

“You are invited! Come along with me!”

September 8, 2019—Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

8 de septiembre de 2019—Vigésimo Tercero Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Fill us at daybreak with your kindness, that we may shout for joy and gladness all our days.— Psalm 90:14

[Por la mañana sáciate de tu misericordia, y toda nuestra vida será alegría y júbilo.— Salmo 90 (89):14

POST-SUMMER CHALLENGES

With any luck, summer delights will continue a while past last weekend’s Labor Day: refreshing recreation (with maybe an occasional swim) or enjoyable relaxation on the deck (with tasty outdoor grilling). Truth is, for some of us, this year’s Labor Day came way too early. With many schools back in session for a while already, mealtimes and driving schedules needed readjustment to coordinate youth sports with adult commitments. Some religious education and parish programs resumed, too. No surprise, then, that this weekend’s scriptures sound a little like post-summer challenges. For instance, Wisdom reminds us that believers in God can never be content with “timid deliberations” and “unsure plans.” Paul challenges longtime friend and follower Philemon to “let the good you do be voluntary.” Jesus instructs “great crowds” traveling with him—including us—on three things necessary for all true disciples to accomplish. On this early autumn weekend, our scriptures describe disciples’ lifelong labors.

DESAFÍOS POSTERIORES AL VERANO

Con algo de suerte, los placeres del verano continuarán aún después del fin de semana del Día del Trabajo: recreación estimulante (quizá con un chapuzón en la alberca) o relajación agradable en la terraza (con sabrosas parrilladas al aire libre). La verdad es que, para algunos de nosotros, este año el Día del Trabajo se adelantó demasiado. Con clases escolares que ya empezaron hace tiempo, los horarios para las comidas y el ir a dejar a los niños a la escuela necesitaron reajustarse para coordinar los deportes de los chicos con los compromisos de los adultos. Algunos programas de catequesis y actividades parroquiales ya también empezaron. No debe extrañarnos que las Escrituras de este fin de semana parezcan un poco como desafíos posteriores al verano. Por ejemplo, el libro de la Sabiduría nos recuerda que los creyentes en Dios nunca pueden contentarse con “tímidas deliberaciones” y “planes inseguros”. Pablo desafía a un seguidor de él y además amigo de toda la vida, Filemón, para “dejar que lo bueno sea voluntario”. Jesús enseña a grandes multitudes que viajan con él, incluyéndonos, en tres cosas necesarias para que todos los verdaderos discípulos lo logren. En este anticipado fin de semana de otoño, nuestras Escrituras describen las labores de toda la vida de los discípulos.

Evangelization Talk
September 28th at 2:00 PM
in the Main Hall

(In English)

Please come for an afternoon filled with a dynamic message of Evangelization.

Hector conducted the Spanish Track of our Parish Mission last year. This year we are blessed to have him with us for an afternoon filled with a wonderful message of evangelization.

Endorsement from :
Cardinal Raymond Leo Burke,

I am happy to express my wholehearted endorsement of Hector Molina and of his evangelization apostolate. Hector is an exceptionally gifted communicator of the Gospel and teacher of the Catholic faith, who, with remarkable dynamism and fidelity to the truth proclaims the message of the New Evangelization. Having worked closely with Hector during my time as Archbishop of St. Louis, I can attest to the unquestionable competence and ardent Christian love with which he serves the Church. It gives me great pleasure to recommend him to you."

Charla de evangelización
28 de Septiembre a las 10:00
AM en el Salón Principal

(Charla en Español)

Ven a pasar una mañana llena de un dinámico mensaje de evangelización.

Héctor dirigió nuestra Misión Parroquial en español el año pasado. Este año tenemos la bendición de tenerlo con nosotros durante una tarde llena de un maravilloso mensaje de evangelización.

