SAINT JOHN MARY VIANNEY
(1786-1859) August 4

A busy pastor jokingly suggests the secret of John Vianney’s holiness: “He died seventeen years before telephones!” Call they didn’t, but visit they did, keeping Vianney eighteen hours a day in the confessional. Stories abound of reading hearts and exorcisms, but Vianney’s first miracle was getting ordained. Difficulty with studies delayed him, prompting the rector’s apology to the bishop, “So far to ordain just one, especially this one!” The bishop, who could not know he was ordaining the future patron saint of parish priests, replied, “No burden to ordain one good priest!” In Ars, only an elderly handful attended Mass, “praying,” one told Vianney, “for a priest with brains.” But he stayed forty-two years, fulfilling the promise he made the day he arrived. In a sculpture just outside the village Vianney points skyward: “Show me the way to Ars,” he tells a boy, “and I’ll show you the way to heaven.” To someone who feared there was no heaven beyond the grave, Vianney smiled, “My child, it would have been heaven enough to have lived as Jesus’ disciple on earth.”

SAN JUAN MARÍA VIANNEY
(1786-1859) 4 de agosto

El padre Juan nació en Francia, en una familia campesina pobre y esto le privó de una buena educación formal para luego estudiar en latín. A los 19 años lo despidieron del seminario por no ser apto para los estudios. Un amigo sacerdote intercedió por él ante el obispo para que lo ordenara, ‘no por sus conocimientos, sino por su santidad’. Así fue. Unos años después de ordenado lo enviaron al pueblo de Ars donde había 250 personas alejadas de Dios y de la Iglesia. La gente lo rechazó, pero él los amó profundamente, oró e hizo penitencia por ellos. Poco a poco descubrieron en él a un sacerdote santo y comenzaron a convertirse. Su fama de santidad se extendió en toda Francia y Asís pasó a ser la capital de la fe, pues el gobierno francés tuvo que construir un ferrocarril hasta Ars para responder a los peregrinos. Su fama de confesor fue grande y su devoción también, pues llegó a confesar hasta 15 horas diarias, sabiendo incluso los pecados del penitente antes de que se los confesara.

Pastor's Note

Peace to you all!

We are a week away from our Parish celebration of St John Vianney. Traditionally that's called a novena--a nine day period of prayer. The first novena was Pentecost when the Mother of the Lord gathered the apostles to pray as a church for the coming of the Spirit. A novena to God through the intercession of saints is in the fabric of who we are as a Christian people. There is so much need for prayer, unity as a people now in this international pandemic, national division and uncertainties locally. I have every confidence that when we pray as a body gathered together in one mind and heart regardless of whether we are in person on campus or not, God will hear us. Let's pray these next days with greater conviction for the protection of every member of our parish from the virus, but most importantly that we would become happy, healthy and holy People of God! St John Vianney, pray for us!

Fr. Joe

FROM THE PASTOR

Nota del Párroco

Paz a todos!

Estamos a una semana de nuestra celebración parroquial de San Juan Vianney. Tradicionalmente se llama novena, un período de oración de nueve días. La primera novena fue Pentecostés cuando la Madre del Señor reunió a los apóstoles para orar como iglesia por la venida del Espíritu. Una novena a Dios a través de la intercesión de los santos está entre tejido dentro de lo que somos como pueblo cristiano. Hay tanta necesidad de oración, unidad como pueblo ahora en esta pandemia internacional, división nacional e incertidumbres locales. Tengo toda la confianza de que cuando oramos en conjunto en un solo cuerpo reunidos en una sola mente y corazón, independientemente de si estamos en persona en las instalaciones o no, Dios nos escuchará. ¡Oremos en los próximos días con mayor convicción por la protección del virus de cada miembro de nuestra parroquia, pero lo más importante es que nos convirtamos en seres felices, sanos y santo Pueblo de Dios! San Juan Vianney, ¡ruega por nosotros!

They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.

Matthew 14:20

How many of you enjoy going on a picnic? Oh, so do I! Well, ... we are going to use our imaginations and think of things that might be inside if we were going to have a picnic. Let's see, there would surely be sandwiches, chips, cookies, and some soft drinks. Can you think of anything I may have forgotten that you would enjoy eating on a picnic?

I think we have enough food in our basket for a pretty nice picnic, don't you? If we had all of the things we mentioned, do you think there would be enough food for our group of children? What if everyone in our church came to our picnic, would there be enough food in our basket for the whole church? What if everyone in our town came to our picnic, would there be enough food to feed the whole town? No way! You couldn't feed the whole town with just this little basket of food.

One day Jesus and his disciples wanted to have some time to relax. They got into a boat and went away to a quiet place to rest. When they arrived, there were people there waiting for Jesus to teach them and heal the sick. Jesus had wanted to rest, but when he saw the people, he loved them so much that he forgot all about being tired. He healed the sick and taught the people about the kingdom of heaven.

