October 27, 2019—Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

27 de octubre de 2019—Trigésimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds; it does not rest until it reaches its goal, nor will it withdraw till the Most High responds.— Sirach 35:17-18a

La oración del humilde atraviesa las nubes, y mientras él no obtiene lo que pide permanece sin descanso y no desiste, hasta que el Altísimo lo atiende.

— Eclesiástico 35:17-18a

Note from Father Steven

Dear sisters and brothers,

I hope this note finds you in good harmony. This time of the year, the Finance Council of the Parish reports to the community how we did financially the previous Fiscal Year which runs from July 1st to June 30th. The Finance Council is composed of a few people from the parish some with expertise in the financial field, they serve as one of my advisory boards. I am very thankful to them for their dedication to their ministry. I am also very grateful for the stewardship of Saint John Vianney Parishioners who especially during given year lived through their actions a loving and compassionate testimony of sacrificial giving. Some by using their talents, some by giving their time, some by sharing their treasure, and some by doing all three in a very sacrificial way. Examples of that sacrificial treasure sharing are:

Legacy giving.... Those who remembered St. John Vianney in their Will.

Stained Glass Windows... Those who instead of taking 5 years to accomplish this project, allowed us to finish it in a little more than one year.

Fiesta Recovery...Those who understood the significance of the economic loss of Fiesta 2019 due to the heavy rains for the entire weekend, and stepped forward to assist.

Increased Sunday Giving....Those who sacrificially increased their “Sunday Parish Collection” giving.

Our reserves are very low, this year I ask from you to pay attention to our report, to slow down, think and pray how you and I can work together to raise what is needed in order to create a “Strong Financial Reserve” so when unexpected events like Rainy Fiesta, or others arise we are prepared. Let us ask our God of abundance to multiply our generous giving, and that we all parish and school community sacrificially compromise so next year I have even better news to share.

Blessings,

Padre Steven

Nota del Padre Esteban

Queridas hermanas y hermanos:

Espero se encuentren en buena armonía. En esta época del año, el Consejo de Finanzas de la Parroquia informa a la comunidad el reporte financiero del año fiscal anterior, que incluye de 1 de julio al 30 de junio. El Consejo de finanzas está compuesto por personas de la parroquia, algunas con experiencia en el campo financiero, ellos sirven como mis asesores. Les estoy muy agradecido por su dedicación a ese ministerio. También estoy muy agradecido por la generosidad de los feligreses de San Juan Vianney que, especialmente durante el año, demostraron a través de sus acciones un testimonio amoroso, compasivo y de sacrificio. Algunos usando sus talentos, algunos dando su tiempo, algunos compartiendo su tesoro y otros haciendo las tres acciones de una manera muy sacrificada.

Ejemplos de ese sacrificio de compartir tesoros son:

Legado de Vida ... Los que incluyeron a San Juan Vianney en su testamento.

Vitrales... Aquellos que en lugar de tomar 5 años para llevar a cabo este proyecto, nos permitieron terminarlo en poco más de un año.

Recuperación de la Fiesta ... Aquellos que entendieron la importancia de la pérdida económica de Fiesta 2019 debido a las fuertes lluvias durante todo el fin de semana y contribuyeron.

Aumento de las donaciones de los Domingos ... Aquellas personas que aumentaron con sacrificio sus “Donaciones de cada Domingo para la Parroquia”.

Nuestras reservas están muy bajas. Este año le pido que preste atención a nuestro informe, que baje la velocidad, piense y rece para que usted y yo podamos trabajar juntos en recaudar lo necesario para crear una “Reserva Financiera Sólida”. Así, cuando surjan eventos inesperados como Rainy Fiesta u otros, estemos preparados. Pidamos a nuestro Dios de abundancia que multiplique nuestras generosas donaciones, y que todos los miembros de la comunidad parroquial y escolar hagan un sacrificio de corazón para que el próximo año tenga aún mejores noticias para compartir.

Bendiciones,

Padre Esteban

Family Discussion: In the family, one sometimes observes a level of competition between children for parent attention, for acknowledgement of their abilities. Somehow, children seem to internalize that the attention given to one member of the family diminishes the attention given to another. In this way, children can often sound like the Pharisee in Jesus' parable. Parents who provide continual reminders to their children that they are loved for who they are, not for what they do, help children develop a healthy spirituality.

