FAITH FORMATION

Family Discussion: Jesus was the one sent by God to bring salvation to the world. Jesus announced that mission using the framework we hear in today's Gospel from the prophet Isaiah: glad tidings will be brought to the poor, liberty to captives, recovery of sight for the blind, and freedom for the oppressed. Jesus inaugurates the Kingdom of God in his person—through his life, death, and Resurrection. We are charged with the task of continuing the mission that Jesus began. Jesus set the framework for all of us when he announced his ministry in today's Gospel. Jesus also gave us the helper we would need to enable us to participate in his mission. The Holy Spirit has been given to us so that we, the Church, might serve the Kingdom of God.

Gather with your family and suggest that they try to picture the vision that Jesus describes using the words of the prophet Isaiah as you read today's Gospel, Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21. Think about your neighborhood, your community. What are the situations and who are the people who most need to see this vision fulfilled? What steps would be necessary to make the vision a reality for them? Make a family commitment to pray for the Kingdom of God and to take a particular action that will address a need you see in your community. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you by praying the Prayer to the Holy Spirit.

Theme: In the synagogue at Nazareth, Jesus reads aloud from the scroll of the prophet Isaiah and announces that this Scripture is now fulfilled.

Summary: In today's Gospel, Saint Luke speaks about how he and many people have begun compiling a record of events to teach about Jesus Christ. Saint Luke invites the listener to be attentive, to listen not only with their ears but also with their heart. Later in today's Gospel, Jesus reads aloud from the scroll of Isaiah and announces words of great hope. He finishes the reading by saying Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing, thus highlighting the importance of the attentiveness of those who listen to the Gospel.

Scripture: "The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." And he began by saying to them, "Today this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing." Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21

One day Jesus was in Nazareth on the Sabbath so he went to the temple as he always did. When he stood up to read the Scriptures, he was handed the book of the prophet Isaiah. He looked through the book until he found the part that said, "The Lord's Spirit has come to me and has chosen me to tell the good news to the poor. He has sent me to free the prisoners, give sight to the blind, and to set everyone free from their suffering."

When he had finished reading, he handed the book back to the man who was in charge and sat down. Everyone in the place was looking at Jesus and waiting to see what he would say. Jesus said to them, "What you have just heard me read has come true today."

What did Jesus mean?

He meant that he was the one who came to make us happy and whole the way God intended for us to be. He came to heal the sick and the lame. He came to make the blind to see and to free us from sin. Now if we want to have what Jesus came to give, we must put our trust in him and do what he has told us to do.

Dear Father, we thank you for your love. We thank you for sending your Son to free us from sin so that we can know the joy that you want for us.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

TERCER DOMINGO EN TIEMPO ORDINARIO

"Está escrito..."

Las lecturas de este domingo nos invitan a descubrir la fuerza del texto escrito, o mejor: de la Palabra de Dios, que ha quedado consignada de manera escrita. Las distintas reacciones de quienes se encuentran con esos textos nos dejan entrever cuánto tiene Dios también para nosotros en esa colección maravillosa que llamamos la Biblia.

Por supuesto, ello nos obliga a preguntarnos de qué manera leemos, no sólo en el sentido elemental de reconocer las letras, las palabras o las frases, sino más bien: qué clase de lectores somos, qué clase de oyentes somos, qué tan abierta está nuestra mente y está nuestro corazón a la Palabra que Dios nos concede.

Un Llanto Profundo

La primera lectura de hoy se ubica en un periodo muy doloroso de la historia del pueblo elegido. Un periodo que sin embargo estaba lleno de esperanza. Los hechos concretos son: los hebreos están de vuelta del destierro y enfrentan la tarea inmensa de reconstruir su ciudad pero sobre todo de volver a construirse interiormente. Nehemías es el gran líder laico de esa época, mientras que Esdras es el líder sacerdotal. Juntos, de distintas maneras ayudarán en ese proceso de reconstrucción espiritual y material. Y aunque las cosas nunca volvieron a ser lo que eran en tiempos de Salomón, por dar un ejemplo, a través de estos esfuerzos Dios preparó la esperanza y la fe de su pueblo humillado y humilde. Podemos decir que estamos como en la recta final hacia la llegada del Mesías, aunque faltaban unos 400 años para eso.

