May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.
 — Galatians 6:14

No permita Dios que yo me gloríe en algo que no sea la cruz de nuestro Señor Jesucristo.— Gálatas 6:14

GOD’S PROVIDENCE

Today’s readings celebrate God’s providence. No matter how wonderful (or heartbreaking) our relationships are, God always provides for us. No one cares for us the way God does.

Isaiah delights us with a deeply intimate image of God caring for us “as a mother comforts her child.” The prophet describes us not as the usual “children of God,” but as “babies.” We should not resist this image, but rejoice in it. Trusting in God’s care, we can all let down our guard and rest like infants in the lap of our mother.

Saint Paul’s trust in God allows him to be at peace like this. He boldly declares that no one can “make troubles” for him, because he has given himself completely to Jesus. And when Jesus sends his disciples out to preach and heal, he challenges them not to provide for themselves, but to let faith be their guide.

LA PROVIDENCIA DE DIOS

Las lecturas de hoy celebran la providencia de Dios. No importa lo maravilloso (o doloroso) que sean nuestras relaciones, Dios siempre nos provee. Nadie cuida tanto de nosotros como lo hace Dios.

Isaías nos deleita con una imagen profundamente íntima de Dios cuidándonos “como una madre cuida de su hijo”. El profeta nos describe no como los habituales “hijos de Dios” sino como “bebés”. No debemos resistirnos a esta imagen, sino regocijarnos con ella. Confiando en el cuidado de Dios, nosotros podemos bajar la guardia y descansar como bebés en el regazo de nuestra madre.

La confianza de san Pablo en Dios le permite estar en paz. Audazmente dice que nadie puede “ponerle obstáculos” por que se ha entregado completamente a Jesús. Y cuando Jesús envía a sus discípulos a predicar y sanar, él los desafía a no cargar nada para ellos, sino tener fe en su guía.

FAITH FORMATION

Family Discussion: Parents are always striving to help their children to set priorities. Children need to learn to finish homework before watching TV or going out to play. They need to know that they have to finish their chores before they can go out with their friends. They need to know that paying attention to curfews for their safety is more important than being popular.

As a family, talk about these examples of setting priorities. Share examples of how you learned to prioritize as you were maturing. Explain that in this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus talks about the importance of making him the number-one priority in our lives.

Read aloud Luke 9:51-62. Talk about how going to Sunday Mass as a family is an important way of keeping God at the center of our lives. Talk about other ways that the family can make Jesus a priority

Theme: Jesus resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem.

Summary: Jesus makes it clear that there will be sacrifices and inconveniences that those who follow him must face. The disciples must know exactly what to expect when they answer God's call. The last statements Jesus makes in this passage clearly reveal that all disciples are to imitate Jesus in resisting distractions that may lead them away from answering the call of the Gospel.

Younger children are developing their sense of right and wrong. Learning that Jesus teaches us to put him above all else can support children in making good moral choices. Children in grades 4th, 5th and 6th are surrounded by media that tell them that they can have it all and that the key to happiness is indeed to have it all. Today's Gospel challenges us to see that life involves making choices. Young people in 7th and 8th grades are beginning to learn about the reality of commitments. Most are looking forward to or participating in preparation for their Confirmation, a deepening of their commitment to discipleship

Scripture: Luke 9:51-62 As they were walking along the road, a man said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." Jesus replied, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay his head." He said to another man, "Follow me." But the man replied, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father." Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and proclaim the kingdom of God." Still another said, "I will follow you, Lord; but first let me go back and say good bye to my family." Jesus replied, "No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for service in the kingdom of God."

One day, Jesus was walking along the road with a group of people. Jesus turned to one of the men and said to him, "Follow me." The man answered, "First let me go and bury my father."

That sounds like a good excuse, but we don't even know that the man's father was dead. He may have wanted to wait until his father died before he began to follow Jesus.

Jesus answered him, "Let the dead bury their own dead. You go and proclaim the kingdom of God." Jesus then turned to another man in the crowd and said, "Follow me." The man answered, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me go back home and say good-bye to my family." Jesus did not like this man's excuse either. He said to him, "No man who starts to plow and then looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

Jesus was calling those who would give up everything -- family, friends, their job -- and follow him. What he got instead was excuses. Jesus is still calling today, "Follow me!" Will you follow, or will you make excuses?

Dear Jesus, when you call us, may we never offer excuses. Instead, may we be willing to give up everything and follow you. Amen.

My Promise to Jesus: This week, Jesus, I will think of you every day.

ANUNCIOS Y NOTICIAS ESPECIALES

DECIMO CUARTO DOMINGO EN TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Un acarreador de agua tenía dos grandes vasijas para llevar el agua a casa de su patrón.

Una vasija era perfecta y llegaba a casa llena de agua. La otra tenía algunas grietas y llegaba medio vacía. Ésta avergonzada le dijo un día a su patrón: "Estoy avergonzada y me quiero disculpar contigo porque debido a mis grietas sólo puedo entregar la mitad de mi carga y sólo obtienes la mitad del valor que deberías recibir".

El acarreador le dijo a la vasija agrietada: "Cuando regresemos a casa, quiero que mires las bellas flores que crecen a lo largo del camino". Así lo hizo. Vio las flores pero aún así se sintió apenada.

El aguador le dijo: "¿Te diste cuenta de que las flores sólo crecen de tu lado del camino? Siempre he sabido de tus grietas y sembré semillas de flores por donde tú ibas para que las regaras todos los días y así he podido recoger estas hermosas flores para la mesa de mi Maestro. Si no fueras exactamente como eres, con todos tus defectos, no hubiera sido posible crear esta belleza.

Jesús se dirige a Jerusalén donde la gloria y el fracaso, la vida y la muerte están en juego.

Lucas nos dice que Jesús envió por

Setenta y dos no es un número matemático, simboliza que la misión es universal, simboliza a toda la iglesia y a todos los cristianos.

Todos, ustedes también, son enviados como embajadores de Cristo para preparar los corazones y así puedan dar la bienvenida a Jesús que quiere visitar nuestras calles y barrios.

A veces oigo a la gente que dice: yo rezo, yo creo en Dios, incluso bailo para Dios...

El "yo" tiene que disminuir y el "nosotros" tiene que crecer, si queremos hacer el trabajo de Dios. Aquí, en la asamblea eucarística, brilla el nosotros ampliado y santificado por Jesús que nos reúne y nos envía a todos como obreros de su cosecha.

Jesús los envió y nos envía sin dinero, sin talega...

Y nos envía como corderos en medio de lobos para recordarnos que siempre necesitamos escuchar, mirar y seguir al pastor, a Jesús.