As a family, talk about what it means to compare oneself to another. Discuss whether it is helpful to compare oneself to another. In what ways might this be positive? (when it motivates one to use one's talents) In what circumstances might this be unhelpful? (when it proves discouraging, when it prevents one from valuing the abilities of another)

As a family, read today's Gospel, Luke 18:9-14. Discuss: What was wrong about the prayer of the Pharisee? How can we emulate the prayer of the tax collector?

Pray together as a family in thanksgiving for the blessing that is each member of your family. Pray that your family will be free from unhealthy competition. Pray in thanksgiving that God's love for us is unconditional.

Family Discussion for All Saint's Day on November 1: One of the great gifts of our Catholic tradition is remembrance of and prayer with the saints. The Church offers us an official canon, or list, of saints. On All Saints Day, we recall and pray with these saints. It is important to continue to tell these stories of saints and saintly people to our children so that they have ample models of people of faith for their own lives.

Together as a family, name and tell the story of favorite saints. Together prepare a list of some of the traits that these people have in common (generosity, courage, prayerfulness, and so on) After preparing this list, read together today's Gospel, Matthew 5:1-12. Identify how the attitudes described in the Beatitudes are reflected in the lives of the saints and people you named.

Pray together as a family a Litany of the Saints. (For example, the leader prays, "St. Elizabeth," and the children are invited to reply, "Pray for us.") Include in your list the saints and holy people you named in your discussion. Conclude by praying that your family will follow the example of these people as disciples of Jesus.

English Faith Formation is Tuesday, November 5, 2019 from 6:30 -7:30 PM. at St. John Vianney Catholic School. Parents/guardians need to sign their child/children in and out of class each week.

English Speaking Faith Formation Registration 2019-2020

Theme: Luke 18:9-14 Jesus tells the parable of the proud Pharisee who prayed from his self-importance and the tax collector who prayed humbly.

Summary: In this Gospel selection from Saint Luke we see Jesus illustrate the differing approaches of two individuals in prayer. Both approach the temple area to pray and one, a Pharisee, boldly moves forward and seemingly prays to himself, lauding his many virtues and putting down others while doing so. The other, a tax collector, who would be seen as on the lowest rung of the social ladder, approaches the temple area in a very contrite manner with his head bowed and striking his breast as a sign of true contrition. The one who boasts his goodness but does not recognize his errors is not a person of justice, whereas the one who seeks forgiveness walks away justified.

Scripture: For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted. Luke 18:14b

In our Scripture today, Jesus tells a story about a man who thought he was better than everyone else. In the story that Jesus told, two men went to the temple to pray. One of the men was a Pharisee, a religious group that was very strict in obeying the Law of Moses. The Pharisee stood up and prayed about himself: "I thank you, God, that I am not a sinner like everyone else. I don't cheat, I don't sin, and I'm certainly not like that tax collector over there! I fast twice a week, and I give you a tenth of all my income."

The tax collector stood at a distance and would not even lift his eyes to heaven as he prayed. Instead, he bowed his head in sorrow, saying, "Oh God, be merciful to me, for I am a sinner." Now, which of these two prayers do you think was pleasing to God? The prayer of the tax collector.

Jesus said, "The tax collector, not the Pharisee returned home justified before God. For those who exalt themselves will be humbled, but those who humble themselves will be exalted."

When we are tempted to brag about ourselves, we need to remember that other people are not impressed -- and neither is God!

Dear Father, we pray that you would help us to remain humble so that we would not think more highly of ourselves than we ought. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Making the Connection (Grades 1, 2, and 3): As younger children become more outwardly focused, they may begin to compare themselves to others negatively. Learning that God loves each of us as we are supports children in developing a healthy sense of themselves and their abilities and challenges.

Making the Connection (Grades 4, 5, and 6): Children of this age are still working out their place in relation to others. The temptation to self-importance is great. By our good example, however, we can teach them that God wants us to leave room in our hearts for him and other people.

Making the Connection (Grades 7 and 8): Young people at this age can be very competitive. Competition, by its very nature, encourages one to draw attention to oneself and can tempt one to excessive pride. This Sunday's Gospel offers a good antidote to pride—humility.

Reflect: If a word or phrase from the Gospel captures your heart, sit quietly for several minutes, repeating it to yourself and asking God to show you how it applies to your life. From what secret sins and shame do you need freedom?