Respaldo de:
Cardenal Raymond Leo Burke,

Estoy feliz de expresar mi sincero respaldo a Héctor Molina y su apostolado de evangelización. Héctor es un comunicador del Evangelio excepcionalmente talentoso y maestro de la fe católica, quien, con notable dinamismo y fidelidad a la verdad, proclama el mensaje de la Nueva Evangelización. Después de haber trabajado estrechamente con Héctor durante mi tiempo como Arzobispo de San Luis, puedo dar fe de la competencia incuestionable y el ardiente amor cristiano con el que sirve a la Iglesia. Me da mucho gusto recomendarlo.

FAITH FORMATION

Family Discussion: Provide your children with a list of things that they are responsible for interspersed with things that they like to do—for example, make their beds, take out the garbage, go to the park, do homework, watch television, have a snack, feed the cat. The list should reflect their responsibilities and favorite recreations. Tell them to pretend that company is coming and ask which of the things listed should be done first. Explain that this is called setting priorities.

From the desk of: Ms. Kathleen Cook,
Director of Religious Education

Theme: Luke 14:25-33 Jesus teaches about the demands of discipleship.

Summary: Saint Luke continues this theme of commitment, so much so that in this passage Jesus says something that, at face value, is very distressing. "If anyone wishes to follow me without hating his father or mother..."

These are really strong words that are not to be taken literally, that is at face value, but rather to make a bold statement that if one does wish to follow Jesus, there will be sacrifices made in order to lead a life of commitment to Jesus.

Making the Connection (Grades 1, 2, and 3): While younger children often need the help of adults in prioritizing, they are able to recognize that some activities take priority over others in different circumstances. Understanding what it means to prioritize will help them understand Jesus' call to prioritize following him above all else.

Making the Connection (Grades 4, 5, and 6): As children grow older, they are capable of doing more and taking on more responsibilities. For this reason, it is important for them to learn how to set priorities. Sometimes making priorities and sticking to them can be very difficult and requires sacrifice. Jesus wants us to know that following him is difficult, but the reward—fullness of life—is worth it.

Making the Connection (Grades 7 and 8): As children grow older, they are capable of doing more and taking on more responsibilities. For this reason, it is important for them to learn how to set priorities. Sometimes making priorities and sticking to them can be very difficult and requires sacrifice. Jesus wants us to know that following him is difficult, but the reward—fullness of life—is worth it.

Scripture: "And anyone who does not carry his cross and follow me cannot be my disciple." Luke 14:27

Jesus said, "Anyone who does not carry his cross and follow me cannot be my disciple." Where did Jesus carry his cross? He carried it to Calvary. It was on that cross that Jesus gave his life so that you and I could have everlasting life. When we choose to carry our cross, it means that we are willing to give up everything to follow Jesus. It is a choice we have to make. Dear Jesus, we thank you for being willing to carry your cross to Calvary. Help us to make the choice to take our cross and follow you. Amen.

Reflect: If a word or phrase from the Gospel captures your heart, sit quietly for several minutes, repeating it to yourself and asking God to show you how it applies to your life. Can you remember a time when you were suddenly surprised because you felt like God was with you?

Pass on the Good News! Wanted: Catechists.
Reward: Storing up Treasures in Heaven!

You can help our children in English Faith Formation by passing on your faith and experiences as a catechist. As you nurture their faith, you will learn and grow as well.

Beginning in September 2019-2020 Classes are on Tuesdays from 6:30-7:30 PM at SJV School.

Not sure what being a catechist is all about? Want to help but don't want to teach? There are other roles to fill on the team as well! All are welcome to share their gifts and talents.

If you are interested in sharing your faith and talents with the children in the English Faith Formation program, please contact Ms. Kathleen Cook, Director of Religious Education at kcook@sjvsj.net.

ANUNCIOS Y NOTICIAS ESPECIALES

Vigésimo Tercero Domingo en Tiempo Ordinario

Érase una vez una mujer que caminando por las montañas encontró una piedra preciosa en un riachuelo. Al día siguiente se encontró con un viajero hambriento. Nuestra mujer abrió su bolsa para compartir la comida. El viajero que vio la piedra preciosa, lleno de avaricia, se la pidió y ella se la dio sin más. El viajero siguió su camino feliz, sabía que esa piedra preciosa tenía mucho valor y le iba a proporcionar mucho dinero. Unos pocos días después, el viajero volvió y le devolvió la piedra a la mujer. He estado pensando y vengo a devolverle su piedra y espero me dé algo mucho mejor. Déme lo que usted lleva dentro y le da el poder de desprenderse, sin más, de esta piedra preciosa.

