Special Message from our Pastor

Dear Sisters and Brothers of Saint John Vianney Community,

I would like to inform you that the time has come for me to request retirement from my 44 years of active and ordained ministry which begun in this Diocese in 1976. I have served happily and blessedly as a Deacon at Saint Julie Parish, and then beginning as a Parish Priest at Saint John Vianney Parish, continuing in Saint Catherine's in Morgan Hill, also at Sacred Heart on Willow Street. Then as a Pastor at Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish in Alviso, continuing at Santa Maria Goretti parish and now finally at Saint John Vianney parish where I started as Priest. I have also served as Vocations' Director for the Diocese, and with the Maryknoll Missionaries in Tanzania.

The renewal and re-orienting needed here at Saint John Vianney and throughout the diocese in response to changes in demographics and challenges in evangelization, give me pause so after 44 years and with my present medical condition, I feel I do not have the Energy necessary that these undertakings deserve.

Recently I received a letter from the Personnel Board of the Diocese of San José accepting my retirement request with Bishop Cantú approving that decision effective the First day of July, 2020.

I look forward to some time off and away, and then to return as a retired priest to help in the Parish or Diocese. Thank you for the blessing you are, and your continued prayers and support.

Graciously,

Padre Steven

Mensaje especial de nuestro Párroco

Queridos hermanas y hermanos de la comunidad de San Juan María Vianney,

Me gustaría informarles que ha llegado para mí el momento de solicitar retirarme a mis 44 años de ministerio activo y ordenado que comenzó en esta diócesis en 1976. He servido feliz y bendecidamente, primero como diácono en la parroquia de Santa Julia, después como sacerdote comenzando en la parroquia de San Juan María Vianney, continuando en Santa Catalina en Morgan Hill, luego serví en la parroquia del Sagrado Corazón en la calle Willow. Mi primera responsabilidad como Párroco fue en la parroquia de Nuestra Señora Estrella del Mar en Alviso, siguiendo en la parroquia de Santa Maria Goretti y ahora finalmente en la parroquia de San Juan María Vianney donde empecé como Padre. También tuve la oportunidad de servir como Director de Vocaciones para la Diócesis y con los misioneros de Maryknoll en Tanzania.

La renovación y la reorientación necesarias aquí en la Parroquia y en toda la Diócesis en respuesta a los cambios demográficos y los desafíos en la evangelización, me hacen pausar. Es por eso, que después de 44 años y debido a mi condición médica actual, siento que no tengo la energía necesaria que merecen estos retos.

Recientemente recibí una carta de La Junta Directiva de Personal de la Diócesis de San José, aceptando mi solicitud con la aprobación del Obispo Cantú siendo efectiva el 1º. De Julio de 2020.

Mi esperanza es de recuperarme y tomar un tiempo de descanso y luego regresar como sacerdote retirado para ayudar en la Parroquia o en la Diócesis. Gracias por la bendición que representan ustedes en mi vida y por sus oraciones y apoyo continuo.

Agradecidamente,

Padre Esteban

CHOICE

"If you choose you can keep the commandments," Sirach tells us. God "has set before you fire and water; to whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand" (Sirach 15:15, 16). This is a great mystery: God does not control us so completely that we cannot choose our own path. We have certain boundaries, of course, but no one but we can choose our way within those boundaries.

In today's reading from Matthew's Gospel, Jesus reminds us of our freedom and our responsibility for our lives. He calls us to look beyond the words of the commandments, all the way to their meaning. Look beyond the adultery to the selfishness that poisons our love. Look beyond the murder to the anger that eats away at our compassion. Look beyond the perjured testimony to the lies and deception that drive our behavior.

Our vocation is to choose life for ourselves, and to choose a path through our part of the world that helps make life possible and more abundant for others as well.

TÚ DECIDES

"Si tú lo quieres, puedes guardar los mandamientos", nos dice Eclesiástico (Sirácide). Dios "ha puesto delante de ti fuego y agua; extiende la mano a lo que quieras" (Eclo 15:15, 16). Este es un gran misterio: Dios no nos controla tan completamente que no podemos elegir nuestro propio camino. Es cierto que tenemos límites, pero nadie sino nosotros mismos podemos elegir el camino dentro de esos límites.

En la lectura de hoy del Evangelio según san Mateo, Jesús nos recuerda que somos libres y responsables de nuestra vida. Nos llama a ir más allá de las palabras de los mandamientos para considerar su significado. Si vas más allá del adulterio verás el egoísmo que envenena nuestro amor. Si vas más allá del asesinato verás la ira que corroe nuestra compasión. Si vas más allá del falso testimonio (perjurio) verás las mentiras y engaños que producen este comportamiento.

Nuestra vocación es elegir la vida para nosotros mismos, y tomar un camino a través de nuestro mundo que haga la vida posible y más abundante para otros también.

Pray that you will always see the commandments as friends who will guide you to live a life of goodness. Ask Jesus to help you in making all decisions and assist you in choosing the kindest of words and the most loving of actions each and every day.

Family Discussion: Families have rules. Without rules, family life would be chaos. As a family, brainstorm a list of rules that you are all called to follow in your home in order for you all to get along together. Think about rules for play time, rules for eating, rules for how to speak to one another, rules for going out with friends, and so on. Emphasize that families follow rules as a way of showing love and respect for one another. Explain that in this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus talks about following the Law. Say: God's Law of love can be thought of as rules that we are to follow in order to show our love and respect for one another. Read aloud this Sunday's Gospel, Matthew 5:17-37. Talk specifically with one another about how anger is to be dealt with in your family. Conclude by praying for the grace to overcome anger and to show respect for one another as a family by following God's Law of love.... www.lovolapress.com

My Promise to Jesus: Jesus, this week I will try not to criticize others. Please help me to remain faithful to this promise!

