“You are invited! Come along with me!”
June 2, 2019—The Ascension of the Lord
2 de junio de 2019—La Ascensión del Señor

God mounts his throne amid shouts of joy; the LORD, amid trumpet blasts.
 — Psalm 47:6

Dios asciende entre aclamaciones, el Señor, al son de trompetas.
 — Salmo 47 (46):6

FEET ON THE GROUND

“Until next week, keep your feet on the ground and keep reaching for the stars!” Not today’s scriptural wisdom, but legendary DJ Casey Kasem’s sage advice, heard across America for generations, American Top 40’s challenging sign-off. Though Casey wasn’t quoting scripture, today’s Acts of the Apostles offers similar advice. As Jesus ascended, disciples “were looking intently at the sky.” Wouldn’t we prefer a soul-relaxing gaze into peaceful blue skies to a heart-breaking focus on this blood-stained earth? But heavenly questioners asked Jesus’ first disciples, “Why are you standing there looking at the sky?” Earth awaited their mission! While our hearts should “keep reaching for” heaven, we need to “keep our feet on the ground.” Ascension’s scriptures and the Jubilee of Mercy remind us: the Jesus we revere as “ascended into heaven” lives right here among us on earth, awaiting our recognition and loving service.

PIES EN EL PISO

“¡Hasta la próxima semana, mantén tus pies en el suelo y sigue buscando las estrellas!” Hoy no es la sabiduría bíblica, sino el sabio consejo del legendario DJ Casey Kasem, escuchado por generaciones a lo largo y ancho de Estados Unidos por generaciones, el desafiante cierre de los Top 40 de Estados Unidos. Aunque Casey no citaba las Escrituras, hoy los Hechos de los Apóstoles ofrecen un consejo parecido. Cuando Jesús ascendió, los discípulos “miraban fijamente el cielo”. ¿No preferiríamos una mirada relajante del alma en un cielo azul tranquilo hasta un enfoque descorazonador en una tierra manchada de sangre? Pero los interlocutores celestiales preguntaron a los primeros discípulos, ¿por qué están parados ahí mirando el cielo? ¡La tierra espera su misión! Mientras nuestros corazones deben “seguir buscando en el cielo”, nosotros necesitamos “mantener nuestros pies en la tierra”. Los pasajes de la Ascensión y el jubileo de la misericordia nos recuerdan, el Jesús que veneramos cuando “ascendió al cielo” vive aquí mismo en medio de nosotros en la tierra, esperando nuestro reconocimiento y servicio amoroso.

FAITH FORMATION

Family Discussion: Any family that has tried to sit down to a family dinner or packed the car for a trip has heard children argue at least once about who should sit where. To sit next to someone, especially if that person is important, is to have a place of honor. Jesus has this place of honor, seated now at the right hand of the Father (as we say in the Nicene Creed and the Apostles' Creed), but there's more to this metaphor than where Jesus sits in relation to God. To be in the place of honor is also to be in a place of power. Knowing people in powerful places can be very helpful. Children remind us of this each time we are called upon to referee a conflict. Jesus, honored now at God's right hand, is a powerful ally for us.

As you gather as a family, recall a time when there was a discussion, or perhaps even an argument, about where people were going to sit. Talk about why it might be important to a person to sit in a particular place. Mention that in this Sunday's Gospel we learn about Jesus' place in heaven. Read together Luke 24:46-53. Talk about how in the Creed we describe Jesus' place in heaven as "seated at the right hand of the Father." Discuss what we might learn about the relationship between God and Jesus from today's Gospel and from the Creed and what we can learn about Jesus' relationship to us. Observe that one of the things we learn is that Jesus continues to help us from this place of honor in heaven. Pray together the Apostles' Creed.

The Value of Truth and Trust: The Story of Cochise

Written by Ann Donegan Johnson

ISBN: 13:978-0916392109

From the desk of: Ms. Kathleen Cook,
Director of Religious Education

Theme: John 24:46-53 Jesus is taken to heaven and the disciples remain in Jerusalem awaiting his sending of the Spirit.

Summary: This Gospel account of the Ascension is much shorter than the account in the Acts of the Apostles. Jesus instructs the disciples to stay in Jerusalem; this requires great trust on the part of the disciples, because they know that the authorities are searching for them. However, they trust that Jesus will direct and be with them. In this description of the Ascension, Jesus blesses the disciples and bids them farewell. It is essential to notice that even though Jesus takes leave of the disciples, they return to the city with exuberant praise. This reveals that the disciples are motivated by trust as they take up the work of Jesus.

