

From The Ultimate Catholic Quiz by Karl Keating (Ignatius Press; Ignatius.com)

Can you correctly answer this question?

Q. Which sacraments can be received only once? (a) matrimony and baptism; (b) anointing of the sick and holy orders; (c) baptism, final vows, and holy orders; (d) confirmation, baptism, and holy orders; (e) none of the above.

The answer is (d). Each of these sacraments may be received only once because they leave an indelible mark (“character”) upon the soul.