We have an anonymous parish family offering to match pledges in the amount of $500 or more from new donors up to $2,500. These pledges must be received by the end of this Sunday March 31st. If we achieve this goal, this family offers to replicate the offer for pledges received the first 2 weeks of April, 2019. Please pray and answer the call to do your part to support our Catholic Church and the mission of God, here in Saint John Vianney Parish.

Your gift will make a difference!

Estas promesas deben ser recibidas antes del final de este domingo 31 de marzo. Si logramos alcanzar este objetivo, esta familia ofrece una oferta similar para compromisos recibidos durante las primeras 2 semanas de abril de 2019. Por favor, ora y responde al llamado de contribuir al apoyo de nuestra Iglesia Católica y la misión de Dios, aquí en

FAITH FORMATION

Family Discussion: Hey, that's not fair!" How many times have we heard this spoken in our family? Family members challenge one another's generosity, operating from the perspective of limited resources. If we have given to one, perhaps there won't be enough for the other. Jesus wants us to understand that this is not how it is with God's mercy and forgiveness. God offers his love to all of us in abundance. The forgiveness of the father in the parable is an image of God's love for us, generous beyond measure in his love for both of his sons. Can we truly believe that God acts this way towards us and accept his mercy without jealousy, knowing that God's love for another does not diminish his love for us?

As you gather as a family, talk about the words and phrases you speak to one another when angry. Identify words or phrases that reflect jealousy towards one another. Talk about why we sometimes feel jealousy towards one another. Read aloud today's Gospel, Luke 15:1-3,11-32. Talk about why the older brother is jealous of the younger brother. Identify words that the family members in the parable might say to one another to begin to heal their broken relationships. Make a family commitment to say these types of words and phrases to one another with greater frequency. Pray together the Lord's Prayer.

As a family, check out this website:

Suggested book that compliments today's Gospels:

Mister Bud Wears the Cone

Written by Carter Goodrich

ISBN: 13-978-144248082

Reflect: If a word or phrase from the Gospel captures your heart, sit quietly for several minutes, repeating it to yourself and asking God to show you how it applies to your life.

Or reflect and possibly journal on the following question: In what ways do you need to come home to God this Lent?

The Importance of Sunday: Sunday, the "Lord's day," is central to our liturgical life. Our observance begins on the Saturday evening before, and all Catholics are obligated to participate in Mass every weekend. There, the "Lord's Supper is its center, for there the whole community of the faithful encounters the risen Lord who invites them to his banquet" (CCC 1166).

How do you spend Sundays? How can you "keep it holy?"

English speaking Faith Formation class is on Thursday,

April 4 and 11, 2019 from 6:30-8:00 PM. Please register at the Parish Office at least 2 days prior to class. Any questions, please contact Ms. Kathleen Cook, Director of Religious Education.

My Promise to Jesus Lord, I will find reasons to thank you every day. I am your miracle, your treasure. You lift me up when I fall. You forgive me when I have done wrong. Your arms are always stretched wide open to me.

From the desk of: Ms. Kathleen Cook,
Director of Religious Education

Theme: Luke 15:1-3, 11-32 Jesus teaches about forgiveness in the parable of the Prodigal Son.

Summary: This is probably one of the best-known stories of forgiveness and mercy in all of the Holy Scriptures.

Although the story is often referred to as the prodigal son, it speaks more about the prodigal father who lavishly pours out mercy and unconditional love upon a son who was lost and has returned. This is clearly one of the Christian truths that there is no one who does not need to rely on God's mercy. If we take a closer look at both brothers, they have both moved away from their father in different ways, and the father extends the same mercy to each of his sons. The mercy of God cannot be exhausted, and we can always rely on the unbounded love that God has for us. It is the mercy of God that assists us in finding our way home.

Scripture: "So he returned home to his father. And while he was still a long way off, his father saw him coming. Filled with love and compassion, he ran to his son, embraced him, and kissed him."

In Scripture today, Jesus told a story about a man who lost something that was very precious to him. The story also told of the man's joy when that which he had lost was found. This is the story that Jesus told.

A man had two sons. The younger son asked his father to give him his share of the inheritance that he had coming to him. The father gave it to him, and the boy left home to go out and see the world and have some fun. The father was broken-hearted. He had lost one of his sons.

It wasn't long before the boy had wasted all of his money on wild living. He had no money to buy anything to eat, so he got a job feeding pigs. Can you imagine sloshing around in the mud with a bunch of smelly pigs? It was the worst job you can imagine, but he was so hungry that even the food that he was feeding the pigs looked good to him. The boy looked around at the situation he had gotten himself into and said to himself, "My father's servants live better than this! I will return home and beg for the forgiveness of my father and ask him to take me back as a hired servant." As the boy approached his father's house, his loving father, who had been watching and hoping for his son's return, saw him coming and ran to meet him. He threw his arms around him and hugged him and kissed him.

