Christ Jesus . . . is the head of the body, the church. — Colossians 1:15, 18

Cristo . . . es también la cabeza del cuerpo, que es la Iglesia.

— Colosenses 1:15, 18

GOD WANTS TO BE KNOWN

The Old Testament reading from Deuteronomy praises God for inscribing the commandments in our very bodies. God’s law is not distant or foreign, but a natural part of us. In his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul echoes Moses, praising God for becoming one of us. The truly human, flesh-and-blood Jesus reminds us that God always wants to be recognizable and familiar to us. Jesus, who is also truly God, wants to be on intimate terms with each of us.

God’s passionate desire to be known by us is almost too wonderful to take in. Luke’s Gospel helps us understand how to respond. The Good Samaritan parable provides practical advice for those who believe in God’s intimate love for them and want to share that love with others.

EL DESEO DE DIOS PARA SER CONOCIDO

La lectura del Antiguo Testamento del libro del Deuteronomio alaba a Dios por escribir los mandamientos en nuestros cuerpos. La ley de Dios no es extraña o distante, sino una parte natural de nosotros. En su carta a los colosenses, san Pablo hace eco de Moisés, alabando a Dios por ser uno de nosotros. Él, verdaderamente humano, de carne y hueso, Jesús nos recuerda que Dios siempre quiere ser para nosotros alguien familiar al quien podemos reconocer, el que es verdadero Dios, quiere estar en buenos términos con cada uno de nosotros.

El deseo apasionado de Dios para ser conocido por nosotros es tan maravilloso para disfrutarse. El Evangelio de Lucas nos ayuda a entender cómo responder. La parábola del Buen Samaritano nos provee de consejos prácticos para quienes creen en la intimidad del amor de Dios para ellos y quiere compartir ese amor con otros.

FAITH FORMATION

Family Discussion: Families rely on selfless love. Parents show love for their children not just when it's convenient, but whenever their children's needs must be met. Imagine if the members of a family were concerned only with their own needs. How quickly things would fall apart!

In the story of the Good Samaritan, we learn about someone who went out of his way to care for the needs of another. He recognized the victim as his brother and accepted responsibility for him. As a family, talk about the responsibilities of each member of the family. Share how you, as parents, care for the needs of everyone in the family even when it's inconvenient. Ask your children to share times when they did chores and helped the family even when it was not convenient.

Read aloud this Sunday's Gospel, Luke 10:25-37. Talk about how the Samaritan went out of his way to care for the needs of the victim. Make a commitment as a family to follow the example of the Good Samaritan. Explain that the more you learn to accept responsibility for each other's needs at home, the more you'll be able to accept responsibility for the needs of others in the world.

Theme: The parable of the Good Samaritan

Encourage younger children to make a habit of including everyone, especially those who tend to be excluded. Teach them that no one is excluded from God's love and that we are called to treat all people with care and respect. Children in 4th, 5th and 6th grades can often be legalistic and are concerned with fairness and justice. They no doubt see the Good Samaritan as someone worthy of emulating because he does what is fair and just. Young people in grades 7th and 8th experience a lot of peer pressure and are self-conscious about fitting in. This sensitivity to issues of inclusion and exclusion are perfect for exploring the message of the parable of the Good Samaritan.

Summary: In answer to the question Who is my neighbor? Jesus responds with one of the most well known stories in the New Testament: the parable of the Good Samaritan. This story illustrates the virtue of mercy as we see that no barriers of race, social standing, or wealth can block the love, mercy, compassion, and care that we owe to our neighbor. The message is clear: every human being is our neighbor! We are called to be actors of God's mercy despite the social pressures we might experience.

Scripture: Luke 10:25-37 He answered: "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind'; and, 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'" Luke 10:27

Jesus told a story about a man who was traveling from Jerusalem to Jericho when he was attacked by robbers. They beat him, took his money, stripped him of his clothes, and left him beside the road to die.

A priest came by and when he saw the man, he crossed over to the other side of the road and continued on his way. A little while later, a Levite who worked in the temple came along. He also saw the man lying there and passed by on the other side of the road.

Finally, a man from Samaria came along, and when he saw the man, he stopped to help him. He put medicine on his wounds and wrapped them with bandages. He took the man to an inn and took care of him. The next day, he gave the innkeeper some money and told him to take care of the man. "Give him anything he needs. If it costs more than I have given you, I will pay you the next time I am here."

Then Jesus asked, "Which of these three men was a neighbor to the man who was attacked by the robbers?" The lawyer answered, "The one who helped him."

"You are right," said Jesus, "now you go and do the same." Jesus has told us to love our neighbor.

Dear Father, help us to love you with all our hearts and to love our neighbor as we love ourselves. Amen.

My Promise to Jesus: Jesus, I will keep my eyes on the lookout for those who are suffering. I will stop to help them in any way I can. Lord, I want my heart to be like yours!

ANUNCIOS Y NOTICIAS ESPECIALES

DECIMO QUINTO DOMINGO EN TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Una mujer salió de casa y vio a tres hombres con largas barbas blancas sentados a la puerta. No los reconoció.

Ella les dijo: "Creo que no los conozco, pero deben tener hambre. Pueden entrar y comer algo". ¿Está el señor de la casa dentro?, preguntaron.

"No", respondió la señora. "Está en el trabajo". "Entonces no podemos entrar", contestaron.

Al anochecer cuando llegó el marido, ella le contó lo que le había pasado.

"Ve e invítalos". La mujer salió y los invitó. Pero ellos le dijeron: "Nosotros no entramos en una casa los tres a la vez".

"¿Por qué?" les preguntó curiosa.

Uno de los tres le explicó: "Él es el Señor Riqueza y aquel es Señor Éxito y yo soy el Señor Amor. Ahora entra en casa y dile a tu esposo quién de nosotros quiere que entre en su casa."

"Qué interesante". Invitemos al Señor Riqueza y que nos llene la casa con sus riquezas", dijo el marido.

Su mujer no estaba de acuerdo. "¿Por qué no invitamos al Señor Éxito? Su nuera que estaba escuchando saltó diciendo: "¿No sería mucho mejor invitar al Señor Amor y así nuestra casa se llenaría de amor"?"

Los tres se pusieron de acuerdo e invitaron al Señor Amor.

El Amor se levantó y se dirigió hacia la casa. Los otros dos también se levantaron y le siguieron. Sorprendida la señora preguntó al Señor Riqueza y al Señor Éxito:

"Sólo invité al Señor Amor, ¿por qué quieren entrar también ustedes?"

Y los dos respondieron al unísono: "Si usted hubiera invitado al Señor Riqueza o al Señor Éxito los otros dos se habrían quedado afuera, pero como invitó al Señor Amor, adonde él va también vamos nosotros.

Donde hay amor hay también riqueza y éxito.

¿A quién de los tres invitaría usted?

Al amor, por supuesto. La verdad es que si miramos a nuestro alrededor son pocos los que invitan al amor a su mesa. Nos da más seguridad la riqueza, el éxito y la fama que el amor.

El amor samaritano es el amor de Jesús. Él es el Buen Samaritano que sale a nuestro encuentro en el viaje de la vida. Y lo da todo.

El evangelio de Jesús no es el libro del saber, es el libro de hacer el bien. ¿A quién? A Todos.
