16 de junio de 2019—La Santísima Trinidad

[T]he love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit.— Romans 5:5b
 Dios ha infundido su amor en nuestros corazones por medio del Espíritu Santo.— Romanos 5:5b

THIS IS THE HOLY TRINITY

Today we celebrate the Holy Trinity, one of the most confounding mysteries of our faith. Through this mystery we experience our relationship to God: Creator, Savior, and Holy Spirit. This relationship is not easy to understand or to describe. It does not become clearer through analysis. Its complexity mirrors the complexity of all our relationships. We understand our relationships with our spouses, our children, our parents, and our friends only through daily give-and-take, annual rituals, and the life-changing moments we share. We understand our relationships only as we live them. The relationships we have with those we love, and who love us, sustain us through an uncertain and difficult life. This is the Holy Trinity.

What is striking about today’s readings is that each is incomplete. What they do offer is a description of a moment in our relationship, a memory of a time and an event when our relationship made sense even though that sense may be beyond our ability to describe fully. Often that is all that our faith offers, that is, a memory of what is possible, what is promised, what has been given. A memory of eternity, of love beyond understanding is to be cherished and nurtured even if not fully understood. This is the Holy Trinity.

ESTA ES LA SANTÍSIMA TRINIDAD

Hoy celebramos a la Santísima Trinidad, uno de los misterios más confusos de nuestra fe. Por medio de este misterio, experimentamos nuestra relación con Dios: Creador, Salvador y Santificador. Esta relación no es fácil de entender o describir. No se hace más clara por el análisis. Su complejidad refleja la complejidad de todas nuestras relaciones. Entendemos nuestras relaciones con nuestra esposa, nuestros hijos, nuestros padres y nuestros amigos solamente en el día a día, ritos anuales y esos momentos que cambian la vida que compartimos. Entendemos nuestras relaciones al vivir con ellas. Las relaciones que tenemos con los que amamos y con quienes nos aman, nos sustentan por medio de una vida incierta y difícil. Esta es la Santísima Trinidad.

Lo que es sorprendente de las lecturas de hoy es que cada una está incompleta. Lo que ellas ofrecen es una descripción de un momento de nuestra relación, una memoria de un tiempo y un evento donde nuestra relación tiene sentido, aunque ese sentido pueda estar más allá de nuestra habilidad para describirla completamente. Frecuentemente eso es todo lo ofrece nuestra fe, es decir, una memoria de lo que es posible, lo que se promete lo que se ha dado. Una memoria de eternidad, de amor, más allá del entendimiento, debe ser apreciada y nutrida incluso si no es completamente comprendida. Esta es la Santísima Trinidad.

MOST GRATEFUL

Great gratitude to all who have participated in this mini campaign, and those who came to Fiesta challenging the rain.

Parishioners donated, on-line, through the QR Code, in person, through the collection, etc. We received $13,562.

At this point, if you have the desire to contribute, but have not had a chance to do it, please do so. However, I will stop actively reminding about it. It's time to move forward, and work with what we have. We have never stopped seeing God's providence through this beautiful community of faith, and we are confident we'll continue growing, specially at the rate we have experienced the last few years.

In Christ,

Padre Steven

MUY AGRADECIDO

Gran agradecimiento a todos los que han participado en esta mini campaña, y a quienes vinieron a Fiesta desafiando la lluvia.

Los feligreses donaron, en línea, a través del Código QR, en persona, a través de la colecta, etc. Recibimos $ 13,562.

En este momento, si tiene el deseo de contribuir, pero no ha tenido la oportunidad de hacerlo, por favor hágalo. Sin embargo, dejaré de recordárselo activamente. Es hora de seguir adelante y trabajar con lo que tenemos. Nunca hemos dejado de ver la providencia de Dios a través de esta hermosa comunidad de fe, y confiamos en que continuaremos creciendo, especialmente al ritmo que hemos experimentado en los últimos años.

En Cristo,

Padre Esteban

FAITH FORMATION

Family Discussion: Think of the last time you witnessed an act of selfless love in your family. Parents and caregivers of all kinds are called upon to act selflessly every day. Family life calls us to share selfless love with one another.

God is the model for us of selfless love. There was no need for God to create our planet or the creatures that inhabit it; it was an act of selfless love. There was also no need for God to send his only Son to save us. That too was an act of selfless love.

As we draw closer to God and the mystery of the Trinity, we learn about God's love. God has lavished us with love in the persons of the Son and the Spirit, who in turn nurture in us the desire to do the same. When we open ourselves to be filled with an awareness of the divine life within us, we participate in the endless spiral of love that leads to eternal life. Whenever we share selfless love in the family, we are sharing in the life of the Trinity.

On this Father's Day, let us pray for all fathers, grandfathers, stepfathers, foster fathers, godfathers, fathers in heaven, and for all men who have nurtured and believed in us and we pray that their children will always be loved and safe.

Theme: The Most Holy Trinity Whatever the Father has is mine. The Spirit of truth will guide us. The gift of the Holy Spirit is just one more sign of the Father's great love. Jesus longs for his disciples to know that, even though he is leaving them physically, they will not be alone. The mystery of the Trinity is the central mystery of the Christian faith. God made it known to us by revealing himself as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. As the mystery of God in himself, it is the source of all other mysteries of faith.

