Welcome and Welcome Back!

Hello All,

I would just like to take a moment to express a sincere and warm welcome to all who are reading this (and all who enter through our doors!). We are delighted you are here, whether you are a long-time parishioner, new student, returning student, young adult, professor, parent or just passing through —welcome to St. Lawrence Parish and Newman Center!

For those who are new or not familiar, our mission here at St. Lawrence is to share the abundant love of Christ as a University Catholic Parish. As part of this mission, we seek to be one spiritual family. Just as the body of a person is made up of many parts, so we as members of the Body of Christ, all have an integral part in the mission of Christ and the mission of St. Lawrence in particular.

While there is a great deal that happens here at St. Lawrence, we seek to do things that foster deeper conversion to Christ and deeper relationships with one another.

I would just like to highlight two things in particular:

Open to students:

We cordially invite you to attend our weekly Gopher Catholic Night that happens every Tuesday evening starting at 7:30pm in Coffman Memorial Union in “The Whole.” The first one of the semester is Tuesday, September 10, so please consider coming!

Open to all:

We cordially invite you to come to our first installment of “Discovering Your Gifts” happening weekly here at St. Lawrence on Sundays starting September 22 from 9:20am until 9:50am in Room A. I would especially invite our parishioners as this is a beautiful way to grow in discernment of how the Lord may desire to use us as His ambassadors here at St. Lawrence.

I am looking so forward to walking with you as your priest, shepherd and Father here at St. Lawrence. To paraphrase St. Augustine, “for you I am a priest, with you I am a Christian.”

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Jake