La lectura de la Ley es entonces un momento fundamental: es el pueblo oyendo la voz de su Señor; o todavía mejor, es el pueblo recibiendo las riquezas de una Palabra que a la vez lo alimenta, lo restaura, lo reconstruye, lo levanta y le marca una senda para que sepa cómo caminar.

Por ello el llanto del pueblo es algo muy profundo. Los levitas les están explicando el sentido de lo que ellos están escuchando. No hay pues obstáculos entre el Corazón de Dios y el de su pueblo: la verdad fluye, el amor fluye, la compasión fluye; por eso mismo: el arrepentimiento, el agradecimiento y luego la alegría fluyen. Si los científicos aseguran que de las aguas saladas del mar brotó la vida, nosotros podemos decir que, del llanto, del llanto profundo del dolor y del amor, nace la nueva vida de la gracia.

Una Promesa Cumplida

También en el evangelio de hoy hay una lectura, un texto que se lee. Y quien le da su voz a este texto no es otro sino Jesús mismo. Captamos la belleza y solemnidad del momento: es Cristo, la Palabra de Dios, prestándole su voz a la Palabra escrita, a la Alianza Antigua. Podemos decir que cuando Cristo lee la Escritura algo único sucede porque es como si el texto saliera, saltara por encima de las letras, y cobrara o manifestara una vida que no le conocíamos. Quizá hay algo de esto en aquella expresión que dice el mismo Señor: "Hoy se cumple esta Escritura que acaban de oír." Hay otra traducción posible para ese versículo, que viene de Isaías. Esa otra traducción, fiel al griego, por supuesto, es: "Estas palabras se han cumplido al oírlas vosotros." El acto de la boca de Cristo, al pronunciar esas palabras, desata su sentido más hondo, que no era simplemente el retorno del destierro a Babilonia, ni mucho menos el desquite contra los enemigos de Israel, sino la acción profunda y duradera del amor de Dios que salva.

TIME

The holidays are well behind us; the year stretches out ahead. And what sort of year will it be? To judge by the words of Jesus in today's Gospel, it will be "a year acceptable to the Lord." And Jesus surely didn't mean only the next three hundred sixty-five days facing his listeners at that time.

When Jesus announced the "arrival" of God's favor, it was a message for all time, for every year. Similarly, we read today in Nehemiah how the people gathered with solemnity to hear God's word as though for the first time. They listened, and then fell to the ground and wept. But the prophet said, "Today is holy . . . do not be sad, and do not weep."

The "year acceptable to the Lord" is this year. The day that is "holy" is this day. The time to listen is now. What sort of year will you have? What sort of day? God's help is always here. What you do with each day can be holy and acceptable to the Lord if you but listen to and act on God's word.

EL TIEMPO

Los días de fiesta ya pasaron, el año se nos viene encima. ¿Y qué clase de año será? De acuerdo con las palabras de Jesús en el Evangelio de hoy, será "el año de la gracia del Señor". Y Jesús con seguridad no se refería solamente a los próximos trescientos sesenta y cinco días cuando hablaba a la gente en ese tiempo.

El anuncio de la "llegada" de la gracia de Dios lo hizo Jesús para todos los tiempos, para cada año. De manera similar, leemos hoy en Nehemías cómo la gente se reunía con solemnidad a escuchar la Palabra de Dios como si fuera la primera vez. Escuchaban y luego se postraban con el rostro en la tierra y lloraban. Pero el profeta decía: "Este día está dedicado al Señor... no estén tristes".

El "año de la gracia del Señor" es este año. El día "dedicado al Señor" es hoy. El tiempo de escuchar es ahora. ¿Qué clase de año tendrás? ¿Qué clase de día? La ayuda de Dios siempre está aquí. Lo que haces cada día será santo y aceptable al Señor solamente si escuchas y practicas la palabra de Dios.
