“You are invited! Come along with me!”

September 1, 2019—Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 de septiembre de 2019—Vigésimo Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

You have approached Mount Zion and the city of the living God.
 — Hebrews 12:22a

[Ustedes, en cambio, se han acercado a Sión, el monte y la ciudad del Dios viviente.
 — Hebreos 12:22a

HUMILITY

Humility is a virtue we don’t see much in our times. It seems that bragging, swaggering, and arrogance dominate our fashion for everything and our Internet conversations. Who hasn’t been irritated by the “trolls” who try (usually with bad grammar and poor spelling) to start an online fight with those whose opinions do not align with theirs? Our stores, catalogs, and online shopping sites are full of useless items geared in use and price to the very rich, as ordinary, useful things seem to fade off the sales scene. As the rich get richer, the poor get poorer and the middle class is fading away. What is the antidote to this? Humility is a good place to start. Devotion to God is worth more than riches. “The father of orphans and the defender of widows is God in his holy dwelling. God gives a home to the forsaken; [God] leads forth prisoners to prosperity.”

LA HUMILDAD

La humildad es una virtud que no vemos mucho en estos días. Parece que la vanidad, la prepotencia y la arrogancia dominan nuestras costumbres de todo y en nuestras conversaciones en Internet. ¿Quién no se ha molestado por los trolls de quienes intentan (por lo general con una mala gramática y falta de ortografía) empezar una pelea con aquellas personas que no coinciden con sus opiniones? Nuestras tiendas, catálogos y tiendas virtuales en línea están llenas de cosas inútiles destinados al uso y por el precio a los ricos, en tanto las cosas ordinarias parecen desaparecer de esos lugares de venta. A medida que los ricos se hacen más ricos, los pobres se van haciendo más pobres y la clase media va desapareciendo. ¿Cuál es el antidoto para esto? La humildad es un buen lugar para empezar. La devoción a Dios vale mucho más que todas las riquezas. “Padre de huérfanos, protector de viudas, Dios vive en su santa morada, Dios prepara casa a los desvalidos, libera a los cautivos y los enriquece”.

Dear Parish Minister,

You are invited to a prayer vigil in solidarity with the migrants who have attempted to cross the US-Mexico border. As we have experienced with the tragedy in Gilroy, the power of prayer helps us process difficult times and, under God's protection, gives us the clarity to move forward closely together. On behalf of the diocese, come pray with the community of Our Lady of Guadalupe so we can gain clarity of how to help our brothers and sisters at the border with greater effectiveness. Visit the diocesan website below for more information, and we hope to pray with you on September 4th at 7:00pm.

Estimado Ministro Parroquial,

Usted está invitado a una vigilia de oración en solidaridad para los migrantes que han intentado cruzar la frontera entre Estados Unidos y México. Como hemos visto con la tragedia en Gilroy, el poder de la oración nos ayuda a procesar tiempos difíciles y, bajo la protección de Dios, nos da la claridad de seguir adelante juntos. Con la diócesis, venga a orar con la comunidad de Nuestra Señora Guadalupe para que podamos obtener claridad sobre cómo ayudar a nuestros hermanos y hermanas en la frontera con mayor eficacia. Visite el sitio web diocesano a continuación para obtener más información, y esperamos orar con usted el 4 de septiembre a las 7:00 p.m.

THE DIGNITY OF WORK AND THE RIGHTS OF WORKERS

The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God's creation. If the dignity of work is to be protected, then the basic rights of workers must be respected--the right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to the organization and joining of unions, to private property, and to economic initiative.

LA DIGNIDAD DEL TRABAJO Y LOS DERECHOS DE LOS TRABAJADORES

La economía debe servir al pueblo y no al revés. El trabajo es más que una forma de ganarse la vida, es una forma de participar continuamente en la creación de Dios. Si e ha de proteger la dignidad del trabajo, entonces debe respetarse los derechos básicos de los trabajadores-el derecho a un trabajo productivo, a salarios adecuados y justos, a organizar sindicatos y a unirse a ellos, a la propiedad privada y a la iniciativa económica

Family Discussion: Parents and children often enter into “negotiations” over how much allowance is to be earned at certain ages. Typically, when a child seeks an increase in allowance, parents will attach an increase in chores and responsibilities for them to better earn the increase. Talk about what kind of allowance you received as a child and what kind of responsibilities your parents expected of you to earn your allowance.

