It will not be out of place to consider the ancient tradition, teaching, and faith of the Catholic Church, which was revealed by the Lord, proclaimed by the apostles, and guarded by the fathers. For upon this faith the Church is built, and if anyone were to lapse from it, he would no longer be a Christian either in fact or in name.

We acknowledge the Trinity, holy and perfect, to consist of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. In this Trinity there is no intrusion of any alien element or of anything from outside, nor is the Trinity a blend of creative and created being. It is a wholly creative and energizing reality, self-consistent and undivided in its active power, for the Father makes all things through the Word and in the Holy Spirit, and in this way the unity of the holy Trinity is preserved. Accordingly, in the Church, one God is preached, one God who is above all things and through all things and in all things. God is above all things as Father, for he is principle and source; he is through all things through the Word; and he is in all things in the Holy Spirit.

Writing to the Corinthians about spiritual matters, Paul traces all reality back to one God, the Father, saying: Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service but the same Lord; and there are varieties of working, but it is the same God who inspires them all in everyone.

Even the gifts that the Spirit dispenses to individuals are given by the Father through the Word. For all that belongs to the Father belongs also to the Son, and so the graces given by the Son in the Spirit are true gifts of the Father. Similarly, when the Spirit dwells in us, the Word who bestows the Spirit is in us too, and the Father is present in the Word. This is the meaning of the text: My Father and I will come to him and make our home with him. For where the light is, there also is the radiance; and where the radiance is, there too are its power and its resplendent grace.

This is also Paul’s teaching in his second letter to the Corinthians: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all. For grace and the gift of the Trinity are given by the Father through the Son in the Holy Spirit. Just as grace is given from the Father through the Son, so there could be no communication of the gift to us except in the Holy Spirit. But when we share in the Spirit, we possess the love of the Father, the grace of the Son and the fellowship of the Spirit himself.

—St. Athanasius (+373)

Social Justice Corner by a Guest

Next week we begin our annual summer program—the Agape Service Project. Youth from around the Archdiocese will join us to serve the migrant farmworker community of Whatcom County. Groups will learn about immigration-related topics and come to know the undeniable human dignity of immigrants and migrant farmworkers. One way we respect this dignity is through our weekly food bank. While we are working with local food banks and NW Harvest, we still need your support to make our food bank a success!

We are collecting:
- Diapers (Sizes 5 or 6) and wipes
- canned fruit (pineapple, pears)
- canned veggies (corn, green beans, tomatoes)
- snacks (granola bars, fruit snacks)
- hygiene and household products (soap, razors, pads, laundry, dish soap)
- baby/kids/men's/ women's clothing.
- Cereal
- juice (non-refrigerated)

Please bring donations to the bin at the entrance to the church. These donations will be such a blessing!

We are also seeking local weekly volunteers for food bank and program preparations at Sacred Heart. Your volunteer support will help us expand our outreach with the farmworkers at the camps. If you're interested in volunteering, please contact director Melinda Sergent at agape@wwunewman.com. Please pray for us with the intercession of Bl. Pier Giorgio Frassati, that we may serve all God's people as we are all citizens in heaven.