Prayer Before Trick – or – Treating
God, bless all the people we will meet.
Let our visit with them be a pleasant treat.
Whatever the costumes we wear tonight,
May we all be clothed with Christ's light.
Protect us from danger and evil ways,
that tomorrow with the Saints we may sing your praise.
Blessings, Mrs. Cindy Perea and Ms. Kathleen Cook

ANUNCIOS Y NOTICIAS ESPECIALES

TRIGESIMO DOMINGO EN TIEMPO ORDINARIO C

Algunos católicos dicen que no se sientan en la primera banca porque aún no ha llegado la hora de su conversión.

Hoy, el evangelio nos pone como ejemplo y modelo al hombre de la última banca.

“El publicano se quedó atrás y no se atrevía ni a levantar los ojos al cielo”.

Hoy, quiero cantar y dar las gracias a Dios por los hombres de la última banca.

El cura, el que preside la asamblea, desde su primer puesto cae muchas veces en la tentación de sentirse tan importante que se olvida de Dios o lo deja en segundo plano y mira con indiferencia o desprecio a los de la última banca.

El cura y los de la primera banca no caen en la cuenta de que para algunos cristianos el mero hecho de franquear la puerta de la iglesia es para ellos un acto y un esfuerzo muy grandes.

Es un primer paso y tienen muchas cosas que solucionar a solas con el Señor.

El publicano, el de la última banca, escondido, invisible y digno sólo para Dios necesita experimentar el perdón. No necesita compararse con nadie.

¡Oh, Dios! Ten compasión de este pecador”.

Su autoestima religiosa era tan baja porque sólo se miraba a sí mismo, pone todo el énfasis en su Yo pecador.

El publicano y los pecadores tenemos que dejar de mirarnos a nosotros mismos y apoyarnos en Dios.

El que mira a Dios y confía en su misericordia tiene una visión más completa de sí mismo y del mundo en que vive.

Orar a un TÚ y situarse frente al que es más fuerte que nosotros y puede hacernos libres, nos ayuda a franquear puertas y a acercarnos unas cuantas bancas.

Me siente donde me siente, estamos llamados a identificarnos con el de la última banca, el publicano, a implorar la misericordia grande de Dios, a dejar nuestra carga en sus manos, a no sentirnos despreciados sino amados, a ignorar nuestras manos vacías y dejar que Dios las llene.

La verdad es que en la última banca también se puede orar en espíritu y verdad.

Los de la primera banca, los fariseos, los hombres llenos, los cumplidores de la Ley, los hombres institución, pedazos de perfección, no invocan a Dios, no rezan a Dios. Sólo rezan a su Yo. Tienen muy mala memoria, sus conciencias no les acusan de nada, sólo les recuerdan sus vanas obras.

Pueden decir con toda razón: “Yo no soy como los demás. Yo no soy como ese de la última banca. Yo ayuno, Yo pago el diezmo”. Yo...

Letanía insoportable de méritos y primeros puestos. No necesitan la absolución de Dios ni de los demás.

Dos hombres subieron al templo a orar.

¿Cuál de los dos miró a Dios con humildad, con hambre de perdón?

¿Cuál de los dos se miró a sí mismo con sinceridad y verdad?

¿Cuál de los dos miró al otro y al Totalmente Otro con amor?

Les digo que el de la última banca salió del templo justificado y el de la primera banca no.

40 días por la vida comienza el 25 de septiembre

En todo el país, la campaña otoñal de 40 Days por la vida se desarrolla del 25 de septiembre al 3 de noviembre. En esta campaña, nuestro sitio activo es Planned Parenthood, 1641 The Alameda, San Jose, 95126.

Estamos agradecidos por su participación pasada, y esperamos que se una a nosotros allí en oración pacífica. Estamos realizando una vigilia de oración allí de 7:00 a.m. a 7:00 p.m., durante todos los días de la campaña.

Visite www.40daysforlife.com/sanjose2 para aceptar la declaración de paz y encontrar sugerencias útiles para el estacionamiento y más información.

National Vocation Awareness Week is celebrated November 3-9, 2019. Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated, holy priests, deacons and consecrated men and women. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of a vocation.

In 15 years, 45 San Jose priests will retire. That means we need 3 new priests every year and a total of 25 seminarians over the next 15 years. We have 7 seminarians. It will take intentional PRAYER, TEACHING, and INVITATION. Will you pray for, encourage, or accompany young people in your life to help them discover and fulfill their Vocation? Are YOU considering a Vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life? Go to www.dsj.org/vocations and facebook.com/DSJVocations for tools to discern and foster religious Vocations in the Church