Director of Religious Education

Theme: Matthew 5:17-37 I have not come to abolish the law and the prophets but to fulfill them.

Summary: It should not surprise us that Jesus goes beyond the requirements of the laws of the Old Testament, even while saying they need to be observed. In this section of Saint Matthew's gospel Jesus fleshes out a deeper meaning and intent of the commandments. For example when he speaks of the sin of murder, the taking of another's life, he speaks of it as including the diminishment of a person's life by harsh words or actions. Likewise Jesus speaks of taking the commandments beyond the thou shalt not to another level of understanding. The level that speaks of the fact that in the greatest commandment to love we are called to go far and above the stated words of the commandments and enter into the spirit of the commandments. This is true obedience

Scripture: "Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled to your brother; then come and offer your gift. Matthew 5:23

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus said, "You have heard that it was said to people long ago, 'You must not murder. If you commit murder, you will be subject to judgment.' But I say, even if you are angry with your someone, you are subject to judgment." He went on to say that you will face God's judgment if you call someone a bad name or curse them.

What did Jesus say we should do if we are guilty of any of these things? He said, "If you are presenting your offering to God and you remember that you have said something that hurt another person, leave your gift at the altar and go and ask forgiveness from that person. Then come back and offer your gift to God."

Before we give our offering today, perhaps we should ask ourselves a few questions. Have I been angry with someone this week? Have I had any arguments lately? Have I called someone a bad name? Have I said something about someone that wasn't true? If so, we should ask God to forgive us and we should go to the person we have hurt and ask them to forgive us. When we have done that, God will be pleased with our offering.

Heavenly Father, we would not think of committing murder, but we sometimes say things in anger that hurt other people. Help us to guard against hateful and hurtful words and forgive us as we ask those we have hurt to forgive us as well. In Jesus' name we pray, amen. www.sermons4kids.com

Key Words in Today's Readings: www.livingwithchrist.us

First Reading: Sirach 15:15-20. The Book of Sirach in the Bible was written 200 years before Jesus was born. It tells us that wisdom is respecting God and obeying God and obeying God's plans for us.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 119. In the Psalm, the writer uses legal terms when he speaks about following God: law, decrees, precepts, and statutes. We might think it is hard to follow all these rules, but the psalmist sees these laws as blessings and life-giving. Jesus says in the gospel that he has come not to abolish the law but to fulfill it. Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 2:6-10. Saint Paul speaks of God's wisdom as mysterious and hidden: it cannot be known by logic or reason. God reveals his wisdom to us through the Spirit. Those who rely on worldly wisdom instead will not have eternal life.

Gospel: Matthew 5:17-37. To swear is to make a promise relying on something or someone else, and to take a false oath is to break a promise, or to lie when we are making that promise. Because we are not perfect as God is, Jesus says that it is better if we do not make any promises that we cannot keep.

ANUNCIOS Y NOTICIAS ESPECIALES

Sexto Domingo en Tiempo Ordinario Ciclo A

Érase una vez un escultor a quien un obispo le había encargado una estatua para la catedral. Cuando llegó el día de entregarla, el escultor se sentía mal, no estaba satisfecho de su trabajo y no le gustaba su estatua.

Llamó a su ayudante para que le ayudara a transportarla y le dijo: ya tenía ganas de quitarme de encima este muerto.

Su ayudante de mal humor miró para otro lado. Entonces el escultor recordó las veces que le había maltratado e insultado durante el trabajo. Éste le pidió perdón y el viaje hasta la catedral se hizo más agradable.

En el camino se encontró con su mujer que le miró con desprecio y no quería viajar con ellos. Pero el escultor, con humildad, le pidió perdón y ella con una sonrisa se lo dio y se sentó junto a su marido.

Más adelante se encontró con el cantero que le había vendido la piedra para hacer la estatua. El cantero le miró con ira porque no le había pagado a pesar de sus promesas.

El escultor se disculpó una vez más y pagó su deuda y viajó con ellos a la catedral.

Cuando llegaron a la catedral, la mujer del escultor invitó al obispo para que viera la estatua mientras el escultor, su ayudante y el cantero la descargaban.

Cuando la descubrieron todos se maravillaron de su extraordinaria belleza.

El más sorprendido fue el escultor y es que cada vez que pedía perdón y se reconciliaba la estatua se hacía más hermosa.

El autor de la primera lectura, Ben Sirach, te dice que Dios te ha dado un poder fascinante: el poder de elegir.

"Si quieres puedes guardar los mandamientos; actuar con fidelidad es cuestión de tu propia elección".

No podemos culpar a Dios de nuestras malas decisiones, de los pecados que cometemos. "Ante ti pongo la vida y la muerte, lo que elijas te será dado".

"Elige la vida" no significa elige 80, 90 o 100 años; no significa elige el lujo, la pereza, el no hacer nada, el dinero, la irresponsabilidad... "Elige la vida" significa: amar a Dios, obedecer a Dios, caminar con Dios, elegir a Dios.

Elegir la muerte no significa un ataque de corazón, un accidente o una bala perdida.

Elegir la muerte significa elegir la idolatría en sus mil formas, adorar las criaturas.

Si eliges la vida, Dios te la dará, Dios te dará la conversión del corazón para que puedas vivir la ley del amor.

Reserven la fecha: Sábado 7 de Marzo. Retiro de Cuaresma Familiar, "Viviendo el Perdón y el Amor de Dios en el Hogar" desde la 1:30pm cerrando con la Misa de las 7pm. Through CRS Rice Bowl, we journey with members of our human family around the world, and commit our Lenten prayers, fasting and almsgiving to deepening our faith and serving those in need.
