August 11, 2019—Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

11 de agosto de 2019—Decimo Noveno Domingo de Tiempo Ordinario

Our soul waits for the LORD,
 who is our help and our shield. — Psalms 33:20

Nosotros aguardamos al Señor:
 él es nuestro auxilio y escudo.— Salmo 33 (32):20

Lord and Father of all

Help us listen for your voice
 When our words sound flat and weak
 In the aftermath of disaster
 In the midst of seemingly intractable conflict
 In the oceans of want and privation
 Deliver us from despairing
 Help us to seek your face
 Strengthen us to do your will

Open our hearts and hands
 To receive your blessings
 To be Blessings to others
 To stand in solidarity with all your children
 Especially those who are overwhelmed
 By turmoil and great loss.
 Amen

Señor y padre de todos

Ayúdanos a escuchar tu voz
 Cuando nuestras palabras suenen huecas y débiles
 Tras el desastre
 En medio de un conflicto aparentemente intratable
 En los océanos de la necesidad y la privación.
 Líbranos de la desesperación
 Ayúdanos a buscar tu rostro
 Fortalecenos para hacer tu voluntad

Abre nuestros corazones y manos
 Para recibir tus bendiciones y
 Ser bendiciones para los demás.
 Para solidarizarse con todos tus hijos.
 Especialmente aquellos que están
 abrumados
 Por la angustia y la gran pérdida.
 Amén

FAITH AND HOPE

Faith and hope are closely united in today's readings. The Israelites knew when the Passover was coming, and so were not in fear, but had faith and courage, "putting into effect with one accord the divine institution." In this we can see a foretelling of the Eucharist that we celebrate according to Christ's command, "Do this in memory of me."

We see that Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, and Jacob died in faith, although they did not see fulfillment of the promise. We live in hope that our faith will be fulfilled every time we celebrate this sacrament. We too are not to be afraid, but to have hope that our faith will be fulfilled in the coming of Christ.

LA FE Y LA ESPERANZA

En las lecturas de hoy la fe y la esperanza están muy unidas. Los israelitas sabían cuando la Pascua se acercaba, y eso no les atemorizaba, sino que tenían fe y animo; "y de común acuerdo se impusieron esta ley sagrada". En esto podemos vislumbrar un anuncio de la Eucaristía que celebramos de acuerdo al mandato del Señor Jesús "Hagan esto en memoria mía".

Vemos que Abraham, Sara, Isaac y Jacob murieron en la fe, aun cuando ellos no vieron cumplida la promesa. Vivimos con la esperanza que nuestra fe llegará a su cumplimiento cada vez que celebramos este sacramento. Nosotros tampoco debemos de tener miedo, sino tener esperanza que nuestra fe llegará a su cumplimiento en la venida de Cristo.

Family Discussion: Years ago, most families had only one or two clocks in their home. Today, we have clocks everywhere—on our walls, on our microwave ovens, on our DVD players, on our cell phones, and so on. As a family, go through the house and count how many clocks (time-telling devices) your family has. Talk about important events for which family members need to be on time. Recall experiences of being late for something, either as individuals or as a family. Explain that in this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus talks about how important it is for us to be aware and alert, otherwise, we will miss something. Read aloud Luke 12:32-48. Talk about the parable that Jesus told and discuss how the master will feel if he arrives to find his servant doing his job. Discuss what our job is as disciples of Jesus. Explain that, just as we need to be aware of the time so that we don't miss anything important, we also need to be alert and focused on our jobs, our responsibilities as followers of Jesus.

Encourage each family member to place a sacred symbol near the clock that they use most in the house and to use the symbol and the clock as a reminder that it is always "time" for us to be acting like disciples of Christ.

From the desk of: Ms. Kathleen Cook, Director of Religious Education

Theme: Luke 12:32-48 Jesus tells his disciples to be prepared for his coming.

Summary: Jesus, in today's gospel as well as in many of the gospel passages, speaks of the uselessness of fear when we trust that we have a loving God. Jesus speaks of the fact that the kingdom of God is ours and that must be our most valued possession, so much so that Jesus goes as far to say, get rid of everything because none of it will bring you true happiness or the fullness of life. In other words, seeking God's kingdom, which is available to us, will bring us the fulfillment that each person is searching for in life. Faith calls us to be courageous in making a leap of faith.

Making the Connection (Grades 1, 2, and 3): Younger children are able to pay attention for increasing periods of time. In the parable of the Vigilant and Faithful Servants, Jesus challenges us to be alert disciples.

Making the Connection (Grades 4, 5, and 6): Children at this age are keenly aware of being included or excluded from peer groups. In the Parable of the Vigilant and Faithful Servants, those who are alert and vigilant will continue to be included in the master's favor.

Making the Connection (Grades 7 and 8): Young people at this age are capable of a variety of services but must be challenged to be more generous with their time. In the Parable of the Vigilant and Faithful Servants, Jesus challenges us to be more vigilant and alert about our responsibilities as his disciples.

