“You are invited! Come along with me!”
December 15, 2019—Third Sunday of Advent
15 de diciembre de 2019—Tercer Domingo de Adviento

Those whom the LORD has ransomed will return and enter Zion singing, crowned with everlasting joy. — Isaiah 35:10a

Volverán a casa los rescatados por el Señor, vendrán a Sión con cánticos de júbilo, coronados de perpetua alegría. — Isaías 35:10a

REASON TO REJOICE

Dark violet is used throughout Advent to express its character as a season of spiritual preparation for Christmas and “the coming of the Lord.” But on the Third Sunday of Advent, formerly known as Gaudete (Latin for “rejoice”) Sunday, rose may be added to the liturgical environment. The entire liturgy is infused with a spirit of rejoicing.

Today’s first reading and Gospel proclaim the reality of God’s saving work in our midst. Isaiah exuberantly describes the idyllic transformation of all creation as a result of God’s presence in the midst of the people. In the Gospel, Jesus connects Isaiah’s prophecy with what is happening in his own ministry. In addition to the list of healings from Isaiah (the blind, the lame, lepers, and the deaf), Jesus’ presence brings two other reasons for rejoicing: “The dead are raised, and the poor have the good news proclaimed to them” (Matthew 11:5).

MOTIVO DE REGOCIJO

El color morado se usa durante el Adviento para expresar el carácter de este tiempo de preparación espiritual para la Navidad y la “venida del Señor”. Pero en el Tercer Domingo de Adviento, anteriormente conocido como Domingo Gaudete (“regocijo” en latín), se puede agregar el color rosa al ambiente litúrgico. Toda la liturgia está impregnada de regocijo.

La primera lectura de hoy y el Evangelio proclaman la realidad de la obra salvadora de Dios entre nosotros. Isaías describe con exuberancia la idílica transformación de toda la creación como resultado de la presencia de Dios en medio de su pueblo. En el Evangelio, Jesús vincula la profecía de Isaías con lo que está ocurriendo en su propio ministerio. Además de lista de curaciones de Isaías (los ciegos, los cojos, los leprosos y los sordos), la presencia de Jesús ofrece otras dos razones para regocijarnos: “Los muertos resucitan y a los pobres se les anuncia el Evangelio” (Mateo 11:5).

FAITH FORMATION

Family Discussion: It is easy to look at our world and become discouraged by the apparent absence of God and signs of God's salvation. Advent, however, is a season of hope, in which we acknowledge that salvation is both mysteriously present, even in our world, and yet to be fulfilled.

Read together today's Gospel. Think about John's question to Jesus: Are you the One? Jesus does not answer directly, but points to the signs of the kingdom present in his midst.

Together as a family, look through the newspaper for signs of hope that God is at work in our world. Pray that the world will know God's salvation by praying together the Lord's Prayer.

Theme: Matthew 11:2-11 Jesus tells John the Baptist of the signs of the kingdom that are being worked through him and praises John as more than a prophet

Summary: John the Baptist is imprisoned and he sends his disciples to seek out Jesus to inquire if he is indeed the one who Israel has been awaiting. Jesus responds by indicating the works he has done. Go tell John what you hear and see: the blind regain their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised and the poor have the good news proclaimed to them. This indeed is good news of great joy. John the Baptist has laid the ground work and paved the way for Jesus. Jesus is the One, and He brings joy to those who have long awaited this good news. John the Baptist plays a pivotal role in announcing the One who is the Good News. Scripture: Jesus answered, "Go back to John and tell him about the things you hear and see: The blind can see. The crippled can walk. People with harmful skin diseases are healed. The deaf can hear. The dead are raised to life. And the Good News is told to the poor." Matthew 11:4-5

In Scripture today we learn that John, even though he was in prison, was hearing about all the wonderful things Jesus was doing. He sent a message to Jesus by some of his friends. "Ask Jesus if he is the Messiah we have been expecting, or should we continue to watch for someone else?"

When they asked Jesus that question, he answered, "Go back to John and tell him about the things you hear and see: The blind can see. The crippled can walk. People with harmful skin diseases are healed. The deaf can hear. The dead are raised to life. And the Good News is told to the poor."

Jesus is God's gift to us. Jesus came to earth to give us life -- eternal life! What a gift!

Dear God, thank You for Jesus! We know that every good gift we receive comes from you and the greatest gift is eternal life brought down to us through your Son. Father, we thank you. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Key Words in Today's Readings:

First Reading: Isaiah 35:1-6a, 10

Lebanon is a country at the eastern end of the Mediterranean Sea, bordering modern-day Israel.

