in Ordinary Time
November 3, 2019

All Souls

Yesterday we celebrated the Mass for All Souls. This is a time to pray for those who have died.

Our Book of Remembrance is located near the baptism font for the month of November. You are invited to write the names of those who have died in the book. This is a way we love our neighbors. St. Paul tells us in 1 Corinthians 2:9, “eye has not seen, and ear has not heard, and what has not entered the human heart, what God has prepared for those who love him.” In order to be in God’s presence we want to have all that is contrary to His love to be purified in us so we can receive more of Him and be filled in His presence. This reality in heaven is a gift beyond imagination of God’s fulfilling love.

Let us pray that the Lord fills our loved ones with the light of His love and helps us by our love of God and neighbor to be more deeply prepared for this gift the Lord desires to share with us.
