Go To Joseph

In his Apostolic Letter "Patris corde" (With a Father's Heart"), Pope Francis recalled the 150th Anniversary of the declaration of St. Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church. He marked the occasion proclaiming a YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH beginning Dec. 8 2020 to Dec. 8, 2021.

On December 8, 1870, Pope Pius IX declared, in his proclamation "Quemadmodum Deus", St. Joseph Patron of the Universal Church, and raised St. Joseph's feast of March 19 to the rank of double of the first class but without any Octave because of Lent.

In the past 150 years, nearly every pope has taken steps to further devotion to St. Joseph in the Church.

In 1889, Pius IX's successor, Pope Leo XII, in "Quamquam Pluries," presented Joseph as a model at a time "when the world and the Church were wrestling with the challenges posed by modernity".

In 1920, Pope Benedict XV offered St. Joseph as the "special guide" and heavenly patron of laborers, "to keep them immune from the contagion of socialism, the bitter enemy of Christian principles."

In 1937, Pope Pius XI placed the vast campaign of the Church against world Communism under the standard of St. Joseph, her mighty Protector.

In 1955, Ven. Pius XII said, "If you want to be close to Christ, I repeat to you 'Ite ad Joseph!'...the words of Pharaoh to the people of Egypt during the years of famine (Gen. 41:55)..as he instituted the feast of St. Joseph the Worker to be celebrated on May 1.

In 1989, St. John Paul II looked to St. Joseph's fatherhood as a model for his own priestly fatherhood and wrote "Redemptoris custos", on the person and mission of St. Joseph in the life of Christ and of the Church.

In 2005, Pope Benedict XVI in "Angelus Address", placed emphasis on the silence of St Joseph... "A silence thanks to which Joseph, in unison with Mary, could be the guardian of the Word of God, known through the Sacred Scriptures...a silence interwoven with constant prayer, prayer of the blessing of the Lord, of adoration of his holy will and of unreserved trust in his providence...it was from his 'father' Joseph that Jesus acquired - on the human level - the "superior justice" which He would one day teach to his disciples (cfr Mt 5:20). Let us allow ourselves to be "infected" by the silence of St Joseph! We have much need of it in a world which is often too noisy, which does not encourage reflection and listening to the voice of God."
