

Kerri Morton has been a Sacred Heart parishioner for five years and has been the organist and cantor along with her husband, Dan, for the past year during the live stream masses. She is a part-time emergency room nurse and full-time mother to Alex (7) and Amaryllis (22 months).

Kerri is a graduate of the Franciscan University of Steubenville (B.A. Philosophy) and Montana State University Northern (Nursing). She has also studied voice under professional opera singers at McGill University and Carnegie Mellon University.

Kerri has 8 years of experience as a church organist and music director at parishes in Montana and New York. Kerri has done some professional singing as a guest soloist with the Regina Symphony orchestra and the Regina Philharmonic Chorus. She is also a regular guest soloist with the Baroque period ensemble Per Sonatori.

