

“You are invited! Come along with me!”

October 20, 2019—Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

20 de octubre de 2019—Vigésimo Noveno Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

I lift up my eyes toward the mountains; whence shall help come to me?
 My help is from the LORD, who made heaven and earth.— Psalm 121:1-2

Levanto mis ojos a los montes: ¿de dónde me vendrá el auxilio?, el auxilio me viene del Señor, que hizo el cielo y la tierra.

— Salmo 121 (120):1-2

PERSISTENCE

Today’s readings are about persistence, passionate persistence. Exodus tells of a battle won despite weariness because Moses, with help from Aaron and Hur, held his hands raised. Timothy asks that same persistence of his community and us. Luke tells of a court case won by a widow, despite the dishonesty of the judge, because she will not leave him alone. The psalm reminds us that God is everywhere, guarding us from harm day and night, coming and going, now and forever. The readings are about persistence, the relentless, unwavering pursuit of what must not be lost. The readings are about God’s passionate persistence in pursuing us, seeking to win our hearts.

LA PERSISTENCIA

Las lecturas de hoy son acerca de la persistencia, persistencia apasionada. El Éxodo narra una batalla ganada a pesar del cansancio porque Moisés, con la ayuda de Aarón y Jur, mantuvieron sus brazos levantados. Timoteo pide esa misma persistencia de su comunidad y de nosotros. Lucas cuenta un caso de justicia que gana una viuda, a pesar del juez injusto, porque ella no dejaba de acudir a él. El Salmo nos recuerda que Dios está en todos lados, cuidándonos día y noche de cualquier daño, yendo y viniendo, ahora y por toda la eternidad. Las lecturas son acerca de la persistencia, la búsqueda constante e inquebrantable de lo no se debe perder. Las lecturas son acerca de la persistencia apasionada de Dios en buscarnos, buscarnos para ganar nuestros corazones.

Family Discussion: Children nag because it works. Parents, like the judge in the parable, often get worn down by the persistence of their children asking for things large and small. Nagging is not a positive trait, to be sure. The confidence and the persistence behind this behavior, however, confidence in the goodness of the giver and the tenacity to stay in the relationship, are traits worth emulating in our relationship with God.

Read together Luke 18:1-8. Talk about appropriate ways to make needs and desires known to one another and to God in prayer. Recall that God wants to answer our prayers. As a family, offer your needs as prayers of petition to God.

Theme: Luke 18:1-8 Jesus urges his disciples to pray and not lose heart, for God hears and answers prayers.

Summary: Jesus speaks of a woman who is persistent in seeking a judgment from a judge who has kept putting off making a judgment on the woman's behalf. The woman remains constant in her pursuit and eventually the judge relents and provides a judgment. The judge renders a judgment, not because he is just, but because he has been worn down by the woman and fears that if he doesn't respond the woman might do him harm. Jesus takes this opportunity to speak to the importance of remaining persistent in our prayer. Most especially, Jesus encourages us to remain faithful to our pursuit of justice. Fidelity to living a life rooted in justice is essential to living as a follower of Jesus Christ.

Scripture: Then Jesus told his disciples a parable to show them that they should always pray and not give up. Luke 18:1

One day Jesus told a story about a woman who went to a judge and said, "My rights are being violated. Protect me!" At first, the judge refused to do anything, but the woman kept asking him. Finally, he said, "This woman is driving me crazy. I'm going to see that she gets justice because she is wearing me out with her constant requests!"

After Jesus finished the story, he said, "Learn a lesson from the judge. Even he gave a fair decision in the end. So don't you think that God will step in and help his children when they keep on crying out for help? Won't he stick up for them? I assure you, he will".

What Jesus wants us to learn from this story that he told is that God, our Heavenly Father, loves us and wants to do nice things for us. He wants what is best for us and he has the wisdom to know what is best. But don't forget, he likes to hear us ask, not just once, but again and again. He doesn't want us to ask once and then give up!

