The Social Studies "Then and Now" project was due today. We will continue presentations tomorrow, if your child didn't get to present last Friday or today. Thank you for helping your child complete this project. I am very pleased with the work that has come in and the children are enjoying learning about the past from the interviewees.

Reminders/Upcoming Events

*A COVID Screening form needs to be sent in to school every Monday.

*Please check your child's supply box regularly. Students should have 3 sharpened pencils, a large pink eraser, scissors, glue sticks, crayons and/or colored pencils, a dry erase marker and a sharpie marker. The math manipulative pouch and dry erase board should also come in every day.

*Students should have their journals, spelling books, Home Folder, School Folder and Writing Folder every day.

*Please remember to send in a change in dismissal form when your child's regular dismissal plan needs to be changed for the day.

*Friday, October 30, 2020- $2 Dress Down Day

*Winter uniforms should now be worn daily. Polo shirts may continue to be worn. Ties are not required at this time. Send in a sweater or sweatshirt.

Pumpkin Patch Fun

Last week, students had a great time choosing pumpkins, mums and gourds in our pumpkin patch! Check out our pictures on the Holy Angels Facebook page, if you haven't already.