Scripture: Jesus said to his disciples: "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem."

When Jesus was ready to return to heaven, he took his disciples aside to make sure that they understood everything that had happened to him. He explained why it was important for him to be crucified and to be raised from the dead to fulfill what the Scriptures had said about him. He also told them that he was going to return to his Father in heaven, and that the Holy Spirit would come to be with them.

At first, the disciples were sad that Jesus would be leaving them, but then the Bible tells us that Jesus opened their minds so they would understand. Then, an amazing thing happened. The Bible tells us that Jesus lifted his hands and blessed his disciples. While he was blessing them, he left them and was taken up into heaven.

The Bible tells us that when Jesus had ascended into heaven, the disciples worshiped him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy. There they stayed continually in the temple, praising God.

Dear Father, we thank you for sending Jesus, your only Son, to die for our sins. We know that he has risen from the dead and has returned to heaven. Bless us today as we worship him with great joy! Amen.

Reflect: If a word or phrase from the Gospel captures your heart, sit quietly for several minutes, repeating it to yourself and asking God to show you how it applies to your life.

Or reflect and possibly journal on the following question: How can Christian teens avoid turning off other teens without sacrificing their Christian values?

Ascensión del Señor

Si no queremos que la Ascensión se parezca más a un melancólico «adiós» que a una verdadera fiesta, es necesario comprender la diferencia radical que existe entre una desaparición y una partida. Con la Ascensión, Jesús no partió, no se ha «ausentado»; sólo ha desaparecido de la vista. Quien parte ya no está; quien desaparece puede estar aún allí, a dos pasos, sólo que algo impide verle. En el momento de la ascensión Jesús desaparece, sí, de la vista de los apóstoles, pero para estar presente de otro modo, más íntimo, no fuera, sino dentro de ellos. Sucede como en la Eucaristía; mientras la hostia está fuera de nosotros la vemos, la adoramos; cuando la recibimos ya no la vemos, ha desaparecido, pero para estar ya dentro de nosotros. Se ha inaugurado una presencia nueva y más fuerte.

Pero surge una objeción. Si Jesús ya no está visible, ¿cómo harán los hombres para saber de su presencia? La respuesta es: ¡Él quiere hacerse visible a través de sus discípulos! Tanto en el Evangelio como en los Hechos de los Apóstoles, el evangelista Lucas asocia estrechamente la Ascensión al tema del testimonio: «Vosotros sois testigos de estas cosas» (Lc 24, 48). Ese «vosotros» señala en primer lugar a los apóstoles que han estado con Jesús. Después de los apóstoles, este testimonio por así decir «oficial», esto es, ligado al oficio, pasa a sus sucesores, los obispos y los sacerdotes. Pero aquel «vosotros» se refiere también a todos los bautizados y los creyentes en Cristo. «Cada seglar –dice un documento del Concilio- debe ser ante el mundo testigo de la resurrección y de la vida del Señor Jesús, y señal del Dios vivo» (Lumen gentium 38).

Se ha hecho célebre la afirmación de Pablo VI: «El mundo tiene necesidad de testigos más que de maestros». Es relativamente fácil ser maestro, bastante menos ser testigo. De hecho, el mundo bulle de maestros, verdaderos o falsos, pero escasea de testigos. Entre los dos papeles existe la misma diferencia que, según el proverbio, entre el dicho y el hecho... Los hechos, dice un refrán inglés, hablan con más fuerza que las palabras.

El testigo es quien habla con la vida. Un padre y una madre creyentes deben ser, para los hijos, «los primeros testigos de la fe» (esto pide para ellos la Iglesia a Dios, en la bendición que sigue al rito del matrimonio). Pongamos un ejemplo concreto. En este período del año muchos niños [y jóvenes] se acercan a la primera comunión y a la confirmación. Una madre o un padre creyentes pueden ayudar a su hijo a repasar el catecismo, explicarle el sentido de las palabras, ayudarle a memorizar las repuestas. ¡Hacen algo bellissimo y ojalá fueran muchos los que lo hicieran! Pero ¿qué pensará el niño si, después de todo lo que los padres han dicho y hecho por su primera comunión, descuidan después sistemáticamente la Misa los domingos, y nunca hacen el signo de la cruz ni pronuncian una oración? Han sido maestros, no testigos.
