

“You are invited! Come along with me!”

October 13, 2019—Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

13 de octubre de 2019—Vigésimo Octavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

If we have died with [Christ Jesus] we shall also live with him; if we persevere we shall also reign with him.— 2 Timothy 2:11-12a

Si morimos con [Cristo Jesús] viviremos con él; si nos mantenemos firmes, reinaremos con él.— 2 Timoteo 2:11-12a

HEALING AND SALVATION

The readings today speak of healing and salvation. In Second Kings, Naaman, a commander of the army of the king of Syria, develops leprosy. He goes to a stranger, a prophet from Israel, when no one else can cure his disease. Much to his surprise, after a simple bath in the river, he is cured. In Luke’s Gospel, Jesus cures ten lepers and sends them to the priest. Only one, a Samaritan, returns to thank Jesus for his cure and only he hears the words, “Your faith has saved you.” The psalm and Timothy remind us that salvation involves justice, kindness, and faithfulness and forever links us with Jesus. In a world as broken as ours, both healing and salvation are necessary.

SANACIÓN Y SALVACIÓN

Las lecturas de hoy hablan de sanación y salvación. En el segundo libro de los Reyes, Naamán, un comandante del ejército del rey de Siria, se enferma de lepra. Él va con un extranjero, un profeta de Israel cuando nadie más puede curar su enfermedad. Para su sorpresa, después de un simple baño en el río, él sanó. En el Evangelio de Lucas, Jesús sana a diez leprosos y los envía con el sacerdote. Solo uno, un samaritano, regresa a agradecerle a Jesús por haberlo sanado y él solo escucha las palabras: “tu fe te ha salvado”. El Salmo y Timoteo nos recuerda que la salvación involucra la justicia, la bondad y la fidelidad y nos vincula para siempre con Jesús. En un mundo roto como el nuestro, ambas sanaciones y salvacion son necesarias.

Family Discussion: Children fluctuate between moments of deep, heartfelt gratitude and an attitude of entitlement. These fluctuations are normal. Among our tasks as parents is to help foster the gift of gratitude, particularly gratitude to God for all God's goodness to us.

Read today's Gospel, Luke 17:11-19. Make a poster showing some of the gifts from God to your family. Display this poster in a prominent place and, as a family, write a prayer of thanksgiving for all of God's goodness to you.

Theme: Luke 17:11-19 Jesus heals 10 lepers, and one, the Samaritan, returns to give thanks.

Summary: Jesus challenges his disciples to increase their faith. This Gospel about the cleansing of the 10 lepers will also be heard on Thanksgiving Day in the United States. Here we have the story of the miraculous healing of ten lepers. They cry out to Jesus, "Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!" And indeed, Jesus does have pity on them and sends them away cleansed. There is only one, a Samaritan, of the ten that recognizes that he is healed and that it was by the word of Jesus that it occurred. He returns in gratitude for what has happened to him. At the conclusion we hear Jesus respond to the fact that only one of the ten returned to give thanks. Jesus asks the question, "Where are the other nine?"

Making the Connection (Grades 1, 2, and 3): While younger children are learning to be less focused on themselves, they may at times be demanding, wanting their desires or needs met immediately. Support younger children in beginning a habit of gratitude and patience by helping them notice their many blessings, including family members and others who care for them.

Making the Connection (Grades 4, 5, and 6): It is easy for us to take the good things in our life for granted. This temptation is particularly great for young people. We can move our young people from a sense of entitlement to a sense of gratitude by reminding them of the source of the good things in their lives and by teaching appropriate ways to offer thanks.

Making the Connection (Grades 7 and 8): Junior high is a time when young people need opportunities to discern their gifts. This Sunday's Gospel can inspire them to take inventory of their gifts and to offer thanks.

Scripture: Jesus asked, "Were not all ten cleansed? Where are the other nine?" Luke 17:17

One day, Jesus was walking through a small village when he saw a group of ten lepers. They stood far away from Jesus and called to him, "Jesus, Master, have pity on us." Obviously, they knew who Jesus was and that he had the power to heal them. When Jesus heard them, he called back to the lepers and said, "Go, show yourself to the priest."

As the lepers went on their way to see the priest, they looked at their skin and the sores were gone. Jesus had healed their disease. They were so happy that they ran up and down the streets singing and dancing. Suddenly, one of them stopped and went back. Praising God with a loud voice, he threw himself at Jesus' feet and said, "Thank You." Jesus said to him, "Weren't there ten who were healed? Where are the other nine?" Only one out of ten remembered to say, "Thank You."

