The Holy Spirit through Wisdom is encouraging us to pray for prudence and wisdom. The Psalmist is asking the Lord for wisdom and for the Lord to fill us with love so we sing to the Lord with joy The Holy Spirit through Hebrews is reminding us the Word of God is living and effective. Jesus is teaching us to follow the commandments, to give to the poor, to follow him, and that all things are possible with God. Sabiduría 7: 7-11 / Salmo 90 // Hebreos 4: 12-13 / Marcos 10: 17-27

El Espíritu Santo a través del libro de la sabiduría nos anima a orar para obtener prudencia y sabiduría. El salmista le pide al Señor sabiduría y que el Señor nos llene de amor para que le cantemos al Señor con gozo. El Espíritu Santo a través de la carta a los Hebreos nos recuerda que la Palabra de Dios es viva y eficaz. Jesús nos está enseñando a seguir los mandamientos, a dar a los pobres, a seguirlo y nos recuerda que todo es posible para Dios... Padre, abre los corazones de tus hijos para experimentar plenamente tu Palabra en nuestras vidas para que se haga tu voluntad. Te lo pido en el nombre de Jesús. Amén. Santísima Virgen María ruega por nosotros. San José, ruega por nosotros. San Antonio ruega por nosotros.

Mass—Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Antiphon: If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, / Lord, who could stand? / But with you is found forgiveness, / O God of Israel.

1st Reading, from Book of Wisdom

I prayed, and prudence was given me; / I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me. / I preferred her to scepter and throne, / and deemed riches nothing in comparison with her, / nor did I liken any priceless gem to her; / because all gold, in view of her, is a little sand, / and before her, silver is to be accounted mire. / Beyond health and comeliness I loved her, / and I chose to have her rather than the light, / because the splendor of her never yields to sleep. / Yet all good things together came to me in her company, / and countless riches at her hands.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain wisdom of heart. Return, O Lord! How long? Have pity on your servants! r.

Fill us at daybreak with your kindness, that we may shout for joy and gladness all our days. Make us glad, for the days when you afflicted us, for the years when we saw evil. r.

Let your work be seen by your servants and your glory by their children; and may the gracious care of the Lord our God be ours; prosper the work of our hands for us! Prosper the work of our hands! r.

2nd Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

Brothers and sisters: Indeed the word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart. No creature is concealed from him, but everything is naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must render an account.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel, a reading from according to Mark

[[As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him, and asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus answered him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You shall not kill; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not steal; you shall not bear false witness; you shall not defraud; honor your father and your mother." He replied and said to him, "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" The disciples were amazed at his words. So Jesus again said to them in reply, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God."] Peter began to say to him, "We have given up everything and followed you." Jesus said, "Amen, I say to you, there is no one who has given up house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not receive a hundred times more now in this present age: houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and eternal life in the age to come."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Contributions made to the ACA provide much-needed funding for the many ministries and administrative needs of our Diocese. This year we are called to "Restore Our Hope" to foster the growth of our Catholic faith community. Please take time to consider prayerfully the materials being sent – and then respond to the request to do our individual part in the work of the Church.

As you know, the Annual Catholic Appeal is one of our Diocese's four annual collections and should be an integral part of our personal Stewardship Plan and family budgeting. This annual solicitation of funds is not new to us Catholics. Although our parish's participation in this appeal does not "purchase" each and every service or ministry the ACA funds, every parish in our Diocese (including ours) is blessed by its success. We all share in the bounty of the harvest.

Contributions/pledges can be made online at www.dioceseofspokane.org, by direct mail, or by placing the pledge envelope in the Sunday collection.

Nuestra fuerza se encuentra en lo que logramos juntos. Las contribuciones hechas a la ACA proporcionan fondos necesarios para los muchos ministerios y necesidades administrativas de nuestra Diócesis. Este año estamos llamados a "Restaurar nuestra esperanza" para así fomentar el crecimiento de nuestra comunidad de fe católica. Tómese el tiempo para considerar en espíritu de oración los materiales que se envían y luego responda a la solicitud de hacer nuestra parte individual en el trabajo de la Iglesia.

Como saben, la Campaña Católica Anual es una de las cuatro colectas anuales de nuestra Diócesis y debe ser una parte integral de nuestro Plan de liderazgo personal y presupuesto familiar. Esta solicitud anual de fondos no es nueva para nosotros los católicos. Aunque la participación de nuestra parroquia en este llamamiento no "compra" todos y cada uno de los servicios o ministerios de los fondos de la ACA, cada parroquia de nuestra Diócesis (incluida la nuestra) está bendecida por su éxito. Todos compartimos la generosidad de la cosecha.

Las contribuciones / promesas se pueden hacer en línea en www.dioceseofspokane.org, por correo directo o colocando el sobre de promesas en la colecta dominical.