¿Verdad que esta historia viene a cuento con el evangelio de hoy?

Sí, hay algo más precioso y valioso que las joyas o las cadenas de oro que se pueden comprar en una joyería.

Lo más valioso está dentro de nosotros, en nuestro corazón:

- *la libertad frente a las cosas y las personas,
- *el desprendimiento de las riquezas,
- *la mirada limpia,
- *la sabiduría para discernir lo permanente de lo efímero (que se acaba rápido),
- *el Espíritu Santo que me ayuda a renunciar a todo para seguir a Jesús.

Déme lo que lleva dentro y le da el poder de desprenderse, sin más, de esta piedra preciosa.

Nos dice Lucas: "Caminaban con Jesús grandes multitudes y dirigiéndose a ellos, les dijo: No puede ser mi discípulo el que prefiere a su padre, a su madre... El que no cargue con su cruz. El que no renuncia a todos sus bienes.

En los evangelios y en la predicación hay un Jesús peligroso, un Jesús que nos escandaliza, un Jesús difícil de entender y hay también un Jesús dulce, manso y comprensivo.

Sólo Jesús puede ser el todo de un cristiano.

Sólo Jesús dejó los suyos para predicar el Reino de Dios.

Sólo Jesús cargó con la cruz y murió en la cruz.

Sólo Jesús renunció a todo para hacer la voluntad del Padre.

Sólo Jesús es modelo para nosotros.

2020 Census

Census Workers Start Address Canvassing Operation Started, Census Bureau workers are canvassing neighborhoods in San José to confirm and record addresses in preparation for the 2020 Census. This operation is important in ensuring that the Census Bureau has a complete and accurate master address file that will be used to mail Census 2020 information to all households. Census data determines political representation and federal funding for critical programs that support education, housing, transportation, social and emergency disaster relief services.

As part of this operation, Census workers may contact residents to confirm address information. No personal information (e.g., social security, bank or credit card account, driver's license) will be requested. Census workers will have official government badges with their photographs, and carry black canvas bags and laptops with the Census logo. If a resident is in doubt about a visitor, s/he can call the U.S. Census Bureau Regional Office at (213)314-6500 to verify the person's identity. If it is determined that the visitor is not an official Census worker, residents should call the San José Police Department non-emergency line at (408)277-8900 to report the incident. This field operation will be ongoing through mid-October 2019.

Censo 2020

Los trabajadores del censo han comenzado la operación de escrutinio de direcciones, los trabajadores de la Oficina del Censo sondean los vecindarios en San José para confirmar y registrar direcciones en preparación para el censo de 2020. Esta operación es importante para garantizar que la Oficina del Censo tenga un archivo de dirección maestra completo y preciso que se utilizará para enviar la información del Censo 2020 a todos los hogares. Los datos del censo determinan la representación política y los fondos federales para programas críticos que apoyan la educación, la vivienda, el transporte, los servicios sociales y de emergencia en caso de desastres.

Como parte de esta operación, los trabajadores del censo pueden contactar a los residentes para confirmar la información de la dirección. No se solicitará información personal (p. Ej., Número de Seguro social, cuenta bancaria o tarjeta de crédito, licencia de conducir). Los trabajadores del censo tendrán insignias oficiales del gobierno con sus fotografías, y llevarán bolsas de lona negra y computadoras portátiles con el logotipo del Censo. Si un residente tiene dudas sobre un visitante, puede llamar a la Oficina Regional de la Oficina del Censo de los EE. UU. Al (213)314-6500 para verificar la identidad de la persona. Si se determina que el visitante no es un trabajador oficial del Censo, los residentes deben llamar a la línea de no emergencia del Departamento de Policía de San José al (408)277-8900 para informar el incidente. Esta operación continuará hasta mediados de octubre de 2019.
