

Paid with a Glass of Milk

A young Howard Kelly was poor and hungry, knocking on doors for a bit of charity. At the last door, discouraged by so little response that day, he merely asked for a glass of water from the young girl who opened the door. Realizing he was more than thirsty, she brought him a glass of milk. He asked what he owed her and she responded, "Nothing. Mother has taught us never to accept pay for a kindness." Little Howard responded simply: "Then I thank you from my heart." Years later this same little girl was a seriously ill, middle-aged woman. She was transferred to the city hospital and treated successfully by a specialist. After months of treatment and medication, she overcame the disease and returned home. When the bill arrived, she feared to open it because, although not totally poor, she was of humble means. Peering inside the envelope, she found this message on the bill: "Paid in full with one glass of milk. Dr. Howard Kelly." Our acts of kindness never go unpaid, and a little love goes a long way toward transforming the world. True gratitude is never just a word on the lips but a lifestyle and an attitude of a noble heart. A grateful hearted person knows that all we receive is a gift, and we should return those gifts to those around us. Our biggest benefactor is God himself, who has given us life, love, and eternal salvation. May our Lord be the first one to whom we return our gratitude!

For Reflection How often do I say thank you each day? Is it enough? When I can't say thank you in words, do I express it with a smile, gesture, or hidden act of kindness?

Pagado con un vaso de leche

Un joven Howard Kelly era pobre y hambriento, tocaba puertas pidiendo caridad. Toco la ultima puerta desanimado por la poca respuesta ese dia, solo pidio un vaso de agua de la joven niña que le abrio la puerta. Notando que estaba mas que sediento, ella le trajo un vaso de leche. El le pregunto que cuanto le debia y ella respondio, "Nada, mi mama nos enseño a no aceptar ningun pago por un favor". El pequeño Howard respondio simplemente: "Te lo agradezco desde el fondo de mi corazón." Años mas tarde la misma niña, que ya era adulta estaba seriamente enferma, Fue transferida al hospital de la ciudad y atendida exitosamente por un especialista. Despues de meses de tratamiento y medicacion, se sano y regreso a casa. Cuando la factura del hospital llego, tenia miedo de abrirla porque aunque no eran totalmente pobres, eran muy humildes. Mirando dentro del sobre, encontro este mensaje escrito en la factura: "Pagado totalmente con un vaso de leche. Dr. Howard Kelley." Nuestros actos de caridad nunca se quedan sin ser recompensados y un poco de amor siempre transforma al mundo. La verdadera gratitud no es solo una palabra en los labios sino un estilo de vida y una actitud de un corazón noble. Una persona con un corazón agradecido sabe que todo lo que recibimos es un regalo que debe ser utilizado para ayudar a aquellos que nos rodean. Nuestro mas grande benefactor es Dios mismo, que nos ha dado la vida, amor, y la salvacion eterna.

Que Dios sea el primero a quien nosotros le devolvamos nuestra gratitud!

Para Reflexionar Que tan seguido doy gracias en cada dia? Y sera suficiente? Cuando no puedo decir gracias con palabras, lo expreso con una sonrisa, un gesto o un acto de caridad?

What is a “doctor of the Church”?

Institutions of higher learning confer doctorates on those who make significant contributions to a particular discipline. Likewise, the Church, as an institution of higher enlightenment, confers the title “doctor” on those who have significantly illuminated Christ to his disciples. Doctor is derived from the Latin docere, “to teach.” While all saints are recognized for their exceptional holiness, popes or an ecumenical council may bestow the honorary title of “doctor of the Church” to saints with exceptional wisdom and learning. These rare individuals have contributed profoundly to a greater understanding of the faith, making a monumental theological or doctrinal impact on the Church. The Church has thirty-six doctors. Saint Gregory of Narek was the most recently named in 2015. Saints Ambrose, Jerome, Augustine, and Gregory the Great were the original four. Saint Thomas Aquinas (1225–1274) was accorded the distinctions “doctor angelicus” and “doctor communis” for his purity of life and clarity of thought that were thought to stretch beyond the confines of the human intellect. Saint Catherine of Siena (1347–1380) became a “shuttle diplomat” as she developed peace treaties between warring political factions in Italy in the fourteenth century. Saint Teresa of Ávila (1515–1582), whose feast day is October 15, remains the hallmark of those seeking to engage in a more mystical spirituality. Saint Alphonsus Liguori (1696–1787) was named a doctor the quickest of all, a mere eighty-four years after his death. These doctors proved themselves to be trustworthy guides for both protecting and developing the great treasure that is our faith. —The Redemptorists

A Word from Pope Francis Often it is better simply to slow down, to put aside our eagerness in order to see and listen to others, to stop rushing from one thing to another and to remain with someone who has faltered along the way. —The Joy of the Gospel (Evangelii Gaudium), November 24, 2013

Palabras del Papa Francisco Frecuentemente es mejor simplemente ir mas despacio y poner de lado nuestras prisas para ver y escuchar a otros, dejar de correr de una cosa a otra, y detenernos con alguien que ha fallado en el camino. La alegría del Evangelio (Evagelii Gaudium), Noviembre 24, 2013