Explain that in this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus talks about doing good deeds for others and expecting nothing in return. Read aloud Luke 14:1,7-14. Ask your children how they would feel if you told them to take on more chores without ever expecting another raise in allowance. Emphasize that Jesus teaches us that it is our duty as his followers to take care of the needs of others and to do so without expecting repayment. Discuss what other types of rewards we can find when doing good things for others.

Point out that we sometimes fall into the trap of wanting too many things and that, in the Our Father, we pray for “our daily bread,” meaning that we pray for only that which we really need in life.

Conclude this time together by praying aloud the Our Father.

Theme: Luke 14:1, 7-14: When you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind.

Summary: The Gospel continues the theme of humility as Jesus speaks of those invited to a wedding celebration and advises that we should always seek the lower place at the table. This story envelopes yet again the manner in which Jesus approached life. He, the Master of all became the servant in order to express love and regard for the other. We, who are His followers, are called to do the same. This humility is expressed yet again when Jesus speaks of how we are to host a dinner and that those invited should be inclusive of those who are not able to repay.

Scripture:

Then Jesus said to his host, "When you give a luncheon or dinner, do not invite your friends, your brothers or relatives, or your rich neighbors; if you do, they may invite you back and so you will be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, and you will be blessed. Although they cannot repay you, you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous." Luke 14:12-14

Jesus said that when we are having a party, we shouldn't just invite our best friends or the most popular children in school. In fact, he said that we should be sure to invite the very ones that we might leave out -- the poor, the crippled, and those who are less fortunate than we are. He said that if we only do good things for those who can do good things for us that we already have our reward, but if we do good things for those who cannot do good things for us in return, that we will receive our reward in heaven.

Dear Father, help us to be loving and caring toward those who may not have as much as we have. Help us to include them in the special things that we do. In Jesus name we pray, amen.

Reflect: If a word or phrase from the Gospel captures your heart, sit quietly for several minutes, repeating it to yourself and asking God to show you how it applies to your life. Can you remember a time when you were suddenly surprised because you felt like God was with you?

Making the Connection (Grades 1, 2, and 3): Help younger children understand that, as Christians, we help build up the Kingdom of God when we give with no expectation of receiving in return.

Making the Connection (Grades 4, 5, and 6): Children at this age have wonderful and active imaginations. Jesus used parables to stimulate our imaginations and to envision reality in a whole new way. This Sunday's Gospel challenges readers to imagine what the Kingdom of God is like and who is invited to enter it.

Making the Connection (Grades 7 and 8): Young people are capable of abstract and logical thinking. Jesus' parables about the kingdom challenge us to see reality in a whole new way. This Sunday's Gospel challenges the young people to grapple with the concept of the kingdom and who is invited to enter into it.

My Promise to Jesus: Teach me, Jesus, how to love as you do. This week, I will look for way to do kind deeds for those who are not able to repay me. I will give without expecting anything in return.

ANUNCIOS Y NOTICIAS ESPECIALES

Vigésimo Segundo Domingo en Tiempo Ordinario

En un vuelo de British Airways, una señora blanca y rica se encontró sentada junto a un hombre negro. Ésta llamó a la azafata para exponerle sus quejas y su disgusto.

“Me han sentado junto a este negro y no puedo viajar así. Búsqueme otro asiento”.

“Cálmese señora”, le dijo la azafata, “el avión está lleno, pero miraré a ver si queda algún asiento libre”.

Minutos más tarde, la azafata sonriente volvió con la buena noticia. “Señora, sólo queda un asiento en primera clase”.

“Hacer un cambio de asiento es algo extraordinario, pero dadas las circunstancias, el capitán ha concluido que sería una grave desconsideración hacia el pasajero tener que volar junto a una persona tan desagradable”.