Soon it was time to eat. The disciples went to Jesus and asked him to send the people away so that they could get something to eat. "They don't need to go away," Jesus said, "you feed them."

https://sermons4kids.com/showing_our_love_for_jesus.htm

Our readings today remind us of our hunger and thirst, and how God works within us. We human beings are created dependent on food and water, and much more. And God deeply desires that our needs be met. Our physical hunger and thirst point to our deeper hungers: our need for meaning, purpose, and belonging; and most of all, for unity with God. In Matthew's Gospel passage today, Jesus' heart is moved with compassion for the people. Jesus not only cures the sick and feeds the multitude, he also establishes bonds of community through the shared meal. Saint Paul shows us that nothing can ultimately separate us from God. Isaiah reminds us of God's ongoing invitation to us to come and receive. God's gifts cannot be earned or purchased. God's grace is offered in abundance. God's nourishment is the very best possible, and we should accept no substitutes

IMAGINING GOD'S ABUNDANCE

When reflecting upon today's Gospel passage from Matthew, the story of the feeding of the multitude, we might consider the role of Jesus' disciples. Unlike the very similar story in Matthew 15, Jesus responds to the disciples by saying, "Give them some food yourselves". Jesus is pushing his disciples to think beyond the apparent scarcity, and to open their imaginations to God's abundance. They are to join in with what God is doing. Jesus then takes, blesses, breaks, and shares the bread (anticipating his action at the Last Supper), and the disciples share the loaves with the crowd.

The stories of the feeding of the multitudes also point ahead to the practice of Eucharist in the Church. The Eucharist itself points ahead to God's banquet at the consummation of the reign of God, when all will share God's abundance. We the Church are called to open our imaginations to God present and active, who continually works toward God's promised future. We are to share in God's passionate desire to feed the people, and join in what God is doing here and now.

ANUNCIOS Y NOTICIAS ESPECIALES

IMAGINANDO LA ABUNDANCIA DE DIOS

Al reflexionar hoy en el pasaje del Evangelio de Mateo, la historia de alimentar a la multitud, podríamos considerar el papel de los discípulos de Jesús. A diferencia de la historia muy similar en Mateo 15, Jesús responde a los discípulos diciéndoles “denles ustedes de comer”. Jesús fomenta a sus discípulos a pensar más allá de la aparente escasez, y a abrir su imaginación a la abundancia de Dios. Deben unirse a lo que Dios está haciendo. Entonces Jesús toma, bendice, parte y comparte el pan (anticipando lo que hará en la Última Cena), y los discípulos comparten los panes con la multitud.

Las historias en donde se alimenta a las multitudes también apuntan a la practica de la Eucaristía en la Iglesia. La Eucaristía misma apunta hacia el banquete de Dios en la consumación del reino de Dios, cuando todos compartiremos la abundancia de Dios. Nosotros, la Iglesia, se nos llama a abrir nuestra imaginación a Dios presente y activo, que obra continuamente hacia el futuro prometido de Dios. Debemos compartir el deseo apasionado de Dios por alimentar a las personas y unirnos en lo que Dios está haciendo aquí y ahora.

Denles ustedes de comer

PARTICIPACIÓN CATÓLICA

"Nuestro país realiza un Censo cada diez años para contar el número de hombres, mujeres y niños que residen en Estados Unidos. Los datos del censo ayudan a dirigir más de $800 mil millones anuales a programas clave diseñados para promover el bien común, fortalecer a las familias y reducir la pobreza. La Iglesia Católica y otros proveedores de servicios dependen de un conteo preciso en el Censo nacional para poder servir eficazmente a los necesitados. Instamos a que todas las personas sean contadas en el Censo, independientemente de su ciudadanía... Nuestra sociedad, arraigada en la fortaleza de la familia, no puede arriesgarse a perder esta oportunidad de dar a los niños y a los padres las herramientas que necesitan para tener éxito" - Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de Estado Unidos

CATHOLIC PARTICIPATION

"Our country conducts a Census every ten years to count the number of men, women and children residing in the United States. Census data helps direct more than $800 billion annually to key programs designed to advance the common good, strengthen families and reduce poverty. The Catholic Church and other service providers rely on the national Census to provide an accurate count in order to effectively serve those in need. We urge for all people to be counted in the Census, regardless of their citizenship... Our society, rooted in the strength of the family, cannot risk missing this opportunity to give children and parents the tools they need to succeed" - U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops

¿QUIÉN DEBE SER CONTADO?

Todo adulto, niño y bebé que vive en Estados Unidos, sin importar la edad, raza, grupo étnico o estatus de ciudadanía! Debe llenarse SOLAMENTE una forma por cada domicilio e incluir información de todos los que vivan allí.

¿ES SEGURO?

Su información estará segura. La Oficina del Censo no está permitida a dar a conocer públicamente sus respuestas en una manera que podría identificarlo a usted ni a su hogar. Por ley, sus respuestas sólo se pueden utilizar para producir estadísticas.

WHO GETS COUNTED?

Every adult, child and baby living in the United States, regardless of their age, race, ethnic group or citizenship status. One census form ONLY should be completed for each mailing address and it should include all people living in the household.

IS IT SAFE?

Your information is safe. The Census Bureau is not permitted to publicly release your responses in a way that could identify you or your household. By law, your responses can only be used to produce statistics.

The City of San José has launched an online map of food distribution sites in Santa Clara County to ensure there is food for those in need. Due to changes and the timeliness required to provide accurate information, residents can access up-to-date information regarding food distribution every Monday by using the City's Food distribution map bit.ly/SVStrongFood. Call 2-1-1, a 24-hour, multi-lingual service • Text your zip code to 89821 • Call 800-984-3663, Second Harvest of Silicon Valley's toll-free hotline or • Text GETFOOD to 408-455-5181 to request assistance from Second Harvest.

Information on the All Ages Meals can be found at: <https://www.sanjoseca.gov/home/showdocument?id=59286>. Please note Spanish, Vietnamese and Traditional Chinese versions are all on the same PDF file.

To use Virtual Local Assistance Center for food information, go to: <https://www.sanjoseca.gov/news-stories/news/virtual-local-assistance-center/get-food>

For more information on staying safe, how to get food, and how to help including volunteering and donating, please visit <https://siliconvalleystrong.org>
