August 25, 2019—Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

25 de agosto de 2019—Vigésimo Primer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Strengthen your drooping hands and your weak knees. Make straight paths for your feet, that what is lame may not be disjointed but healed.— Hebrews 12:12-13

[Robustezcan sus manos cansadas y sus rodillas vacilantes; caminen por un camino plano, para que el cojo ya no se tropiece, sino más bien se alivie.

— Hebreos 12:12-13

WELCOME THE STRANGER

We have become accustomed to seeing pictures in the media and stories on the news about immigrants from Latin America and refugees from Syria fleeing violence and destruction in their own countries, trying to make their way to a safe place. We have also seen the reactions of people who want to keep them away from their countries, who fail to welcome the stranger and the helpless children. Have we forgotten Jesus’ call to comfort the homeless and the stranger? “They shall bring all your brothers and sisters from all the nations . . . to Jerusalem, my holy mountain, says the LORD.”

In the three readings for this day, we are told that we are to welcome these strangers, to welcome the discipline of the Lord, which leads to peace, and to “strive to enter through the narrow gate” into the glory of God’s own homeland, the reign of God.

DA LA BIENVENIDA AL EXTRANJERO

Ya casi nos hemos acostumbrado a ver fotografías en las redes sociales e historias en los periódicos de inmigrantes latinoamericanos y refugiados sirios escapando de la violencia y la destrucción de sus propios países, intentando hacer una vida mejor en un lugar más seguro.

También nos ha tocado ver las reacciones de las personas que intentan mantenerlas lejos de sus países, que se oponen a ayudar a los extranjeros y a los niños indefensos. ¿Se nos ha olvidado la enseñanza de Jesús de ayudar a los desamparados y a los extranjeros? “Traerán todos a sus hermanos y hermanas de todas las naciones . . . a Jerusalén, a mi monte santo, dice el Señor”.

En las tres lecturas de hoy, se nos dice que debemos ser hospitalarios con los extranjeros, dar la bienvenida a los discípulos del Señor, lo cual nos lleva a la paz, y a “entrar por la puerta que es angosta” a la gloria del reino de Dios.

Family Discussion:

Families take advantage of certain days throughout the year to celebrate individuals in the family and to make sure that they know that they are not taken for granted. As a family, recall all of the days that someone in the family was celebrated in the past year—birthdays, Mother's Day, Father's Day, anniversaries, graduations, and so on. Next, challenge each individual to recall what gifts were received on the day(s) on which he or she was celebrated.

Emphasize that these days are intended to express appreciation in a special way but are not meant to replace the appreciation that we should always show. Point out how, at times, families can take one another for granted. Explain that in this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells a story about some people who took something for granted and paid a price. Read aloud Luke 13:22-30. Explain that, in this story, some people took it for granted that they could enter the house whenever they wanted, but the master locked the gate and would not let them in after hours. Point out that Jesus was warning his listeners not to assume that they will have eternal life in heaven and not to take this invitation for granted.

As a family, commit to showing appreciation for one another in the days ahead, striving to not take for granted any of the many things that family members do in their roles as parents and children.

Theme: Luke 13:22-30 People will come from north and south, east and west, and take their place in the Kingdom of God.

Summary:

In this gospel passage from Saint Luke we clearly hear the message that if we are going to follow Christ, it will require of us a discipline. That is the hard work, not trying to do things the easy way but rather to be diligent about doing things in a way that will help us develop day by day in living an ethical life. Living a life of goodness requires us to strive to be and do the best we can each day. Unfortunately there will be days that we will not do as well as we would hope for.

Making the Connection (Grades 1, 2, and 3): Younger children are beginning to see that their actions and choices have consequences. The parable that Jesus tells in this Sunday's Gospel emphasizes the importance of not taking his invitation to eternal life for granted.

Making the Connection (Grades 4, 5, and 6): Children at this age are beginning to take on more responsibility for getting to and from places on time. The danger of arriving late is more and more of a reality for them. The parable that Jesus tells in this Sunday's Gospel emphasizes the importance of being on time (not missing opportunities).

Making the Connection (Grades 7 and 8): Young people are often very competitive and like to prove that they are the best at something. The following demonstration will allow you to illustrate the importance of paying attention to opportunities, a message that comes through in this Sunday's Gospel.

Scripture: Someone asked him, "Lord, will only a few people be saved?" He answered them, "Strive to enter through the narrow door, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough. We are all invited to share eternal life with God forever in heaven, but Jesus is warning us today that we cannot take that invitation for granted. We need to pay attention, to stay focused, and to take advantage of the opportunities we have to grow closer to our Lord. When we pray the Lord's Prayer, we ask that we pray to be delivered from temptation—those things that distract us from keeping focused on opportunities to grow closer to God.

Pray that you will always seek the help of God in being a person that stays at it, and a person who is disciplined to be the very best you can be. By doing this you may accomplish great things and the greatest of these is being the image of God that each of us is intended to be. Be OK with the fact that some days we are better images of God than others!