Summary: Jesus truly embodies and exemplifies wisdom when entering into his farewell discourse with the disciples. He knows that the disciples are not ready for the complete story because they still need to grow in their faith. True wisdom takes time to mature, and one of the difficulties of being human is that we often are not patient in waiting for these changes. Growing in faith and living in hope are part of being a person of wisdom, and living with wisdom means that we must allow the Spirit of God to speak and act within us.

Scripture: "I have much more to say to you, more than you can now bear. But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come."
John 16: 12-13

When Jesus knew that it was time for him to leave the earth and return to Heaven, he called his disciples together to teach them about what they could expect when he was gone. He told them that when he left, the Holy Spirit would come to be their guide. When we decide to follow Jesus as our Lord and Savior, the Holy Spirit comes into our life. We can't see him, but we know that he is there because we can feel his power and see him working in our life. We can see the Holy Spirit guiding us in our daily life and leading us to the place God wants us to be.

Dear Lord, thank you for sending your Holy Spirit to guide us in the way you want us to go. Help us to stay close to you, so that we can feel the power of your Holy Spirit in our life. Amen

My Promise to Lord, Jesus, I want to know you and to grow with you. This week, I will read a passage from the Gospel. If I need help, I will ask a grown-up to read with me.

La Santísima Trinidad

“Negar la Trinidad es arriesgar la salvación, intentar explicarla es arriesgar la salud mental”.

Predicar este domingo es una tarea titánica, imposible, porque la Fiesta de la Santísima Trinidad no es una fiesta normal no celebra un acontecimiento como la Navidad o la Pascua, no celebra una persona o un santo. Celebra una fiesta doctrinal. La palabra Trinidad no es una palabra bíblica, es una verdad abstracta, una doctrina, un misterio del cual Jesús nunca habló y Pablo nunca habló. Tenemos que aprender a vivir con el misterio de Dios. Los problemas se solucionan, pero el misterio se vive entre el asombro y la humildad.

Son muchas las comparaciones que los predicadores de todos los tiempos han usado para intentar explicar lo inexplicable.

Agua: líquido, sólido y vapor.

Huevo: cáscara, yema y clara.

San Patricia usó el trébol: tres hojas y una sola planta.

El Padre: el que habla. El Hijo: la Palabra. El Espíritu: el Aliento.

El Padre: El que ama. El Hijo: el amado y el Espíritu Santo: el amor. Creador, Redentor y Santificador.

Hoy, Fiesta de la Trinidad, es el día en que los predicadores de todos los rincones del mundo dirán más tonterías y más herejías. Hablamos mucho de lo que Dios espera de nosotros y mucho más de lo que Dios hace por nosotros. Pero hablamos poco de lo que Dios es en sí.

¿Cómo explicar el en sí de Dios cuando nadie lo ha visto? ¿Cómo comprender el misterio y aceptar las matemáticas de Dios $1+1+1=1$?

El misterio de la Trinidad, símbolo de la comunidad y la unidad en la diversidad, nos recuerda a nosotros los que recitamos, domingo tras domingo el Credo de Nicea, sé que no lo entienden y yo tampoco, que no somos individuos aislados, somos una relación con Dios y estamos necesitados de las relaciones con los otros cristianos para vivir la única relación que importa, la relación con el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En 1910, cuatro años antes de iniciar el día de las madres, el pueblo de los Estados Unidos empezó a celebrar ocasionalmente un día para los padres de familia. Pero, no fue hasta 1972 que se fijó un día oficial para el papá. Poco a poco esta fecha del segundo domingo de junio se ha ido expandiendo al resto del mundo con algunas excepciones. En Italia por ejemplo, la fiesta del padre se celebra el 19 de marzo, día de san José.

Durante la Revolución Industrial del siglo diecinueve, José, esposo de María recibió su primera fiesta oficial. La Iglesia, preocupada por el ingreso del padre a las fábricas, propuso a este santo varón como ejemplo de lo que los padres deben ser en la vida de sus hijos e hijas; ejemplos de fe, ternura y trabajo. Aún en nuestro tiempo, el Rito del Bautismo de Niños insiste que el padre, junto con la madre, deben ser los mayores maestros de sus hijos. Al igual que José, el papá debe cuidar y proteger a su familia, enseñarle a los niños a trabajar y ser honestos para el bien de la familia y la sociedad.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today's feast, extending a dimension of Easter joy into Ordinary Time, reminds us that every aspect of worship centers on the mystery of God in three persons. At baptism, we are initiated into Christ and the Spirit. The Creed we recite at Mass every Sunday has its roots in the ancient celebration of baptism, when a new believer was questioned at the edge of the waters of the font with three questions: Do you believe in God, the Father, the Son, the Holy Spirit? Three questions, three affirmations, three immersions into the saving waters. Because every liturgy abounds with references to the Trinity, not only in words but in blessings by the sign of the cross, this feast was not easily accepted into the calendar. Pope Alexander in the eleventh century remarked that the liturgy is so laden with praise of the Trinity that there was no need for a special feast. Two hundred years later, while in exile in France, Pope John XXII proclaimed the feast, but it was not until 1911 that Pope St. Pius X gave it status as a solemnity.

A favorite image in art for today is the Icon of the Trinity, showing three glorious winged men seated at a table laden with bread and a cup of wine. It recalls Abraham's hospitality to angels and gives expression to the inner life of God, a life lived in relationship, a life poured out in abundance whenever Christians gather at the table of the Eucharist to give praise to the Father, in Christ, in the embrace of the Spirit.