Dear Lord, you give us everything we need, but we often forget to say "Thank You." We thank you now, and ask you to help us to remember to give thanks every day for all that you do for us. In Jesus' name we pray, amen.

Reflect: If a word or phrase from the Gospel captures your heart, sit quietly for several minutes, repeating it to yourself and asking God to show you how it applies to your life. Have you ever felt like an outcast or reached out to someone who felt that way?

ANUNCIOS Y NOTICIAS ESPECIALES

VIGESIMO OCTAVO DOMINGO EN TIEMPO ORDINARIO C

Imagínese que un amigo le regala un gran plato de arena mezclada con finísimas limaduras de hierro.

Tiene como tarea separar la arena de las limaduras de hierro.

Intenta buscarlas con los ojos y no lo consigue.

Después intenta cribarlas entre los dedos y no consigue nada.

Finalmente, se le ocurre la feliz idea de buscar un imán que pasea por la arena, lo mira y lo encuentra cubierto de limaduras.

El imán ha hecho la tarea fácil y agradecida.

La persona ingrata es como los ojos que miran la arena o la criba de los dedos y no encuentran nada. Es la persona que nunca encontrará motivos para dar gracias.

La persona agradecida es como el imán que al barrer la arena se alegra y encuentra mil razones para dar gracias a ese Dios invisible pero mezclado con los miles de granos de arena de nuestros olvidos e imperfecciones.

La Palabra de Dios que nos sirve la liturgia este domingo es una invitación a dar gracias, avivando la memoria del corazón.

“Entonces, que a tu servidor le dejen llevar tierra, la carga de un par de mulas”, exclama Naamán.

“Haz memoria de Jesucristo” pide Pablo a Timoteo.

“Un samaritano volvió y le dio gracias”.

Hoy, se encuentra con diez leprosos, diez hombres que viven un exilio espiritual y social, diez extraños en su propia tierra.

Han gritado muchas veces a lo largo de los caminos su condición de “impuros”, somos impuros.

Hoy, gritan: “Jesús, Maestro, ten compasión de nosotros”.

¿Será posible que alguien escuche sus gritos?

¿Será posible que alguien se acerque a ellos y les mire a los ojos con amor?

Hoy, han hecho el encuentro de su vida y han gritado y pedido lo imposible.

Han pedido compasión y sanación al único que siempre tiene compasión, al único que siempre ofrece sanación, a Jesús de Nazaret.

“Jesús al verlos, les dijo: Vayan a presentarse a los sacerdotes”.

Muy obedientes, hay que cumplir la Ley, los judíos vivían uncidos al yugo de la Ley, los diez se ponen en camino y se encuentran con una nueva piel.

El samaritano, oficialmente no religioso, no obligado a ir al Templo y exento de la Ley, desanda el camino y va al encuentro de Jesús. Va a adorar, a agradecer.

Agradecer es más importante que obedecer.

Agradecer el don recibido sin hacer nada, sin merecerlo, es sólo obra del Espíritu.

Agradecer es cantar y contar la bondad de Dios en voz muy alta.

El domingo cristiano, día de la comunidad, día del “nosotros” proclamamos que “Es justo, es necesario, es nuestro deber y salvación dar GRACIAS a Dios siempre y en todo lugar”.

El domingo es el día en que nosotros, los nuevos samaritanos, los de siempre, dejamos las rutinas religiosas y nos presentamos en la asamblea a gritar a Jesús: “Maestro, ten compasión de NOSOTROS”.

PART-TIME AUDIO VISUAL ASSISTANT NEEDED

Our choirs alone are unable to manage a consistent projection of lyrics and Mass Responses on the screen during Liturgies due to the deep concentration they need in order to lead "us", the community, into worship through liturgical singing.

Please contact Luis at the parish office if you are interested in embarking into this beautiful journey of helping us all to participate and be part of Mass.

POSICIÓN DE ASISTENTE AUDIOVISUAL

Nuestros coros solos no pueden manejar una proyección consistente de la letra de los cantos y las respuestas de la Misa en nuestras pantallas durante las liturgias, debido a la profunda concentración que necesitan para guiarnos a "nosotros", la comunidad en adoración a través de la música litúrgica.

Comuníquese con Luis en la oficina de la parroquia si está interesado en embarcarse en este hermoso viaje para ayudarnos a todos a participar y ser parte de la Misa.
