Promotion of World Peace

—Pope Paul VI
Welcome to Sacred Heart Parish

Directory Update: We appreciate your patience! Although we’ve had some design delays, the new directory is just about ready to go to print. Thank you for all your submitted photos—we’re busy formatting and working on layout. The new print directories should be available in January—look for the announcement after the first of the year.

Children’s Mass bulletins and books are now available in the entryway of the church next to the coat rack in a small bookshelf. You are most welcome to use them during Mass, and please return them to the bookshelf after Mass.

The Knights of Columbus would like to send a care package to your loved one who is currently deployed overseas in the US military. If you have a loved one you’d like us to send a care package to, please send us their name, deployed mailing address, and any special instructions or suggestions. Also, give us your contact information so we can get in touch with you if we have any questions. If any parishioners would like to donate materials for the care packages, or otherwise help with this service project, we welcome your participation! Please contact Jack King at jack@king-works.com

When the song of the angels is stilled,
When the star in the sky is gone,
When the kings and princes are home,
When the shepherds are back with their flocks,
The work of Christmas begins:
to find the lost, to heal the broken,
to feed the hungry, to release the prisoner,
to rebuild the nations, to bring peace among the people,
to make music in the heart.

—Howard Thurman

The Magi are filled with awe by what they see; heaven on earth and earth in heaven; man in God and God in man. They see enclosed in a tiny body the One in whom the entire world cannot contain.

—St. Peter Chrysologus

Social Justice Corner

This week, the US Catholic Church celebrates National Migration Week. The theme reflects the need for Catholics to be inclusive and welcoming to all our brothers and sisters. In this way, we counter what Pope Francis has called the “globalization of indifference,” creating instead a “culture of encounter.” Of welcoming: “offering broader options for migrants and refugees to enter destination countries safely and legally.” Of protecting: “defending the rights and dignity of migrants, independent of their legal status.” Of promoting: “ensuring that all migrants and refugees ... are empowered to achieve their potential as human beings...,” including promoting the integrity of families. And finally, integrating: promoting “opportunities for intercultural enrichment brought about by the presence of migrants and refugees,” including helping them become active members of our communities. Welcoming immigrants is part of Catholic Social Teaching and reflects the Biblical tradition to welcome the stranger. We are called to stand with immigrants and refugees as our brothers and sisters. This is who we are as Church! Immigration is about real people who are trying to find a better life. As Pope Francis stated, “Each migrant has a name, a face, and a story.”

Let us take time to reflect on how we can better welcome, protect, promote, and integrate migrants living in our midst. How can we counter the globalization of indifference that affects us all? What policies will affirm the dignity of migrants and better secure the common good? What policies will promote family integrity and reunification? How do we more fully promote a Church for all?