The father was so happy that his son had returned, that he gave him a robe and placed a ring on his finger. He ordered his servants to prepare a feast. "My son was dead and now he is alive. He was lost, but now he is found."

Jesus told this story to show the kind of love God has for his children. When one of God's children strays away, He always welcomes him with open arms when he returns home. Aren't you glad that you have a heavenly Father who loves you, even when you may not deserve it? I am!

Dear Father, we thank you for your unfailing love. We are thankful that even when we stray, you welcome us home with open arms. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

RCIA Adapted for Children Reflection for 2nd year children and their parents is on Sunday, March 31, and April 7, 2019. Mass at 9:00 AM followed by parent and child reflection in the Parish Office. Any questions, please contact Ms. Kathleen Cook, Director of Religious Education.

Cuarto Domingo de Cuaresma

Todos hemos visto en la televisión esos anuncios que contrastan dos fotos del mismo personaje y dicen: antes y después.

Antes: canas. Después: color natural.

Antes: calvo. Después: pelo abundante.

Antes: gordo. Después: esbelto.

La historia del hijo pródigo es también la historia de un antes y un después.

Perdido-encontrado. Muerto-vivo. Sin padre-con padre.

Cuenta un catequista que trabajaba en una fábrica que un día un joven llamado Agustín estuvo a punto de ser despedido por llegar borracho al trabajo.

Al día siguiente Agustín entró en la fábrica con miedo, pero sobrio.

Al llegar el catequista le saludó diciendo: ahí viene el hijo pródigo. Agustín se enfadó y le preguntó: "¿Qué me has llamado?"

Ni Agustín ni sus compañeros sabían qué era eso del hijo pródigo. Los reunió y les contó la historia.

Cuando terminó, Agustín dijo: "eso no es justo. Ese hijo no debería haber sido admitido en casa." Los compañeros le dijeron: tú eres el hijo pródigo, ¿quieres que te despidamos?

Supongo que no, dijo encogiéndose de hombros.

¿Te acabas de inventar esa historia?, preguntó Agustín. Yo nunca he oído hablar de Dios. Yo sólo he oído decir que Dios castiga con el infierno a los haraganes.

No, no me he inventado la historia. Nos la cuenta Jesús para hablarnos de su Padre, de Dios.

Agustín estaba radiante de alegría cuando el círculo se dispersó y volvió a su trabajo.

Mira al que tienes al lado y pregúntale: ¿Conocías esa historia de Jesús?

¿Has tenido alguna vez complejo de hijo pródigo?

Alguna vez te han dicho: Mira, ahí viene el hijo pródigo.

Esta es una historia que siempre sabe bien porque siempre somos, aun los buenos o los que se creen buenos, hijos pródigos.

Sí, hermanos, yo sé que los padres y las madres viven el mismísimo drama de Dios: el drama de los hijos. Es fin de semana. Son las seis de la mañana y tu hijo no ha vuelto a casa. Miras por la ventana, escuchas la puerta y es imposible dormir. Y cuando llegan, ¡qué descanso y qué paz!

Este es el drama de Dios con todos nosotros y no sólo los fines de semana sino todos los días.

"Un padre tenía dos hijos"...Esta es la historia del mejor Padre, es el mejor retrato de Dios que la Biblia nos ha dejado.

GOD FORGIVES

The Lord said to Joshua, "Today I have removed the reproach of Egypt from you." After forty years of wandering in the desert, this hard-headed people have finally reached the Promised Land. No more do they eat the manna in the desert, but they partake of the fruits of their new homeland. God has kept the promise to their parents in Egypt. Even though they were a sinful people, many times questioning God and even worshiping false gods, God has forgiven them and fulfilled the promise. The "take-away" for us is that there is no sin that is unforgivable. We may have offended our neighbors, given a bad example to someone, even worshiped the false gods of money and power. But God is a merciful God, true to the words spoken to us. God forgives all and calls us back to love.

DIOS PERDONA

El Señor dijo a Josué: "Hoy he quitado de encima de ustedes el oprobio de Egipto". Después de cuarenta años de andar por el desierto, este pueblo insensible finalmente llegó a la Tierra Prometida. Ya no comerían más maná en el desierto, pero compartirían los frutos de esas nuevas tierras. Dios ha mantenido la promesa a sus padres en Egipto. A pesar de que fue un pueblo que pecó, muchas veces interrogando a Dios e incluso adorando a dioses falsos, Dios los perdonó y cumplió la promesa. El "quitar" para nosotros es que no hay pecado que no se perdona. Quizá hayamos ofendido a nuestro prójimo, dado mal ejemplo a alguien, incluso adorado a falsos dioses como dios dinero, dios poder. Pero Dios es misericordioso, verdadero a las palabras que nos ha dirigido. Dios perdona todo y nos llama de regreso al amor.
