Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear friends in Christ,

The second reading for this weekend is a powerful instruction of living a life in Christ. "Live in a manner worthy of the call you have received..." To live in this manner we are to possess great awareness of ourselves and exercise all the virtues and positive habits in our daily lives. We are called every day to recognize our loving God who is "over all and through all and in all." Where is God calling you to live in greater love and truth this week?

A note that our bulletin format will be changing next weekend. We thank Diocesan printing company for the work of publishing our bulletin over the past few years. I would like to introduce to you our new bulletin printing company, DEE printing, from Columbus, Ohio. Please remember that if you would like info in the bulletin, please submit your info via email to bulletins@preblecountycatholics.org.

I hope your remainder of summer and preparations for the new things in the fall is going well. The next five weeks I will be reflecting on the gift and mystery of the Most Holy Eucharist.

God Love you,
Fr. David Doseck

NEW CHILD PROTECTION PLATFORM: All approved volunteers and staff should have received an email invitation to register for SafeParish, the new platform for Child Protection training and compliance in our archdiocese. If you haven't seen your email invitation, please check your spam/junk folder! If you have not already registered for SafeParish, please do so soon. Ongoing child protection training will still be required for all approved volunteers and employees and will consist of quarterly interactive video-based training instead of monthly bulletins. If you have questions or need help registering, please contact Kay Hansen.
