12th Grade: Summer Reading Assignment Reflection Paper

This paper is due on September 21, 2020.

This entire assignment will be worth 100 points. The reflection paper will count as the first-quarter project, which is equivalent to a test grade.

You are required to read the novel Saint John Paul the Great: His Five Loves by Jason Evert.

This book can be purchased from any major bookstore or on-line. In addition, you can check your local library as well.

Please obtain a copy of this book as soon as possible.

Read the entire book and be prepared to answer a series of questions about the book.

- You must type a 1-2 page essay about the reading.
- Details and examples from the book should be used whenever fitting.
- Please label each part and do them in the correct order.
- Be sure to follow MLA format:
  - 12-point font
  - Times New Roman font
  - 1-inch margins all around
  - Double-spaced
  - MLA heading in the top left corner
    - Example:
      - Your Name
      - Teacher’s Name
      - Summer Assignment
      - Due Date

Directions: Your paper is a REFLECTION based on the book. Your paper is broken into two sections. In each section, questions have been provided to guide your response. Be sure to use examples from the book and cite the pages in the book you quote or provide examples from.

Part I:
- Briefly summarize in one (1) paragraph the events described in the book.
- What part of the book impacted you the most and why? Explain your response.

Part II: History shows us that there are Enduring Issues. There are many issues in this book that you can make an argument for but for this assignment you are asked to focus on the Enduring Issue of Ideas and Beliefs. Using the evidence from the reading, argue:
  - Give two examples where St. John Paul influenced or was affected by the politics of a part of the world. What was his reaction?
• Please explore the internet for a written address or YouTube or TED Talk public speaking engagement featuring Pope John Paul and include some personal reflections made by Pope John Paul in his presentation.

Summer assignment rubric:
• Quality of the information= 70 points
• Grammar and mechanics= 10 points
• Organization and neatness= 10 points
• Work Cited = 10 points