Y dirigiéndose hacia el hombre negro le dijo: “Señor, recoja sus cosas y sígame, tengo un asiento preparado para usted en primera clase”.

El resto de los pasajeros respondió con una fuerte ovación.

En algunas iglesias de Nueva York aún se pueden leer los nombres de la gente importante: Cornelius Vanderbilt, el hombre más rico de su tiempo, John Rockefeller, el hombre que desde su primer sueldo hasta el final de su vida siempre dio el diezmo a su iglesia. Éstos compraban su banco en las primeras filas y en su ausencia nadie los ocupaba.

Las listas humanas y el protocolo de los hombres no se parecen en nada a las listas de Dios.

El primer banco de nuestras iglesias está siempre vacío, excepto el día en que, por razones ajenas al culto, acuden las autoridades civiles y militares que, con mucha solemnidad y todo derecho, ocupan el primer banco.

Dios, asombro y alegría, no mide la categoría de las personas por los cargos que ostentamos, por los títulos conseguidos o por la riqueza acumulada.

En las iglesias, en torno a la mesa de Jesús, todos somos ilegales, porque todos somos pecadores, todos los bautizados tenemos la misma dignidad porque todos ostentamos el único título de hijos de Dios. Todos somos miembros de la misma familia de Dios.

La sociedad de ahí afuera es muy imperfecta. Aquí adentro todos somos importantes, pero yo no soy más importante que el que está a mi lado o el que está detrás o delante. Todos participamos de la misma mesa y recibimos al mismo Jesús.

Todos invitados como en la parábola: “amigo, acércate a la cabecera”.

2020 Census

Census Workers Start Address Canvassing Operation Started, Census Bureau workers are canvassing neighborhoods in San José to confirm and record addresses in preparation for the 2020 Census. This operation is important in ensuring that the Census Bureau has a complete and accurate master address file that will be used to mail Census 2020 information to all households. Census data determines political representation and federal funding for critical programs that support education, housing, transportation, social and emergency disaster relief services.

As part of this operation, Census workers may contact residents to confirm address information. No personal information (e.g., social security, bank or credit card account, driver’s license) will be requested. Census workers will have official government badges with their photographs, and carry black canvas bags and laptops with the Census logo. If a resident is in doubt about a visitor, s/he can call the U.S. Census Bureau Regional Office at (213)314-6500 to verify the person’s identity. If it is determined that the visitor is not an official Census worker, residents should call the San José Police Department non-emergency line at (408)277-8900 to report the incident. This field operation will be ongoing through mid-October 2019.

Censo 2020

Los trabajadores del censo han comenzado la operación de escrutinio de direcciones, los trabajadores de la Oficina del Censo sondean los vecindarios en San José para confirmar y registrar direcciones en preparación para el censo de 2020. Esta operación es importante para garantizar que la Oficina del Censo tenga un archivo de dirección maestra completo y preciso que se utilizará para enviar la información del Censo 2020 a todos los hogares. Los datos del censo determinan la representación política y los fondos federales para programas críticos que apoyan la educación, la vivienda, el transporte, los servicios sociales y de emergencia en caso de desastres.

Como parte de esta operación, los trabajadores del censo pueden contactar a los residentes para confirmar la información de la dirección. No se solicitará información personal (p. Ej., Número de Seguro social, cuenta bancaria o tarjeta de crédito, licencia de conducir). Los trabajadores del censo tendrán insignias oficiales del gobierno con sus fotografías, y llevarán bolsas de lona negra y computadoras portátiles con el logotipo del Censo. Si un residente tiene dudas sobre un visitante, puede llamar a la Oficina Regional de la Oficina del Censo de los EE. UU. Al (213)314-6500 para verificar la identidad de la persona. Si se determina que el visitante no es un trabajador oficial del Censo, los residentes deben llamar a la línea de no emergencia del Departamento de Policía de San José al (408)277-8900 para informar el incidente. Esta operación continuará hasta mediados de octubre de 2019.
