:1-5/Mark 7:31-37

The Lord through Isaiah is assuring us that he is with us and saves us. The psalmist is encouraging us to praise the Lord. The Holy Spirit through James is teaching us to show no partiality. Jesus is teaching us that he heals. Father I thank you and give you praise for being with us and saving us in Jesus. Amen. Most Holy Virgin Mary pray for us. St. Joseph pray for us. St. Anthony pray for us.

El Señor a través del profeta Isaías nos Reafirma que El señor está con nosotros y nos salva. El salmista nos anima a alabar al Señor en todo momento. El Espíritu Santo a través del Apóstol Santiago nos está enseñando a ser equitativos (con todas las personas) Jesús nos enseña que él es El que sana. Padre, te agradezco y te alabo por estar con nosotros y salvarnos por medio de Jesús. Amén. Santísima Virgen María ruega por nosotros. San José, ruega por nosotros. San Antonio ruega por nosotros.

Misa de Vigilia del Sábado

Como es de conocimiento de todos se está celebrando la misa los sábados a las 7:00 pm, alguno se han preguntado si la Misa del sábado en la tarde cubre la Misa del domingo: La respuesta es "Si", el código de derecho Canónico que es el conjunto de normas jurídicas que regulan la organización de la Iglesia Católica, así como los derechos y obligaciones de todos los fieles, en el numeral #1248 lo afirma, "Cumple el precepto de participar de la Misa quien asiste a ella, donde quiera que se celebre en un rito Católico, tanto el día de la fiesta, como el día anterior por la tarde", por lo tanto quien asiste el sábado por la tarde cumple el precepto del Domingo, cuando se utiliza las lecturas propias del domingo.

Mass—Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Antiphon: You are just, O Lord, and your judgment is right; / treat your servant in accord with your merciful love.

1st Reading, from the Prophet Isaiah

Thus says the Lord: / Say to those whose hearts are frightened: / Be strong, fear not! / Here is your God, / he comes with vindication; / with divine recompense / he comes to save you. / Then will the eyes of the blind be opened, / the ears of the deaf be cleared; / then will the lame leap like a stag, / then the tongue of the mute will sing. / Streams will burst forth in the desert, / and rivers in the steppe. / The burning sands will become pools, / and the thirsty ground, springs of water.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: Praise the Lord, my soul!

The God of Jacob keeps faith forever, secures justice for the oppressed, gives food to the hungry. The Lord sets captives free. r.

The Lord gives sight to the blind; the Lord raises up those who were bowed down. The Lord loves the just; the Lord protects strangers. r.

The fatherless and the widow the Lord sustains, but the way of the wicked he thwarts. The Lord shall reign forever; your God, O Zion, through all generations. Alleluia. r.

2nd Reading from the Letter of Saint James

My brothers and sisters, show no partiality as you adhere to the faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ. For if a man with gold rings and fine clothes comes into your assembly, and a poor person in shabby clothes also comes in, and you pay attention to the one wearing the fine clothes and say, "Sit here, please," while you say to the poor one, "Stand there," or "Sit at my feet," have you not made distinctions among yourselves and become judges with evil designs?

Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters. Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him? The word of the Lord.

Gospel, a reading from according to Mark

Again Jesus left the district of Tyre and went by way of Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, into the district of the Decapolis. And people brought to him a deaf man who had a speech impediment and begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him off by himself away from the crowd. He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, "Ephphatha!"—that is, "Be opened!"—And immediately the man's ears were opened, his speech impediment was removed, and he spoke plainly. He ordered them not to tell anyone. But the more he ordered them not to, the more they proclaimed it. They were exceedingly astonished and they said, "He has done all things well. He makes the deaf hear and the mute speak."

Haiti 2021 Special Collection

Bishop Daly is requesting that all parishes take up a special emergency collection to help the people of Haiti.

Prompted by the massive earthquake and tropical storm that hit Haiti recently, Archbishop Jose H. Gomez, President of the USCCB, sent a letter to all bishops asking them to consider taking up a voluntary special collection to support the Church and humanitarian needs arising from these and any future disasters. Collected funds will be used where they are most needed.

St. Joseph Parish will have a second collection to help with this effort; you may also donate at the Diocese website at www.dioceseofspokane.org/haiti.