Reflect: If a word or phrase from the Gospel captures your heart, sit quietly for several minutes, repeating it to yourself and asking God to show you how it applies to your life. Or, reflect and possibly journal on the following question: If you were on trial for being a Christian, would the prosecution find enough evidence if they looked only at the way you lived your life Monday through Saturday

My Promise to Jesus: Jesus, I will walk in your footsteps, with my eyes fixed on heaven. What joy I will feel as I think about the beauty of your creation!

Vigésimo Primer Domingo en Tiempo Ordinario

Érase una vez una mujer muy, muy malvada. Y el día en que murió nadie recordaba ningún gesto de caridad que hubiera hecho a lo largo de su vida.

Así pues, el demonio la llevó al infierno. Su ángel de la guarda empezó a repasar su vida para ver si encontraba una buena acción para presentársela a Dios. Finalmente encontró una. Una vez arrancó una cebolla de su huerto y se la dio a un mendigo.

Dios le dijo al ángel de la guarda: "Toma una cebolla, enséñasela y que se agarre a ella, si la puedes subir hasta el paraíso que entre, pero si la cebolla se rompe se quedará en el infierno".

El ángel de la guarda corrió hacia ella y le dijo: Ven, agárrate y yo te salvaré.

Con mucho cuidado empezó a subir y ya estaba casi afuera cuando otros pecadores que la vieron ya casi salvada se agarraron a ella para salir también ellos.

Pero como era tan mala empezó a darles golpes y les dijo: "Me están sacando a mí, no a ustedes; es mi cebolla, no la de ustedes. Suéltense". Al decir esto la cebolla se rompió. La mujer cayó de nuevo al infierno y allí sigue hasta hoy.

Su ángel de la guarda sigue llorando porque no pudo salvarla.

Hoy, le preguntan a Jesús si es verdad que son pocos los que se salvan.

Jesús no contesta a la pregunta de aquel hombre curioso. No dice si son muchos o pocos. Simplemente dice:

"esfuércense por entrar por la puerta estrecha porque yo les digo que muchos tratarán de entrar y no lo lograrán.

La puerta estrecha es, ante todo, la aceptación humilde, en la fe pura y en la confianza serena, de la Palabra de Dios, de sus perspectivas sobre nuestras personas, y sobre el mundo y sobre la historia; es la observancia de la ley moral, como manifestación de la voluntad de Dios, en vista de un bien superior el que realiza nuestra verdadera felicidad; es la aceptación del sufrimiento como medio de expiación y de redención, para sí y para los demás, y como expresión suprema del amor; la puerta estrecha es, en una palabra, la aceptación de la mentalidad evangélica, que encuentra en el sermón de la montaña su más pura explicación.

Bendiciones, Raúl

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Hay quienes quieren negar los derechos de los inmigrantes latinos que llegan a los Estados Unidos en busca de una vida mejor. Esta injusticia es extraña ya que los hispanos llegamos al territorio estadounidense en 1513, 73 años antes de la llegada de los primeros anglosajones. Estos fueron Ponce de León y compañeros quienes buscaban una mejor vida en la famosa fuente de la juventud. Eventualmente los hispanos dejaron de buscar la ilusoria fuente y en 1565 en la fiesta de san Agustín (28 de Agosto), Pedro Menéndez de Avilés fundó la primera ciudad en Florida.

Gracias a su santo patrón esta ciudad ha podido sobrevivir ataques de invasores británicos y piratas, amenazas de huracanes y tempestades para convertirse en la ciudad más vieja de la Unión Americana. ¿Pero quien fue este santo? Agustín, fue un obispo africano, quien después de una vida desordenada se convirtió en uno de los santos mas importantes de la Iglesia, gracias a las oraciones continuas de su madre santa Mónica. Nunca debemos menospreciar el poder de las oraciones de una madre por sus hijos.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The wonderful diversity of life and worship among Roman Catholics of East and West is an example of God writing straight with crooked lines. The steady hand of the villainous Emperor Diocletian drew a line across Europe and Africa that split the empire in two, and for the most part determined how Christians would worship two thousand years later.

Italy's heel and the far northern city of Trieste fell on the Eastern side, and have had a form of Eastern liturgy ever since. Constantinople, which soon became the seat of the Roman Empire, became a base for Christianizing the East up to Russia and Poland. Poland was on the Eastern side, but a series of wars and medieval mayhem pushed the religious boundary back to the Ukraine, and Poland remains an outpost of the Latin Church to this day.

An old rule of thumb declared that whatever religion was observed by the local prince, the people had to follow. This gave rise to persecution and migration as people sought toleration for their expressions of faith. In the United States, we are accustomed to peaceful collaboration among Christians of East and West, a situation that challenges churches that still feel the pinch of age-old division.
