Fifth Grade Summer Reading Assignment

To help keep you prepared for fifth grade, you are receiving an assignment that involves reading. Mrs. Verrelli, our librarian, suggested some great books for you. These books are divided into 2 categories, fiction and non-fiction. You will be choosing 1 book from each category to read.

The choices are:

Fiction

How to Steal a Dog by Barbara O'Connor
Tuck Everlasting by Natalie Babitt
The Sign of the Beaver by Elizabeth George Speare
Escape from Mr. Lemoncello's Library by Chris Grabstin

Non- Fiction

About Time by Bruce Koscie
My Librarian is a Camel: How Books Are Brought to Children Around the World
by Margriet Ruurs
Bones by Steve Jenkins
Mercy by Nancy Furstinger and Vincent Desjardins

For each book, you will fill out the "You should read this book!" sheet. For the fiction book, you will fill out the "Book Report Fun" organizer and then write a book report.

For the non-fiction book, you will also write a book report answering the following questions: 1) Who is the book about? 2) Where does the story take place? 3) When did the story take place? 4) What is the main idea of the book? and 5) Why was this book written?

One of the book reports is to be accompanied with an interesting and creative collage, which promotes your book. You can use technology or any form of art. Include prominently, the title of the book and the author on the collage. The collage should not be any bigger than 12 by 12. Please include the organizers and recommendation sheets with the report. Have your parents sign at the end of your report.

Until next September, have fun reading!
