Thanksgiving Prayer

Father in Heaven, Creator of all and source of all goodness and love, please look kindly upon us and receive our heartfelt gratitude in this time of giving thanks. Thank you for all the graces and blessings.

You have bestowed upon us, spiritual and temporal: our faith and religious heritage. Our food and shelter, our health, the loves we have for one another, our family and friends.

Dear Father, in Your infinite generosity, please grant us continued graces and blessing throughout the coming year.

This we ask in the name of Jesus, Your Son and our Brother.
 Amen.

Te lo pedimos en nombre de Jesús, tu hijo y nuestro hermano
 Amén.

Family Discussion: Understanding today's Feast of Christ the King may be particularly challenging. While we may not have a direct experience of kings or royalty, we have some sense of what these mean. We know that royalty have sovereignty over their kingdom. We know that those who are subjects to royalty offer them allegiance and honor. Christ is King in a way that is different from traditional understandings of royalty. Christ's kingship extends to all places, all people, and all times. Christ manifests his kingship through his death on the Cross, in which he offers salvation to all.

Recall with your children stories that you may have read about royalty. Talk with your children about what they have learned from these stories about what it means to be a king. Talk about what they have learned from these stories about what it means to be a subject.

Pray that you will always seek to be an element of forgiveness in whatever group you belong. You may wish to take the phrase of forgiveness from The Lord's Prayer and make it a mantra prayer, saying over and over again "Forgive me Lord as I am willing to forgive others."

Theme: Luke 23:35-43 Jesus is crucified under the title King of the Jews.

Summary: Calvary is the scene for today's gospel selection and the theme is forgiveness. Most specifically, the words of forgiveness are spoken to one of the criminals that is crucified alongside Jesus. You will notice that the criminal asks for forgiveness and does not presume it. He asks: "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." Jesus' reply is: "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise." We can see from this very short passage that to be forgiven we must seek forgiveness with an integrity of heart and never presume forgiveness, even though we have an "all loving God". If we offend someone that we know loves us, we are called to ask for forgiveness and not simply presume that because of their love we are forgiven of our offense.

Scripture: There was a written notice above him, which read: THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS. Luke 23:38

Crucified On each side of Jesus were two criminals. One of them mocked him saying, "If you are the Messiah, prove it. Save yourself—and us, too."

But the other criminal said, "We deserve to die for our crimes, but this man has done nothing wrong." Then he turned to Jesus and said, "Remember me when you come into your Kingdom." Jesus replied, "Today you will be with me in paradise." Jesus, today we crown you King and make you Lord of our life. Amen.

Making the Connection (Grades 1, 2, and 3): Help younger children distinguish between earthly kings and Jesus, Our King and Savior.

Making the Connection (Grades 4, 5, and 6): We do not have kings or royalty in our culture, but Christ the King is different from all traditional notions of royalty. Christ is King because in his death and resurrection, he brought salvation to all humankind. We show that we are his followers when we live our lives accordingly.

Making the Connection (Grades 7 and 8): Young people at this age can be very competitive, and they understand that a trophy symbolizes strength and triumph. This Sunday's Gospel challenges our understanding of victory and strength.

Reflect: If a word or phrase from the Gospel captures your heart, sit quietly for several minutes, repeating it to yourself and asking God to show you how it applies to your life. How can teens find comfort in this passage or in following a "failed" King?

My Promise to Jesus: Thank you, Jesus, for having given your life for us. Today, I will draw and decorate a cross to put in my prayer corner.

ANUNCIOS Y NOTICIAS ESPECIALES

FIESTA DE CRISTO REY DEL UNIVERSO

Érase una vez un terrateniente que deseaba convertirse en caballero. Quería servir a su rey y ser el más noble y leal caballero que jamás hubiera existido. El día de su investidura, abrumado por el honor, hizo un voto solemne. Prometió no arrodillarse ni levantar sus brazos en homenaje para nadie más que su rey. Y se le encomendó la guardia de una ciudad en la frontera del reino. Cada día vigilaba la entrada enfundado en su armadura.

Pasaron los años. Un día, desde su puesto de guardia vio pasar por delante una campesina con su carro lleno de verduras y frutas. Éste volcó y todo se derramó por el suelo. Nuestro caballero, para no romper su voto, no se movió. Otro día pasaba un señor que tenía sólo una pierna y su muleta se rompió. "Buen caballero, ayúdeme a levantarme". Pero el caballero no dobló las rodillas ni levantó las manos para ayudarlo.

Pasaron los años y nuestro caballero ya anciano recibió la visita de su nieto que le dijo: "Abuelo cógeme en tus brazos y llévame a la feria". Pero no se agachó para no quebrantar su voto. Finalmente, el rey vino a inspeccionar la ciudad y visitó al caballero que estaba rígido guardando la entrada. El rey lo inspeccionó y observó que estaba llorando. Eres

Majestad, hice voto de no inclinarme ni levantar mis brazos en homenaje más que para usted, pero ahora soy incapaz de cumplir mi voto. El paso de los años ha producido su efecto y hasta las juntas de la armadura se han oxidado. Ya no puedo levantar los brazos ni doblar las rodillas. El rey, como un buen padre, le dijo: "Si te hubieras arrodillado para ayudar a todos los que pasaban y hubieras levantado tus brazos para abrazar a todos que acudían a ti, hoy, podrías haber cumplido tu voto dándome el homenaje que juraste no rendir más que a tu rey.

"Lo que Dios Padre quiere de nosotros es que seamos como Jesús, que, aunque vino como Rey, se puso al servicio de los demás hasta el punto de dar su vida por toda la humanidad. Pidámosle a Dios Padre que nos de el Espíritu de su Hijo Jesús para servir a nuestros hermanos y hermanas hasta el punto de dar nuestra propia vida por ellos." ¡Qué bello es vivir, para amar, qué grande es tener, para dar! ¡Dar alegría y felicidad, darse uno mismo, eso es amar!