Carmel refers to a coastal mountain in Israel. Mount Carmel marks the northern reach of the plain of Sharon, a flat region that includes the modern city of Tel Aviv.

Second Reading: James 5:7-10

The Coming of the Lord is a reference to the second coming of Jesus, at the end of time. The first Christians thought that Jesus would be returning in their own lifetime; they expected it to happen soon.

Gospel: Matthew 11:2-11

A reed is a thin shoot of a plant, often found near water. It is thin and flexible, and bends with the wind.

Prophets were holy men and women who spoke publicly against poverty and injustice, and criticized the people whenever they refused to listen to God's word. Many of the books of the Old Testament were written by prophets (Isaiah, Jeremiah, Amos, and Micah, for example).

Reflect: If a word or phrase from the Gospel captures your heart, sit quietly for several minutes, repeating it to yourself and asking God to show you how it applies to your life. How can following Jesus make your life more meaningful and help you change the world? What doubts do you have about committing yourself to Jesus? www.smp.org

ANUNCIOS Y NOTICIAS ESPECIALES

TERCER DOMINGO DE ADVIENTO A

Homilía

Temas de las lecturas: Dios viene en persona y os salvará * Ven, Señor, a salvarnos. * Manteneos firmes, porque la venida del Señor está cerca * ¿Eres tú el que ha de venir o tenemos que esperar a otro?

Palabras de Ánimo

El tono de este tercer domingo de Adviento es de muy grande consuelo y de especial alegría. De hecho, es conocido

El Adviento es un ejercicio de esperanza, una mirada hacia el futuro, y en ese sentido, supone el esfuerzo de ver más allá del presente. Ese esfuerzo es necesario porque no nos gusta. Una persona plenamente feliz en su presente no tendría cómo vivir un Adviento. Por eso el Adviento tiene una nota de dolor, una nota que nace de la conciencia de que este momento es incompleto, insatisfactorio, insuficiente. Por todo ello necesitamos palabras de ánimo como las de este domingo.

Dios Viene en Persona a Salvar

La primera gran nota de alegría en este domingo la da Isaías, el gran profeta del Adviento cristiano. Se resume en la expresión imponente: "Dios viene en persona." Esto se cumplió a la letra en el Nacimiento de Cristo, en su vida cargada de frutos de amor y sobre todo en su Pasión redentora y gloriosa Resurrección. Subrayemos lo que se nos está anunciando, porque no hay otro anuncio igual en otras religiones o filosofías: he aquí a un Dios que, sin necesitarlos, nos busca, y sin ganancia para él ofrece a su Hijo por salvarnos. ¿Tiene el Dalai Lama algo semejante para contarnos? ¿Soñó Marx algo parecido? ¿Mahoma creyó posible algo así?

El Campo y la Lluvia

La segunda lectura, del apóstol Santiago, invita a la alegría también en un tono distinto, más discreto, si se quiere. Su frase de hoy es: "mantengan firme el ánimo, porque la venida del Señor está cerca." Y para darle firmeza a nuestro ánimo nos invita a mirar la obra de la lluvia en los campos. Cada gota parece insignificante e incluso un solo aguacero es del todo insuficiente, pero la sucesión de lluvias logra el milagro de la cosecha.

Saber valorar las gotas humildes y las lluvias breves; saber confiar en lo que sucede en el secreto de la tierra, más allá de lo que ven nuestros ojos: algo así es el Adviento, algo así es la vida humana misma. "Ven, Señor Jesús".

Sisters and Brothers of Saint John Vianney Community,

We are often approached at Mass or in the Parish Office with many requests, among them, from some of our elders, single seniors with restricted income or with financial difficulties, looking for a room to rent. Please, I ask you, pray about the possibility of extending hospitality to them.

Please contact me or the Parish Office.

Padre

Hermanas y Hermanos de La Comunidad de San Juan María Vianney,

A menudo recibimos muchas solicitudes en Misa o en la Oficina Parroquial, entre ellas, de algunos de nuestros feligreses de la tercera edad, incluyendo aquellos que son personas solteras con ingresos restringidos, o con dificultades financieras, y que buscan una habitación para rentar. Por favor, les pido que oren por la posibilidad de brindarles hospitalidad.

Por favor contácteme, o a la Oficina Parroquial.
