2019 Ring a Bell of Love for Holy Family—Update

I would like to thank you once again for your participation in our “Ring a Bell for Holy Family” Christmas appeal. We have collected around $50,000 to take care of our priority wish list for the parish maintenance and upkeep.

In gratitude to all the participants of our Ring a Bell, we will offer a mass for their intentions on Sunday, February 2nd at 8:30 AM. For those who have donated $1,000 or more, your name will be engraved on our Donor’s Tree in the foyer of Celebration Hall.

With the funds collected, we have started working on our priority wish list. We have taken care of the Rectory water main line leak, saving us money from the water wastage. I have met with the Parish Maintenance Group to look at the next steps for our Church Carpeting. We are working on two things. The first is to resolve the water leakage and the efflorescence (white powder) on the Baptismal Font. This needs to be done before we can do something with the carpet. The second is looking for the suitable kind of carpet for the church and their cost evaluation. This is more of the quality and the grade of the carpet. We have considered different set ups of the carpeting based on the suggestions of parishioners. We have narrowed them to two options that we can do in consideration to safety, church sound clarity and maintenance. The first is to carpet the church as it is and the second is to carpet the main body and have a hard surface on the altar such as wood or tiles. We will keep you updated on the progress of our inquiries and will look for your inputs for carpet color and designs when we have all the information needed. If you have questions or comments, please let me know.

Sincerely,
Fr. Rodel

For those of you not familiar with our Catholic Faith, you might have questions about our Catholic Mass.

We now have in the pockets in each pew a Mass Guide. Hopefully, you will be able to follow along with our responses and prayers.

There are also some brief explanations about what we do and what these actions mean.

ASH WEDNESDAY—February 26th
the beginning of Lent 2020
Please begin collecting your old palms and bring them to the basket in the back of the church no later than Feb. 23rd. We will burn them to be used for our Ash Wednesday Masses.

I am excited to experience my first Catholic Schools Week in just a few days. My wife has told me many stories about Theme Days, special Masses, and buddy activities at her school and I’ve always been touched by the joy and love that permeates everything planned. I know that Holy Family does ‘family’ right… and that is exactly what we celebrate the last week of January. Our first event begins with an all school mass this coming Saturday at the 5:30PM mass. All students who come to this mass, dressed in uniform, will receive a free dress pass.

Our identity as a Catholic school sets us apart…. as a family who cares, who loves each other regardless of our differences, and who stand together rooted in our faith in Jesus. I can’t wait to share this very special time with all of its events with all of you! —Principal Joe

Gospel Reflection

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time — Matthew 4:12-23

Today’s Gospel focuses on Jesus as the Promised One of the Old Testament and his call of his first apostles. Jesus began his preaching in Galilee and is identified by Matthew as the “great light” foretold by Isaiah. Jesus calls his first four apostles to come and follow him in his great work of proclaiming the good news of the Kingdom.

♥ Why do you think Simon, Andrew, James and John said yes and followed Jesus?
♥ Are there people in your life who walk with you and bring you hope and light?

Please Pray for...

Dottie Daniels, Nancy Fazzolari, Mary deSousa, Anthony Colistro, Tim Evens, Daniel Kaopuiki, Kathleen Overby, Jim Lazzeroni, Pat Kain, Doree D'Angelo, Makai Kaopuiki-Delaney, Marloris Oliverio, Marilyn Walstrom, Katie Lawrence, Bonnie Kilwein, Jean Maranette, Phyllis Ferschweiler, Bernadette Maty, Lee Lomnicki, Stephanie Templeton, Leasa Wiebke, Martin Burke, Per-Olof Jarnberg, Arvada Winward, Janet Barta, Anna Templeton, Carlo Fazzolari