Father, we know that you hear us when we pray and you answer in the way that is best for us. Help us to trust in you and never give up. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Making the Connection (Grades 1, 2, and 3): Younger children, who need consistency to thrive, may be comforted to know that God always hears and answers our prayers. Support children in building a rich prayer life by teaching them that God invites us to be in close relationship with him through prayer.

Making the Connection (Grades 4, 5, and 6): Children of this age are beginning to show the capacity to offer sustained attention to a project. We can help foster this development by encouraging young people to stick with something even when it is difficult. Persistence is a trait that serves well the life of faith.

Making the Connection (Grades 7 and 8): Young people at this age are beginning to reject childhood notions of God and prayer while at the same time embracing their faith roots, religious heritage, and religious tradition, especially during times of change in their lives. This Sunday's Gospel offers an opportunity to present a more mature understanding of prayer.

Reflect: If a word or phrase from the Gospel captures your heart, sit quietly for several minutes, repeating it to yourself and asking God to show you how it applies to your life. What insights about prayer does this reflection offer you?

ANUNCIOS Y NOTICIAS ESPECIALES

VIGESIMO NOVENO DOMINGO EN TIEMPO ORDINARIO C

Una joven de 28 años fue a la iglesia un domingo y al terminar la celebración le dijo al párroco: "Esta es la primera vez que vengo a la iglesia".

-¿Y qué te ha parecido?

-Me ha dado un poco de miedo.

-¿Por qué?

-Parece algo tan importante y, sabe una cosa, yo nunca voy a nada importante. Sí, esto es muy importante.

Jesús cuenta a sus discípulos el cuento del juez malvado, que no cree ni en Dios ni en el diablo pero que termina escuchando a la viuda para que lo deje en paz.

La viuda no se rinde y persiste en su petición hasta ser escuchada.

Lucas nos dice que este cuento tenía como fin enseñar a sus discípulos "la necesidad de orar siempre, sin desanimarse jamás".

El domingo pasado hablábamos de la gratitud como actitud necesaria del discípulo ante Dios. Uno de diez, vino a postrarse ante el Señor y le dijo: Gracias.

Hoy, Jesús, dice a sus discípulos que "hay que orar siempre".

Yo creo que orar es estar enamorado.

Ustedes que saben, díganme, lo que hacen los enamorados.

Se echan de menos. Quieren estar juntos. Necesitan comunicarse. Y ahora que hay celulares, el celular se ha convertido en lugar de oración y de comunicación de los enamorados.

¿Se imaginan ustedes un esposo y una esposa que no se dicen "te quiero" ni a los 12 de la noche?

Sin comunicación, sin oración, todo se evapora hasta el matrimonio.

¿Se imaginan ustedes el vacío que hay en la vida de tantos niños que no han conocido a sus padres, que no han sentido el cariño y el calor de sus padres?

Hay una relación más grande que la del cordón umbilical, es la relación del amor.

Los grandes orantes han sido los grandes enamorados. San Vicente de Paúl, Francisco de Asís, Teresa de Ávila, José de Calasanz... tantos cristianos enamorados que hicieron de la oración su cordón umbilical, su celular, su comunicación con Dios Padre.

Orar es estar enamorado.

PART-TIME AUDIO VISUAL ASSISTANT NEEDED

Our choirs alone are unable to manage a consistent projection of lyrics and Mass Responses on the screen during Liturgies due to the deep concentration they need in order to lead "us", the community, into worship through liturgical singing.

Please contact Luis at the parish office if you are interested in embarking into this beautiful journey of helping us all to participate and be part of Mass.

POSICIÓN DE ASISTENTE AUDIOVISUAL

Nuestros coros solos no pueden manejar una proyección consistente de la letra de los cantos y las respuestas de la Misa en nuestras pantallas durante las liturgias, debido a la profunda concentración que necesitan para guiarnos a "nosotros", la comunidad en adoración a través de la música litúrgica.

Comuníquese con Luis en la oficina de la parroquia si está interesado en embarcarse en este hermoso viaje para ayudarnos a todos a participar y ser parte de la Misa.
