Brotherhood of Hope
Founded September 14, 1980

A vision of Fr. Philip Merdinger

In 1980, Fr. Philip Merdinger and four laymen founded the Brotherhood of Hope, consecrating themselves to God through private vows.

The founding brothers were attracted to Fr. Philip's vision for a fraternal common life, to become "a spiritual family in the order of grace." The Brotherhood grew as more men, having experienced the transforming power of Christ, chose to give up everything to live and to serve together.

Fr. Philip's prior experience as a campus chaplain convicted him of the dire lack of faith on college campuses. He saw the immense potential for college students, hungry for the truth, to be transformed by the Gospel, so he made college campus outreach an integral part of the brothers' mission.

We are blessed to have Fr. Merdinger here with us at St. Lawrence-Newman, as well as Brother Ken Apuzzo, Brother Gary Davis, Brother Matthew Warnez, and Brother Sam Gunn.

The Brotherhood motto:
Primum Deus . Deus Solum
(God First) (God Alone)
