The Way Healing
Retreats for Survivors of Abuse were developed by Sue

Stubbs, Victim Assistance Coordinator of the Archdiocese of Atlanta.

The Victim Assistance Program of the Archdiocese of Atlanta, part of the Office of Child and Youth Protection, provides outreach and healing programs for those abused by church personnel. Some programs, such as this retreat, expand beyond those abused by church personnel to include all abuse victims.

The Victim Assistance Program organizes a pastoral response to the victim, their immediate family and their parish family by offering resources for counseling, spiritual direction, prayer services,
retreats and educational information.

A Healing Retreat for Female Survivors of Abuse

Developed and led by Sue Stubbs

Victim Assistance Coordinator
Archdiocese of Atlanta

A service of the Victim Assistance Ministries of the Roman Catholic Church in Nebraska

Provided by the Archdiocese of Omaha in collaboration with the Diocese of Grand Island and the Diocese of Lincoln

*This retreat is Christian-based.
Women of all faiths and traditions are invited and welcomed.*

The Way is a healing retreat for female survivors of abuse; a 3-day guided meditation and prayer experience for women whose abuse by another has deeply affected their heart, mind, body and soul.

- Have you experienced or are you experiencing dread, confusion, deep hurt, betrayal or anger when you think of the abuse you have suffered? Or maybe you are feeling nothing at all.
- You have every right to these feelings...they are natural reactions to the trauma you have survived.
- You may be asking yourself, "What do I with all of this? How will confronting my abuse experience affect my life? How will I ever recover my trust in people, God, my Church again?"

Does it really matter? Do I matter?"

Your Retreat Team consists of professional counselors, a priest, and volunteers who are well formed and grounded in the Truth of the Catholic faith. All Truth is God's Truth, so no matter if you are not Catholic, the steps you take during this retreat will help you to move forward in Truth on your journey to peace.

The Way is the path to take to find answers to these and many other questions for which your heart, mind, body, and soul have been searching. This is where your healing journey begins. These three days of guided meditations and prayer crafted around the Stations of the Cross will show you the steps Christ took to overcome dread, confusion, deep hurt, betrayal, and anger not only for His experience of abuse—which culminated in His death on the cross and new life in the Resurrection—but for your abuse as well. You can choose to walk The Way with Him, learn His ways, transform your pain and suffering into a new life, the life God has always wanted for you but that the sins of another has disfigured in countless ways.

You do matter...to God, to your Church, to your loved ones, to the world. Let Christ show you The Way to peace in heart, mind, body, and soul. Take your first voluntary steps on The Way to new life.

*Silence is God's language. Refraining from talking amongst ourselves during this portion of the retreat will increase our intimacy with God. In the words of Saint Theresa of Calcutta, "We need to find God and He cannot be found in noise and restlessness. God is the friend of silence. See how nature—trees, flowers, grass—grows in silence; see the stars, the moon, the sun, how they move in silence...we need silence to be able to touch souls."

**Voluntary opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation available throughout the day.