Scripture: Sell your possessions and give to the poor. Provide purses for yourselves that will not wear out, a treasure in heaven that will never fail, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." Luke 12:33-34

One day Jesus said to his followers, "Sell your possessions and give to those in need. This will store up treasure for you in heaven! And the purses of heaven never get old or develop holes. Your treasure will be safe; no thief can steal it and no moth can destroy it. Wherever your treasure is, there the desires of your heart will also be."

So, how do we lay up treasures in heaven as Jesus said we should? We do it by taking our eyes off of our own selfish wants, and look at others and their needs. We give to the poor, we help those in need, and we love others as we love ourselves. Those are things that will build treasures in heaven and there is nothing that can take them away.

Father, we sometimes look at all the treasures that this world offers and we lose sight of what you want from us. Help us to serve you by helping others and, in so doing, build our treasure chest in heaven. In Jesus' name we pray, amen.

Reflect: If a word or phrase from the Gospel captures your heart, sit quietly for several minutes, repeating it to yourself and asking God to show you how it applies to your life. Can you remember a time when you were suddenly surprised because you felt like God was with you?

My Promise to Jesus: Jesus you guide us and you love us. To share your love, I will ask my mom or dad to help me choose two things in my room that I could give to a child in need.

DECIMO NOVENO DOMINGO EN TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Cuentan que un joven, cuando el telégrafo era el único medio de comunicación para largas distancias, se enteró por la prensa que se ofrecía un trabajo como operador del sistema Morse.

Se dirigió a la dirección indicada y la recepcionista le entregó un formulario para rellenar y le dijo que esperara hasta que le llamaran para ser entrevistado. El joven rellenó el formulario y se sentó junto a los otros siete solicitantes que esperaban en la antesala.

Después de unos minutos el joven se levantó y entró en la oficina. Los otros siete se quedaron sorprendidos y se preguntaban por qué había entrado sin ser llamado y pensaron que sería reprendido y descalificado.

Pocos minutos después el joven salió acompañado por el entrevistador que dijo a los otros siete solicitantes: “Gracias por venir pero el trabajo ya ha sido concedido a este joven”.

No es justo, éste llegó el último y nosotros ni siquiera hemos sido entrevistados, no lo entendemos, dijeron los siete.

Durante el tiempo que han estado sentados el telégrafo ha estado tecleando en Morse el siguiente mensaje: “Si usted entiende este mensaje, entre inmediatamente. El trabajo es suyo”. Ninguno de ustedes lo oyó ni lo entendió. Este joven lo escuchó y lo entendió y el trabajo es suyo”.

Todos estaban en la sala de espera. Todos esperaban con impaciencia, pero lo importante no es la espera sino lo que hacemos durante la espera. El premio es para los que esperan a Dios, lo buscan y saben discernir su presencia en los acontecimientos de cada día.

Las lecturas de este domingo encierran muchas enseñanzas, señalan muchos peligros, nos exhortan a vivir libres de las ataduras del consumismo, a intensificar nuestra relación con Dios, a tomar el antídoto de la generosidad en este mundo lleno de avaros y a estar siempre preparados.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Hace casi 2000 años, Jesús declaró que “los zorros tienen guaridas, y las aves del cielo sus nidos; pero el Hijo del hombre no tiene donde reclinar la cabeza”. Lamentablemente en las calles y callejones del mundo este dicho se realiza diariamente en tantos abandonados por la sociedad que viven sin techo ni hogar. En los años 40 el santo jesuita, Alberto Hurtado de Chile quiso darle al Hijo del hombre un lugar donde reclinar su cabeza recogiendo a los niños y a los adultos indigentes.

Su ejemplo llamó la atención de otros cristianos que se unieron a sus esfuerzos y así en 1944 fundaron la asociación benéfica “Hogar de Cristo”. Este hogar se dedica aun todavía a acoger, educar y rehabilitar a los necesitados dándoles las herramientas necesarias para poder depender de si mismos. También vela por sus almas dándoles una formación total de cuerpo, alma y espíritu.

En fin, el Hogar de Cristo se dedica a difundir la realidad de los pobres por medio de nuestro llamado bautismal a la responsabilidad que tenemos en darle al Hijo de hombre un lugar para reclinar su cabeza.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

When Pope Pius XII died in 1958, there was the usual buzz of speculation about likely successors. Cardinal Agagianian, Patriarch of the Armenians, was highly thought of as a likely choice. This took many Catholics by surprise, since he had never celebrated the same liturgy as Pope Pius, but followed ancient Armenian customs according to the Eastern Church, which veils the Eucharistic liturgy from sight by a series of curtains, and in which the priest kneels while the people stand for Communion.

In the years that followed, the Second Vatican Council would affirm the dignity and independence of the Eastern Churches, in complete union with Rome, yet different in patterns of life and worship. We have the same faith, the same sacraments, and the same pope. Yet everywhere in the world our separate Churches are combined into families held together by the ministry of bishops. All of this serves as warning: If you ever say, “But we’ve always done it this way,” you are on very thin ice indeed!
