

What is a Parishioner?

Before we were baptized, we were under a death sentence. By Jesus' death and resurrection He has purchased us for Himself. By our Baptism we have been given the gift of eternal life to live with Him. Death no longer rules us. Without baptism we cannot hope for eternal life. Eternal life is only possible with God. Baptism makes us citizens of God's Kingdom, citizens of Heaven, citizens of His Church. By our Baptism we also become parishioners. Everyone who is baptized has a parish, a diocese and a bishop.

Being a parishioner is our response, our acceptance of being admitted into the Church founded by Jesus Christ. We show our gratitude by our response to the Church. We worship God in our parish church together with our brother and sister parishioners.

The Church is not just some general, theoretical group of people. The Church is physical, geographical and local. It is a specific, local Church, with all the local Christian parishioners united in Communion with Christ. Paul frequently wrote to his flock to encourage them to work together, to be of one mind, one Baptism, one Faith, one Bread. Our word for that is "Parishioner".

If you accept and value your Baptism and the redemption from sin and death, then you need to respond! We should thank God for this precious gift! We need to say to God as the Psalmist said,

"Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will."

As parishioners we say to the Church, our parish, "You can count on me. Here am I".

We worship with our fellow parishioners in assembly on Sundays and Holy Days. We offer our ministry through the Church, with the community. We offer our time, our talent and our treasure, recognizing that everything we have comes from God, and we are eternally grateful. When we register as parishioners we say, "I'm committed to you", and, "You can count on me", much like we do in the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony or Holy Orders.

Too many people wish to remain anonymous, disconnected, independent, uncommitted. Instead we say,

"Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will."

As parishioners we want the Church to know we are here, and that the Church can count on us.

If you are not sure if you are registered with the parish, please contact the parish office. If you have not already registered with the parish, I invite you to do so and to say,

"Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will. Count on me."

Que es ser un parroquiano?

Antes de ser bautizado, estabamos bajo sentencia de muerte. Por la muerte de Jesus y su resurreccion El nos ha comprado para El mismo. Por nuestro bautismo nosh an dado el regalo de la vida eterna para vivirla con El. La muerte ya no nos gobierna. Sin bautismo no podemos esperar la vida eterna. La vida eterna es solamente posible con Dios. El Bautismo nosh ace ciudadanos del reino de Dios, ciudadanos del cielo, ciudadanos de su iglesia. Por nuestro bautismo tambien somos parroquianos. Cada uno que sea bautizado tiene una iglesia, una diocesis y un Obispo.

El ser un parroquiano es nuestra respuesta, nuestra aceptacion de ser admitidos dentro de la iglesia fundada por Cristo Jesus. Nosotros mostramos nuestra gratitud atraves de nuestra respuesta a la iglesia. Alabamos a Dios en nuestra iglesia juntos con nuestros hermanos y hermanas parroquianos. La iglesia no es solo algo general o un grupo teorico de personas. La iglesia es fisica, geografica y local. Es una iglesia especifica y local, con todos los parroquianos locales Cristianos unidos en Comunion con Cristo. Pablo frecuentemente escribio a su rebaño motivandolos a trabajar juntos, como una sola mente, un solo bautismo, una sola Fe, un solo Cuerpo. Nuestra palabra para esto es "Parroquiano".

Si usted acepta y valora su Bautismo y la redencion del pecado y la muerte, entonces usted necesita responder! Debemos dar gracias a Dios por su regalo precioso! Necesitamos decirle a Dios como el salmista dice,

"Aqui estoy, Señor vengo a hacer tu voluntad."

Como parroquianos le decimos a la Iglesia, nuestra parroquia, "Puedes contar conmigo. Aqui estoy". Celebramos con nuestros feligreses en la congregacion de los Domingos y Dias Santos. Ofrecemos nuestro ministerio a traves de la iglesia, con la comunidad. Ofrecemos nuestro tiempo, talent y Tesoro, reconociendo que todo lo que tenemos viene de Dios y estamos eternamente agradecidos. Cuando nos registramos como parroquianos estamos diciendo, "Yo me comprometo contigo" y "Puedes contar conmigo", muy parecido a lo que decimos en el sacramento del santo Matrimonio o las Ordenes Santas.

Muchas personas desean permanecer anonimos, desconectados, independientes, sin compromiso. En lugar de decir,

"Aqui estoy Señor; vengo a hacer tu voluntad."

Como parroquianos queremos que la iglesia sepa que estamos aqui y que la iglesia cuente con nosotros. Si usted no esta seguro que esta registrado en la iglesia, favor de llamar a la oficina de la parroquia. Si usted Si no se ha registrado en la parroquia, les invite a utilizar los sobres que estan en las entradas de la parroquia cada vez que asisten a misa.

"Aqui estoy, Señor; vengo a hacer tu voluntad. Cuenta conmigo."

The churches of the Chaldean Diocese of St. Thomas the Apostle are praying the Rosary for 33 days during January and early February. They are asking that our churches join them for the last nine-day Rosary novena in hopes that it will shed hope and light on their brothers and sisters in Christ who are suffering exile from the homeland because of their faith.

Please invite the faithful of your parishes to join them in praying the Rosary for nine days, and to recite the following prayer along with the Rosary.

“Mother of God, Virgin Mary, be for us a safeguard from all illnesses and hardships. Through the great love you have for Christ, ask and beseech Him to be merciful to us, to give healing to our ailments, to console the downtrodden, to reunite those who are scattered and to forgive us.”

Although the novena started on January 25 and continues through February 2, we still invite you to join them in solidarity and prayer for the churches of the Chaldean Diocese. Thank you for considering this important prayer request.
